12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" - Mk 4:39-40

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Do we trust that God will take care of us and has things under control? When life gets difficult, shaky or painful, we may find ourselves wondering what we may have done to deserve this fate. Often, we go to great lengths to explain suffering away, as if it has no purpose and ought not to exist. In an attempt to get God on our side in our battle against suffering, our prayer can mirror a question asked by the disciples: do you not care that we are perishing? As we are asking that question of God, God is asking of us: do you not yet have faith? It is for certain that God does not intentionally inflict pain upon us. God has no sinister plot to test our faith or trip us up. Rather, the unconditional, restorative and rejuvenating power of God's love can bring light out of the greatest darkness and gives hope in the midst of deep despair. We have to be patient and ride out the storm. It is our task to deepen our faith that God will calm the wind and draw meaning out of that which seems senseless.

From Fr. Jose's desk

Is Jesus is asleep in the boat of your heart?

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ Jesus,

This Sunday, the readings tell us about the power of God over nature. In the passage leading up to Mark 4: 35-42, Jesus affirmed the unstoppable growth of the Kingdom that he compares to several things in parables. Now, as if to give a visible sign of it, he sails to the other shore, that is, to the pagan shore of the Lake of Galilee. In this scene with the strong wind and storm, Jesus acts as Lord of nature and his disciples are frightened. "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" Today too, In the midst of a storm, people wonder if God is asleep, like the disciples did. Jesus is there in the boat with his disciples and is not too surprised at his disciples' fear. On the contrary, he feels compassion for them; he rebukes the strong wind and there was a great calm. It is the victory of Jesus, Son of God, who rebukes the forces of evil, represented by the waves of the sea. Trust in Jesus is what helps the disciples overcome their fear and regain their inner peace.

Jesus exhorts us to face the waves and storms of this world, represented in the current problems of our society that threaten to numb our conscience. The storm scene reminds us of the following: in our time, it seems that God is asleep. However, God is not asleep, he is always active and awake. It is we who have allowed God to sleep in our hearts. The current influence of society seeks for our lives to be spent "in sleep" at all costs. It is about numbing our consciences to avoid remorse for the sins we commit. Faith is numbed in order to forget about the fact that God is present in our world. If you think like this, Christ is asleep within us. If, on the contrary, Christ is awake in us, our faith will be alive. And we will be able to act from our Christian faith in the face of circumstances that overwhelm us and kill us spiritually. Trust in God is our salvation, it transforms us and makes us new creatures. 'Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; so whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away;

behold, new things have come". The new life consists in keeping Jesus awake in the boat of our heart.

Is Christ asleep in your heart? Each and every one of us is a temple of the Holy Spirit and he moves us to live in accordance with Jesus' teaching. Did you hear an insult? It is the wind. Are you frustrated? It is the crashing waves. When the wind blows and the waves rise, the boat is in peril, your heart fears. Just by hearing the insult, you feel like taking revenge. If you take revenge, allowing the other's evil, you sink because Christ is asleep within you. What does it mean that Christ is asleep in you? You have forgotten about him and his friendship. Wake up and talk to Him in your conscience. Remember him and think about him; read His word and live the sacraments, especially the Eucharist. In this way, you will keep yourself awake. The memory is kept through the voice of the Holy Spirit who touches our hearts with the whisper of his loving presence, full of love, tenderness, peace and joy. Is Jesus asleep in your heart? Wake Him up that you may not peril in the sea of everyday problems. Invite Him to walk with you at all times and you will find interior peace. Amen.

Fr. Jose Ugalde, MSpS

¿Jesus duerme en la barca de tu Corazón?

