We ask that you continue to wear your mask, practice social distancing, sit in designated area in the pews, and use hand sanitizer.

Thank you for all your support and patience. We are not letting our guards down.. we are transitioning to a safe and semi-normal phase.

Interested in doing some good for others while getting some exercise in the nice sunshine of spring and summer? Please consider volunteering at the Sacred Heart Community Support Garden (out in the Sacred Heart parking lot). The goal of the garden ministry is to grow fresh, nutrient-rich vegetables to donate to our community members in need. Our vision is informed by a commitment to Catholic social teachings and Pope Francis's encyclical, Laudato Si.

Your assistance will support the donation of healthy produce to the Sacred Heart Food Pantry and the Community Kitchen. Last year, we donated 732 pounds of produce, and we donated ~650 pounds of produce in 2019. With your much-needed and appreciated help, we intend to continue to increase food donations in the community.

Volunteers can participate in every step of the process including the tilling of the soil, planting seeds and starts, weeding and harvesting.

Dear Friends in Christ,

When we are in the season of Lent, it is a time of self-denial. There are no decorations, almost no flowers unless there is a special event. It is meant to be stark, with a penitential feel. It is meant to prepare our hearts and minds for the joy and abundance of Easter. Easter is filled with flowers and decorations. It is a time to celebrate and feast again. Jesus has conquered sin and death. He has risen from the dead. Jesus has given us the hope of everlasting life. This is something to celebrate.

During the season of Lent we do not celebrate any baptisms. Lent is a time of dying to self. We celebrate baptisms once again after Easter begins because Easter is a time of new life in Jesus. Sins are washed away, and the baptized person becomes a new creation in Christ. That person dies to self and now lives for Christ. At the Easter Vigil, ten people received the sacrament of Baptism. They had holy water poured over their heads washing away their sins. They were baptized in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. They received new life incorporated into the life of the Most Holy Trinity.

The Easter celebration doesn't stop with baptism though. We also get to celebrate the sacrament of Confirmation. Confirmation is an outpouring of the gifts of the Holy Spirit. The person is made ready to go out into the world and be a soldier for Christ. Eight people received the sacrament of Confirmation at the Easter Vigil. Several of our RCIA people received the sacrament last Sunday. Many more will receive the sacrament on May 21st. Please continue to pray for all of those who have received, or will receive the sacrament of Confirmation, that they may live up to their calling as disciples of Christ. Disciples who are called to make a difference in the world. This is a world that badly needs the light and presence of Christ. We are His light and presence.

The Easter celebration continues with the celebration of the sacrament of the Eucharist. Jesus nourishes us and provides for our spiritual needs in the bread and wine that become His Body and Blood. Once we receive the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation, we need this constant spiritual refueling which the Eucharist provides. The Eucharist fortifies us, because the spiritual battle can be demanding at times. We need the divine presence within us that Jesus provides through the Eucharist. Our neophytes also received the Eucharist for the first time at the Easter Vigil. Many of our children will also receive the Eucharist for the first time. May they all experience the joy of being in communion with Jesus in this special way.

God is always willing to provide in abundance. We can see this in the celebration of the sacraments during the Easter season. New life is given in Baptism. That life is enhanced in Confirmation, and further nourished and strengthened with the Eucharist. Lest we forget, God also provides healing through the sacraments of anointing and reconciliation. God is very merciful and loving toward all of His children. He wants us to celebrate the salvation that has been won for us through the sacrifice of His Son. Jesus wants us to constantly turn to Him for all of the spiritual help that He can give us through the sacraments. All of this is done to lead us to the eternal Easter in which we will no longer need the sacraments because we will be with God and in God forever.

Praise the Lord forever!
Fr. Tim Ilgen

Prayer Ministry

We are so grateful to those who are joining us in prayer. If you have a prayer request or want to be part of this ministry, contact:
Maria Boros at 456-0888 or lmboros@comcast.net.

"Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, addressed them [elders and scribes], 'If you are questioning us today about an act of kindness to a cripple and asking how he was healed…it is by the name of Jesus Christ'" (Acts 4:9-19). In the name of Jesus Christ, Peter cured a crippled beggar at the gate of the temple, appropriately named, "the Beautiful Gate" (Acts 3:2). It must have been more than beautiful to the now cured man. He might have named it "the Miraculous Gate." Jesus not only cured people while alive, he also cured them after his death and resurrection. As the event at "the Beautiful Gate" shows us, the Good Shepherd (Jn 10:11-14) never abandons his sheep. His sheep have always been the lowly – the forgotten and abandoned ones of society. As a people devoted to the hard work of creating a more just society, do we remember those left by the wayside in our prayers? Just as important, do we act on our Christian values by engaging in the work? Creating a beloved "community is difficult and spiritually costly, because it will demand that altruism be greater than selfishness, that generosity become more expansive than greed, and that compassion be stronger than competition" (Justice Rising, Rev. John Heagle). What Good Shepherd opportunity will God place in front of us this week?

