From the Pastor
July 4, 2021

Happy 4th of July! As we all know, this is a federal holiday in which we celebrate the independence and self-governing of the thirteen colonies of the United States of America. The decision was made by Congress on July 2nd, 1776 and formally declared on July 4th.

Thomas Jefferson, the principal author of the five assigned to drafting the declaration, partly explained the rationale for the decision as the just response to the oppressive rule of King George III and the manner in which he fostered and supported the slave trade: "He has waged cruel war against human nature itself, violating it's most sacred rights of life and liberty in the persons of a distant people who never offended him."

Though this section would ultimately be excised from the final document, it reveals the sentiment of the Founding Fathers who were seeking liberation from an oppressive King who held no respect for the dignity of human life and freedom.

John Adams, another of the Founding Fathers, wrote of this act of independence saying that it: "will be the most memorable epoch in the history of America. I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated as a day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forever more."

As a nation, we continue to do much of what Adams suggested in celebrating our independence—revelry with parades, fireworks, and the like. However, how many still think of it as a day that: "ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty"?

It is, perhaps, a felicitous thing that this year, we celebrate the 4th of July on a Sunday. It becomes an opportunity to remind us that our freedom is not merely an ideal worth fighting for; freedom it is a gift which we receive from God.

Therefore today, as we celebrate Mass and worship God, we also express our thanks to Him with the prayer of hearts filled with gratitude—gratitude for the freedom in which we live as members of this country and gratitude for the deeper freedom, won for us by the blood of the Lamb, which broke the bonds of our slavery to Satan and sin, and which directs our feet toward the eternal freedom of heaven.

Praised be Jesus Christ, now and forever!

In Christ,

Fr. Nicks

Catholic Social Concerns Ministry

Mission Statement: The Tri-Parish Catholic Social Concerns Ministry is made up of parishioners from St. Patrick, St. Francis and Assumption parishes, who strive, in the light of Gospel values, to raise awareness of and address social concerns in our community and society through word and deed. For more information regarding this column, contact Sue Logsdon at slogsdon@hotmail.com

THE BEATITUDES: BLESSED ARE THE PURE IN HEART, FOR THEY SHALL SEE GOD. Dr. Brad Pitre goes on to explain what the Greek translation means: "Katharos is the word for pure and it means clean or undefiled. So what Jesus is describing here, according to St. Augustine, is that people who act with integrity and who avoid compromise in their hearts, who keep their hearts and their minds free from sin and free from the defilement of the world, they shall see God. So he is talking about a certain purity of heart, a certain cleanliness of heart, that prepares us to see the one who is all holy, to see the one who is completely free of all evil, in whom there is no darkness at all, namely to see the face of God in the beatific vision."

POPE FRANCIS SPEAKS ON "BLESSED ARE THE PURE IN HEART": "In the Gospel we see Jesus reject a certain conception of ritual purity bound to exterior practices, one which forbade all contact with things and people (including lepers and strangers) considered impure. To the Pharisees who, like so many Jews of their time, ate nothing without first performing ritual ablutions,...Jesus responds categorically : "There is nothing outside a man which by going into him can defile him; but the things which come out of a man are what defile him. For from within, out of the heart of man, come evil thoughts, fornication, theft, murder, adultery, coveting, wickedness, deceit, licentiousness, envy, slander, pride, foolishness" (Mk 7:15, 21-22)...From Jesus' list of the evils which make someone impure, we see that the question has to do above with the area of our relationships. Each one of us must learn to discern what can 'defile' his or her heart and to form his or her conscience rightly and sensibly, so as to be capable of "discerning the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect" (Rom 12:2).

REFLECT: As I reflect on my motives for living a life of service and obedience to God, do I expect praise and thanks for my actions? Do I do all for the sake of Christ or for the sake of prestige? Do I relish acknowledgment or self-approval? Is my primary motive in life to please God?

ACT: Donate to: CATHOLIC CHURCH OF THE UNITED STATES collection (which takes the place of Catholic Home Missions, Catholic Campaign for Human Development, Catholic University of America, Black and Indian Mission, Retirement Fund for Religious and Catholic Communication Campaign)

Wishing you a safe and blessed Fourth Of July

St Francis has a relic of St Maria Goretti
In our Church reliquary next to the Divine Mercy Picture.
Feast day | July 6th

Maria Goretti was the daughter of a poor Italian farmer. When She was not quite 12, but physically mature a neighbor, 18-year-old Alessandro, ran up the stairs. He seized her and pulled her into a bedroom. She struggled and tried to call for help. "No, God does not wish it," she cried out. "It is a sin. You would go to hell for it." Alessandro began striking at her blindly with a long dagger. Maria was taken to a hospital. Her last hours were marked by concern for her mother, forgiveness of her murderer, and reception of her last Holy Communion. She died about 24 hours after the attack. Alessandro was sentenced to 30 years in prison. One night he had a vision of Maria gathering flowers and offering them to him. His life changed. When he was released after 27 years, his first act was to beg the forgiveness of Maria's mother. She forgave him saying how could she not, since it was Maria;s last act to do so on her deathbed. She was canonized June 24, 1950, Rome by Pope Pius XII.