Estimadas hermanas y hermanos en Cristo Jesús,

Este domingo las lecturas nos hablan del poder de Dios sobre los fenómenos de la naturaleza. El pasaje anterior a Marcos 4, 35-42, Jesús había afirmado el crecimiento irresistible del Reino que lo compara con varias parábolas. Ahora, como para dar una señal visible del mismo, pasa a la otra orilla, es decir, a la orilla pagana del lago de Galilea. En esta escena del fuerte viento, Jesús actúa como Señor de la naturaleza y los discípulos quedan asustados. 'Maestro, ¿no te importa que nos hundamos?' En medio de la tempestad, la gente de hoy como los discípulos se preguntan, si Dios no estará dormido. Jesús está ahí en la barca con los discípulos. No se asombra tanto del miedo de los discípulos. Por el contrario, tiene compasión de ellos: reprende al fuerte viento y llega la calma. Es la victoria de Jesús, Hijo de Dios, que reprende las fuerzas del mal, representadas en las olas del mar. La confianza en Jesús es lo que ayuda a los discípulos a superar su miedo y a recuperar su paz interior.

Jesús nos exhorta a hacer frente a las olas y tempestades de este mundo, representadas en los problemas actuales de nuestra sociedad que amenazan con dormir nuestra consciencia. La escena de la tempestad nos recuerda lo siguiente. En nuestro tiempo, pareciera que Dios duerme. Sin embargo, Dios no duerme, siempre está activo y despierto. Somos nosotros los que hemos dejado que Dios duerma en nuestro corazón. La influencia actual de la sociedad busca a toda costa que nos vivamos dormidos. Se trata de dormir la consciencia para evitar el remordimiento de los pecados cometidos. Se procura dormir la fe para olvidarnos de la presencia de Dios en nuestro mundo. Si se piensa así, Cristo duerme en nosotros. Si, por el contrario, Cristo está en nosotros despierto, nuestra fe estará viva. Podremos actuar desde nuestra fe cristiana ante las circunstancias que nos agobian y nos matan espiritualmente. La confianza en Dios es nuestra salvación que nos transforma y nos hace criaturas nuevas. 'Por eso nosotros ya no juzgamos a nadie con criterios humanos. El que vive según Cristo es una creatura nueva; para él todo lo viejo ha pasado, todo es nuevo'. La nueva vida consiste en mantener a Jesús despierto en la barca de nuestro corazón.

¿Cristo duerme en tu corazón? Todos y cada uno de nosotros somos templos donde habita el Espíritu Santo que nos mueve a vivir de acuerdo a las enseñanzas de Jesús. ¿Has escuchado un insulto? Es el viento. ¿Te has irritado? Es el oleaje. Cuando el viento sopla y se encrespa el oleaje, amenaza la barca, se inquieta tu corazón. Sólo con escuchar el insulto, vienen las ganas de venganza. Si te vengas, consintiendo el mal ajeno, te hundes porque Cristo duerme en ti. ¿Qué quiere decir que Cristo duerme en ti? Que te has olvidado de Él y de su amistad. Despierta y habla con Él en tu consciencia. Acuérdate y piensa en Él; lee su Palabra y vive sobre todo la Eucaristía. De esta manera te mantendrás despierto. Su recuerdo es la voz del Espíritu Santo que toca el corazón con el susurro de su presencia encantadora: siempre llena de amor, de ternura, de paz y de alegría. ¿Jesús duerme en tu corazón? Despiértalo para que no te hundas en el mar de los problemas de la vida diaria e invítalo a caminar contigo en todo momento y obtendrás la paz interior. Amén.