Adult Faith Formation

Happy Easter and Good Shepherd Sunday!

In Christ's wisdom, we have been given shepherds to help guide us toward eternal life. The vocation to the priesthood is not an easy one, but it is extremely important! This week, please pray in an intentional way for our priests, and for those discerning a call to the priesthood and religious life. I invite you to join me in the prayer below for Fr. Tim and all the priests we have known in our lives. Let's pray with intention that all our priests live holy lives, with the strength and courage to shepherd Christ's children!

Daily Prayer for Priests
by St. Therese of the Child Jesus:

O Jesus, I pray for your faithful and fervent priests;
for your unfaithful and tepid priests;
for your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields;
for your tempted priests;
for your lonely and desolate priests;
for your young priests;
for your dying priests;
for the souls of your priests in purgatory.

But above all, I recommend to you the priests dearest to me:
the priest who baptized me;
the priests who absolved me from my sins;
the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me your Body and Blood in Holy Communion;
the priests who taught and instructed me;
all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way (especially …).

O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart, and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity.

Amen.

Holy Family School

Why send your child to Holy Family School? Children who attend a Catholic School are:

1. Twice as likely to graduate from college
2. More likely to live guided by Christian morality
3. And, most importantly, far more likely to maintain their Catholic Faith as adults.

If you are interested in exploring the many benefits of an education at Holy Family School then please call (360) 491-7060 to schedule a tour.
We do have a substantial wait list for several grades.

However, please call our office (360) 491-7060 or refer to our website holyfamilylacey.org for further information. All for the Glory of God!

The Good Shepherd

Like most people today, chances are you do not know any shepherds. For the first Christians, who were familiar with shepherds, the Good Shepherd was a favorite image to associate with Christ. In fact, the earliest Christian art depicts Christ as the Good Shepherd, not the crucified Savior. Often he was portrayed as a beardless youth. Surprisingly, the image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd is still popular. In fact, early childhood education experts tell us that young children find the concept of a shepherd and his love for his sheep enchanting.

In the Old Testament God was called a shepherd, and God's people the flock. For instance, in Psalm 23 the psalmist sings that the shepherd leads him to green pastures near refreshing waters. The shepherd guards him in right paths and protects him from evil. God says, “I myself will pasture my sheep; I myself will give them rest. . . . The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal” (Ezekiel 34:15-16).

According to the Gospels, Jesus referred to himself as a shepherd. He said, “My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me” (John 10:27). A shepherd knows his sheep well. There is a personal relationship between Jesus and his followers. Jesus knows each of us by name. On the other hand, we respond to his voice and do not follow the voice of strangers who may lead us to harm. Jesus said, “I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep” (John 10:11). Unlike a hired hand who flees to save his life, Jesus saved his flock from the wolf even though it meant sacrificing his own life.

The parable Jesus told about the lost sheep is a story about Jesus' concern and care for us sinners. He is the loving shepherd who goes to great lengths to search for his lost sheep and when he finds it, carries it back on his shoulders rejoicing.

When Jesus gave Peter the responsibility of leading his Church, he again used shepherd imagery. He told Peter, “Feed my lambs. . . . Tend my sheep. . . . Feed my sheep” (John 21:15-17).

Knowing about shepherds sheds light on the image of Jesus as shepherd. The shepherd uses a staff with a hook on the end to guide the sheep and pull back the stray. Today Jesus guides his flock through bishops, who are known as pastors, the Latin for shepherds. Bishops carry staffs called crosiers. The shepherd has a rod to fend off wild animals that might harm the flock. Jesus saved us from evil.

Jesus restores our souls. Shepherds feed their flocks. Jesus feeds us with the excellent bread of the Eucharist and brings us to living waters: baptism and the Holy Spirit.

The image of shepherds is that they are kind, loving, patient, strong, and self-sacrificing. They are a good image for Jesus. And sheep, who can be rather stupid and foolish creatures, are a good symbol for us!

† The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want! †