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church

2098 E. Alder Street Walla Walla, Washington 99362 (509) 525-3310 Ext. 2

In 1953, Bishop Charles D. White established the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish in Walla Walla. The community undertook the building of a grade school. Over the next decade, there were added a convent, the rectory and our spacious modern church. Following the example of our Patroness, Assumption Parish strives to live a sacramental life, witnessing the Gospel, in our service to others.

Saint Veronica Giuliani | feast July 9th

At the age of 17, Veronica joined the Poor Clares directed by the Capuchins. Her father had wanted her to marry, but she convinced him to allow her to become a nun. In her first years in the monastery, she worked in the kitchen, infirmary, sacristy, and also served as portress. At the age of 34, she was made novice mistress, a position she held for 22 years. When she was 37, Veronica received the stigmata. Life was not the same after that.

Church authorities in Rome wanted to test Veronica's authenticity and so conducted an investigation. She lost the office of novice mistress temporarily and was not allowed to attend Mass except on Sundays or holy days. Through all of this Veronica did not become bitter, and the investigation eventually restored her as novice mistress.

Though she protested against it, at the age of 56 she was elected abbess, an office she held for 11 years until her death. Veronica was very devoted to the Eucharist and to the Sacred Heart. She offered her sufferings for the missions, died in 1727, and was canonized in 1839. Her Liturgical Feast Day is July 9. from: franciscanmedia.org

Wishing you a safe and Blessed 4th of July!

EVANGELIO– En aquel tiempo, Jesús fue a su Tierra en compañia de sus discipulos. Cuando llegó el Sábado, se puso a enseñar en la sinagoga, y la multitud lo escuchaba y se preguntaban con asombro: "Dónde aprendió este hombre tantas cosas? De dónde le viene esa sabiduria y ese poder para hacer Milagros? Que no es este el carpintero, el hijo de Maria, el hermano de Santiago, José, Judas y Simón? No viven entre nosotros sus hermanas?"

Pero Jesús les dijo: "Todos honran a un profeta, menos los de su tierra, sus parientes y los de su casa:. Y no pudo hacer alli ningún milagro, solo curó a algunos enfermos imponiéndoles las manos. Y estaba extrañado de la incredulidad de aquella gente. Luego se fue a enseñar en los pueblos vecins.

CARTA DEL PARROCO
4 DE JULIO DE 2021

Feliz 4 de Julio! Como todos lo sabemos, este es un dia feriado federal en el que celebramos la independencia y el autogobierno de las trece colonias de los Estados Unidos de America. La decision fue hecha por el Congreso el 2 de Julio de 1776 y formalmente declarado el 4 de Julio.

Tomás Jefferson, el autor principal de los cinco asignados a la redacción de la declaración, explicó en parte el fundamento de la decision como la respuesta justa al gobierno opresivo del rey Jorge III y la forma en que fomentó y apoyó la trata de esclavos: "Ha librado una Guerra cruel en contra de la misma naturaleza humana, violando sus derechos más sagrados de vida y libertad en las personas de un pueblo lejano que nunca lo ofendió.

Aunque esta sección se eliminaria del documento final, revela el senitmiento de los padres Fundadores que buscaban liberación de un rey opresivo que no tenia respeto por la dignidad de la vida humana ni la libertad.

John Adams, otro de los padres Fundadores, escribió acerca de este acto de independencia diciendo que: "será la época más memorable en la historia de América. Me inclino a creer que las generaciones venideras lo celebrarán como el gran festival de aniversario. Deberia ser conmemorado como un dia de liberación, por actos solemnes de devoción al Dios todopoderoso. Debe ser solemnizado con pompa y desfile, con espectáculos, juegos, deportes, pistolas, campanas, hogueras e iluminaciones, de un extremo al otro de este continente, desde ahora y para siempre."

Como una nación continuamos haciendo lo que Adams Sugirió celebrando nuestra independencia-con fiesta, desfiles, fuegos artificiales y cosas por el estilo. Sin embargo, cuantos todavia piensan como un dia que: "deberia ser conmemorado como un dia de liberación, con actos solemnes de devoción al Dios altisimo"?

Quizá sea una suerte que este año celebramos el 4 de Julio en Domingo. Llega a ser una oportunidad para recordarnos que nuestra libertad no es solamente un ideal por el que vale la pena luchar; la libertad es un regalo que recibimos de Dios.

Por lo tanto hoy, mientras que celebramos la Misa y adoramos a Dios, también expresamos nuestro agradecimiento hacia El con la oración de corazones llenos de gratitud— gratitud por la libertad, que se ha Ganado para nosotros por medio de la Sangre del Cordero, que rompió los lazos de nuestra esclavitud de satán y el pecado, y dirige nuestros pies hacia la eterna libertad del cielo.

Alabado sea Jesucristo, ahora y siempre!

En Cristo