LITURGICAL LIFE

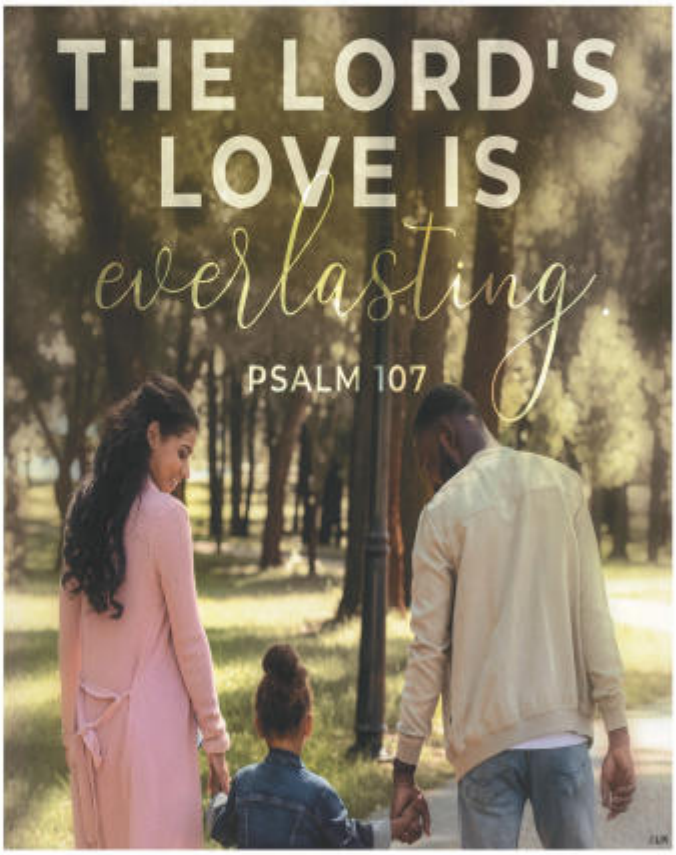
QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

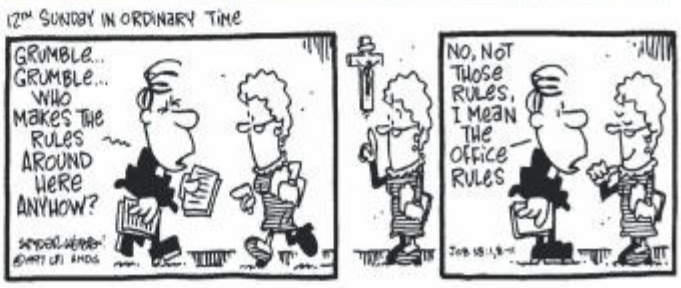
Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

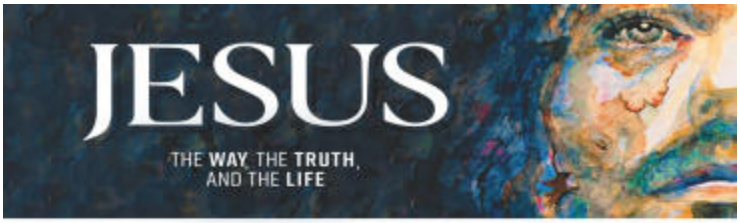
First Reading:
Much of the book of Job addresses the mystery of suffering and God's role in human affairs. Today we hear part of God's response to Job's questioning with images of the sea and raging waters, representing God's power and omniscience. What helps remind you it is God who governs the universe with purpose and fidelity?

Second Reading:
Paul encouraged the Corinthians to have the conviction of faith that since Christ died for all, believers should now live for him. In doing so, we become a "new creation." How have you seen this happen in your life as a person of faith?

Gospel:
Early in their following of Jesus, the disciples' witness of the miracle of Jesus calming the storm at sea led them to ask: "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?" How would you explain to others who wonder about the divinity of Jesus?







Bible Study: "Jesus: the Way, the Truth, and the Life" meets on Zoom, Tuesday, June 22, 7:00 PM. We will discuss the final Session 10 - Resurrection and Life - which includes Jesus' Resurrection, appearances and Ascension. Alleluia!

