FROM BISHOP NGUYEN

Today's Gospel is taken from the profound Bread of Life Discourse, a spiritual reflection on the meaning of the Eucharist for the life of the Christian and the community. One of the main themes in today's Gospel is murmuring. Just like Moses, Jesus faced the hardness of the human heart. The Israelites murmured against Moses. They even wanted to return to the bondage of Egypt. They were stiff-necked and rebellious. Jesus said: "I am the bread that came down from heaven." The crowd responded: "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? How can he claim to have come down from heaven?"

Murmuring is destructive. It is a refusal to submit to the authority of God. To murmur is to undermine the plan of God and sow seeds of alienation and division. The murmurer is a very dangerous person to himself and others. He weakens the community life and provokes discontent among others.

How do we overcome murmuring in our hearts and communities? Daily life is hard, but it is the only one we have. We, like, the prophet Elijah need to be strengthened for the journey. The Eucharist, the Bread of life, is our spiritual nourishment as we journey toward that new Jerusalem.

To obtain this Bread of Life, we must first believe in His word that he, himself, is in the Bread. If we believe in the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, we will receive His life from it; and that life will provide us the strength needed to sustain our life's trials. With his life, we will be able to stop our daily murmuring, get rid of all bitterness, all passion, and anger, harsh words, slander, and malice of every kind, following the way of life even as Christ loved us.

Thus, with hearts filled with Christ's love, we will be daily able to take from our own hearts a few cups of love and one teaspoon of patience, one tablespoon of generosity, one pint of kindness, and one quart of laughter, mix it up, stir it well and then spread it over the span of a lifetime and serve it to others.

May God bless you,

Bishop Thanh

Volunteer for a Liturgical Ministry!

Ministry involvement is one of the most rewarding experiences in our parish. Many opportunities are available, please contact a ministry leader below or visit www.olfchurch.net/volunteer for additional information and other opportunities.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion: These individuals assist at each Mass in the distribution of Holy communion. Anyone who is Confirmed and in good standing in the Catholic faith is eligible for this ministry. For more information, contact Chris Reenders chrisreenders@gmail.com.

Ministry to Sick & Homebound: This ministry visits and comforts those who cannot take part in the Eucharistic assembly due to age or illness. As Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHC), individuals take Communion on behalf of the parish to the sick and homebound. Complete training is provided. EMHCs must be fully-initiated Catholics. For more information, training requirements or to become a member please contact Ema Galvan Galvane43@yahoo.com

Sacristan Ministry: Sacristans prepare the vessels, hosts, books, and linens for each liturgical celebration. Usually, sacristans are also trained as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. This ministry takes about 45 minutes prior to and after each Mass. Anyone who is Confirmed and in good standing with the Catholic faith is eligible for this ministry. For more information, contact Frances Cahanding FAC1207@AOL.com.

Art and Environment: The Art and Environment Ministry adorns the worship space to reflect each liturgical season. This creative team usually meets at the beginning of each season. They have a strong sense of fellowship, and thoroughly enjoy their "work parties." For more information contact Rich Lodyga at LodygaRe1@cox.net.

Are you interested in helping with the RCIA? (Rite of Christian initiation for adults) What can you do?

There are two major ministries involved in serving those interested in becoming Catholic.

1. Catechist /Team Member: Team members facilitate adult learning through small group gatherings. Team members present topics and facilitate discussion. Presentations might be on some form of prayer or some topic about God, his people or the Church. Resources are available to help one to prepare. A presenter is never alone during their presentation. Team members are also members of the parish who have a sincere interest in the participants welcoming them and encouraging them along their journey. Catechists are required to move toward getting diocesan certification.

2. Sponsor: Sponsors are members of the parish who are willing to walk with the catechumens and candidates throughout the process. Your duties are to be in contact once a week, preferably in person but at least by phone. You help them to become involved in parish activities, get to know others in the parish and to find answers to their questions. Through this you will likely develop a lifelong friendship. Sponsors must come to know their catechumen or candidate so that they can speak on their behalf at various ceremonies throughout the formation period. This ministry does not require prior experience or special training, just a welcoming spirit.