Cancer Bags

Cancer bags provided by CDA will be available in the chapel. If you or someone you know is suffering with cancer, please take one. If you have any questions, please call Lois Raske, 425-481-9358

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Our Prayer Shawl Ministry is busy these days with friends calling to suggest recipients for our Prayer Shawls. As you know these are given out by our parish to those experiencing grief/loss, suffering and ill-health, or just find themselves alone. Wrapping up in a comfy shawl as you read, relax, or pray, reminds you that you are loved, and our parish is here to support you in any way we can. If you would like a shawl, please call the Church office and Veronica will get the message to me. You can also e-mail me, of course.
Shawls are made by our wonderful parishioners and they are blessed by our priests. A huge thank you to the generous knitters and crochetters who make this ministry possible. I will list the most recent contributors: Isela Diaz, Carol Taylor, Perpetua Delute, Therese Dougherty, Rose Ann Smith, Letty Lynds, Arlene Doennebrink, Pat Truckee, Apostleship of the Cross, Marge Molina. Some of you left shawls in the office without a name on them so I am unable to thank you properly ---please let me know who you are. God bless you for your generosity.

If you know of someone who might be in need of a comforting hug (via a lovely shawl), call me.

A WAITING HARVEST
Vocation Awareness

The Seven Stages of a Diligent Discernment

Stage 4: Discernment Shift

A man in stage 4 is moving quickly towards surrender and resignation to the will of God. He has been faithful to prayer, attended retreats, gathered information, and has concluded that God is probably calling him to be a priest. He feels a sense of peace should this be his God-predetermined vocation. His spiritual director and vocational director are telling him that he has the signs and qualifications. He still may be hoping that God is only calling him to seminary for a year or so, but not to priesthood.

A man in stage 4 has made the decision that he can no longer date a woman during this time. He realizes that this is not fair to the woman or to God, he must refrain from dating, at least until he discerns that God is not calling him to priesthood. He is talking earnestly with his spiritual director or confessor about celibacy and evaluating his ability to live chastely as a priest.

The essential element of stage 4 is the knowledge that discernment cannot proceed any further outside of a seminary. He is just spinning his wheels. He knows that he must shift his discernment from ordinary world to a seminary environment. He understands that going to seminary is not a final decision to become a priest, but only the next required step in the process. This man tells his family and close friends that he is thinking about giving seminary a try. He certainly has some anxieties and fears, but he also has a much stronger love and trust in God. He is growing in peace; and his spiritual director has recommended that he go to seminary. This man is thinking, "I can't believe it. I might become a priest. And I think I could be happy as a priest!" Finally, he asks his vocation director if he may begin the application process.

From the Book "
To Save a Thousand Souls"
Fr. Brett A. Brannen

O Jesus,
Our Eternal Pastor,
Deign to look with merciful eyes
Upon this part of your loving flock.

Lord,
we need a large number of priests,
and men and women
consecrated to the religious life.
Multiply vocations,
And sanctify more and more
your priests,
And those consecrated in the religious life.

We ask you all this
through the Immaculate Virgin Mary of Guadalupe, your sweet and holy Mother.

Jesus give us priests
according to your heart.

Jesus, savior of all people,
save them, save them!

This week please pray for Josh Nehnevaj.
Josh is a seminarian with the Archdiocese of Seattle and he finished taking Theology IV Classes at the Pontifical North American College.

Faith Formation Registration

Open Enrollment is happening now.
We are registering Children from 1st to 12th grade for the Sacramental Preparation. This year registration is in person only (you need to bring your child's Baptism Certificate).
Inscripciones abiertas para Catecismo desde los grados 1 al 12. La registración este año es solamente en persona. (Necesita traer una copia de la Fe de Bautizo de su hijo/a).

KIDS CORNER

READ THE GOSPEL AND COLOR THE IMAGE.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

The disciples of Jesus had a very scary night, because their faith was not very strong yet. They were crossing the sea in their boat, just as Jesus asked them to do, when a huge storm came up. Their boat was filling up with so much water they thought they would all die. When they woke Jesus up, he simply spoke to the wind and the waves, and the storm stopped completely. Now they were really scared. Who was Jesus, anyway? The wind and waves listened to him!

PRAYER

Dear God, sometimes I feel afraid, too. Help me to remember that you are stronger than any problem I have. Amen.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Sit down with your family, and read Mark 4:35-41 out loud. Then talk about the things you are afraid of. Pray to God, ask for help, and believe that God is stronger than any problem you have.