If either of these positions interested you, please contact Rosa Rama at (949)492-4101 ext. 102 or rrama@olfchurch.net

Jóvenes Para Cristo

El grupo Jóvenes Para Cristo de Nuestra Señora de Fátima a recaudado sus reuniones todos los martes a las 7pm en la iglesia. Las reuniones están abiertas a todos y consisten en alabanzas, oración, estudio bíblico entre otras actividades. Para más información favor de comunicarse con la coordinadora Elena al 949-257-7529.

This ministry accompanies those who are grieving the loss of a loved one. Ministers offer support and comfort by:

- Assisting with planning the funeral liturgy and on the day of the funeral
- Leading the Rosary at the Vigil
- Assisting with post-funeral gatherings
- Walking with the grieving family in the weeks and months following the loss

This ministry is well suited for people who can empathize with those who have lost a loved one and would like to be a support to those experiencing loss. For more information, please contact Vincie Bavario vincie.bavario@att.net.

DEL OBISPO NGUYEN

El Evangelio de hoy está tomado del profundo Discurso del Pan de Vida, una reflexión espiritual sobre el significado de la Eucaristía para la vida del Cristiano y de la comunidad. Uno de los temas principales del Evangelio de hoy es el murmullo. Al igual que Moisés, Jesús enfrentó la dureza del corazón humano. Los israelitas murmuraron contra Moisés. Incluso querían volver a la esclavitud de Egipto. Eran tercos y rebeldes. Jesús dijo: "Yo soy el pan que descendió del cielo". La multitud respondió: "¿No es éste Jesús, el hijo de José? ¿Conocemos a su padre y a su madre? ¿Cómo puede afirmar haber bajado del cielo? "

Murmurar es destructivo. Es un rechazo a someterse a la autoridad de Dios. Murmurar es socavar el plan de Dios y sembrar semillas de alienación y división. El murmurador es una persona muy peligrosa para sí mismo y para los demás. Debilita la vida comunitaria y provoca descontento entre otros.

¿Cómo superamos la murmuración en nuestros corazones y comunidades? La vida diaria es dura, pero es la única que tenemos. Nosotros, como el profeta Elías, necesitamos ser fortalecidos para el viaje. La Eucaristía, el Pan de vida, es nuestro alimento espiritual en nuestro camino hacia ese nuevo Jerusalén.

Para obtener este Pan de Vida, primero debemos creer en Su palabra de que él mismo está en el Pan. Si creemos en la presencia de Jesús en la Eucaristía, recibiremos Su vida de ella; y que la vida nos proporcionará la fuerza necesaria para soportar las pruebas de nuestra vida. Con su vida podremos detener nuestra murmuración diaria, deshacernos de toda amargura, de toda pasión, de ira, de palabras duras, de calumnias y de malicia de todo tipo, siguiendo el camino de la vida como Cristo nos amó.

Así, con corazones llenos del amor de Cristo, seremos capaces de tomar diariamente de nuestro propio corazón unas cuantas tazas de amor y una cucharadita de paciencia, una cucharada de generosidad, una pinta de bondad y un cuarto de risa, mézclalo, revuélvalo bien y luego extiéndalo a lo largo de su vida y sírvalo a los demás.

Que Dios los bendiga,

Obispo Thanh

GOSPEL
In today's Gospel reading, Jesus compared himself to manna. A long time ago God's people ate manna in the desert, because there was no other food to eat. By sending manna falling from the sky every morning, God taught his people to trust him. Manna tasted good, and it kept them healthy. God took care of them and gave them all they needed. Then, hundreds of years later, God sent Jesus down from heaven, so people could have everlasting life with him.

PRAYER
Dear God, thank you for sending Jesus down from heaven so that we can look forward to living with you forever in heaven. Amen.

19TH SUNDAY IN OT • JOHN 6:41-51

PUZZLE
Find and circle eight things that are different.

MISSION
The Hebrews often baked manna into little cakes. Ask your parents if you can make pancakes this weekend, and talk about how Jesus is like manna.
