THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

So then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God. But they went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word through accompanying signs. - Mk 16:19-20

Inspiration for the week

The one who came from heaven now returns to heaven. Today celebrates the completion of the Divine-human story. When God became one like us, humanity was divinely kissed. The message was clear: mortal human beings, once seen as insignificant and expendable, radiated with the presence of God and revealed the intimacy of the Divine Mystery. The poor were raised up and given dignity, the sick healed, and justice proclaimed. The human story is understood as a partnership, a true and new covenant, celebrating a love relationship between all created beings and things and their Creator. Jesus now sits at the right hand of the Father as the Christ of God. In this ascended state, we see what we are all meant to become and have before us the transformed life that awaits all of creation. While we are still moaning and expressing sighs of incompleteness as we continue our journey, we see and know the glory that awaits us and the inheritance that will one day satisfy the longing of our souls. This feast of the Ascension is truly a celebration that can bolster our faith, deepen our love and renew our hope.

Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ Jesus, this Sunday, May 16, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord. The Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus and Pentecost constitute a single reality and are very important for the first Christian community and for us. The Ascension of Jesus into heaven marks forty days after his Resurrection. During those forty days, Jesus met with the disciples several times to strengthen their faith and instruct them on the mission of announcing the Kingdom of God. The Ascension of the Lord is traditionally celebrated on Thursday of the sixth week of Easter and is a holy day of obligation. However, in some countries, including the United States where this celebration is not observed as a day of obligation, it is moved to the VII Sunday of Easter to encourage Catholics to observe this very important and meaningful holiday.

The first reading and the Gospel speak of the event of the Ascension of the Lord. Luke, who writes the book of Acts, tells us that he researched all that Jesus did and taught until the day he was taken up. After instructing the disciples to announce the Kingdom of God, he "was lifted up and a cloud took him from their sight." Two men dressed in white came forward and said, "This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven." Mark tells us that the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God. The disciples took on the task of proclaiming his Gospel everywhere. "Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved; whoever does not believe will be condemned… The Lord worked with them and confirmed the word through accompanying signs",

The Ascension of the Lord is the starting point not only to be witnesses and proclaimers of the Gospel but to look deep inside ourselves. The disciples' Easter experience helped them see Jesus in a different way. The fact that they had been living with him, listening to his words, and seeing what he was doing is the foundation for a new experience that forces them to look within themselves and discover the same thing that Jesus had lived, which is total fullness in God. Jesus had achieved his goal; he had detached himself from everything that was transitory and worldly. Only what was of God remained in Him. This is also our goal, to travel the same path that Jesus traveled by detaching ourselves from our ego and keeping only what is of God. That is ascension.

To discover the true being of Jesus, we must go beyond everything we know about Him and try to discover it within our hearts. This experience cannot come from outside, but from the deepest part of our being. Saint Paul says, "remembering you in my prayers, that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him". He does not ask for science but wisdom. He does not ask Him to illuminate the eyes of the body or the mind, but those of the heart where God lives.

The Ascension of the Lord was the end of a time in which the disciples had a new and unique experience of the Resurrection. Like them, we have to stop looking for God in the sky and see God in our hearts and share that experience with the people of our world today. May the Holy Spirit accompany us in this new task of contemplating Jesus within our hearts. Amen.

Solemnidad de la Asención del Señor

Estimadas hermanas y hermanos en Cristo Jesús, este domingo 16 de mayo celebramos la Solemnidad de la Ascensión del Señor. Resurrección, Ascensión y Pentecostés constituyen una sola realidad y la más importante para la primera comunidad cristina y para nosotros. La Ascensión de Jesús al cielo marca el final de los cuarenta días de su Resurrección. Durante esos cuarenta días, Jesús se reúne con los discípulos varias veces con el fin de fortalecer su fe y de instruirlos sobre la misión de anunciar el Reino de Dios. La Ascensión del Señor se celebra tradicionalmente el jueves de la sexta semana de Pascua y es día de obligación. Sin embargo, en algunos países incluyendo Estados Unidos donde no se observa esta celebración como día de obligación es trasladada al VII Domingo antes de Pentecostés con el fin de animar a los católicos a observar esta fiesta tan importante y llena de significado.

La primera lectura y el evangelio hablan del acontecimiento de la Ascensión del Señor. Lucas, quien escribe el libro de los Hechos, nos dice que investigó todo acerca de lo que Jesús hizo y enseñó hasta el día en que ascendió al cielo. Después de darles instrucciones a los discípulos de anunciar el Reino de Dios, "fue elevado a la vista de ellos hasta que una nube lo ocultó a sus ojos". Dos hombres vestidos de blanco se presentaron y les dijeron, "Ese mismo Jesús que los ha dejado para subir al cielo, volverá como lo han visto alejarse". Marcos nos dice que el Señor Jesús, después de hablarles, subió al cielo y está sentado a la derecha de Dios. Los discípulos se dieron a la tarea de anunciar su Evangelio por todas partes. "El que crea y se bautice, se salvará; el que se resista a creer, será condenado… El Señor actuaba con ellos y confirmaba su predicación con los milagros que hacían".

La Ascensión del Señor es el punto de partida no sólo para ser testigos y anunciadores del Evangelio sino para hacer una reflexión profunda en nuestro interior. La experiencia pascual de los discípulos consistió en ver a Jesús de una manera nueva. El haber vivido con Él, el haber escuchado sus palabras y ver lo que hacía queda como base para la nueva experiencia que los obliga a mirar dentro de sí, y descubrir allí lo mismo que había vivido Jesús, la plenitud total en Dios. Jesús había llegado a la meta; se había despegado de todo lo que era transitorio y terreno. Sólo permaneció en Él lo que era Dios. Esta es también nuestra meta, recorrer el mismo camino que recorrió Jesús: despegarnos de nuestro ego y quedarnos sólo con Dios. Eso es ascensión.

Para descubrir el verdadero ser de Jesús, debemos ir más allá de todo lo que sabemos sobre Él y tratar de descubrirlo dentro de nuestro corazón. Esa vivencia no puede venir de fuera, sino de lo más profundo de nuestro ser. Dice san Pablo, "Pido al Dios de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, el Padre de la gloria, que les conceda espíritu de sabiduría y de revelación para conocerlo". No pide ciencia sino sabiduría. No pide que nos ilumine los ojos del cuerpo ni de la mente, sino los del corazón donde vive Dios.

La Ascensión del Señor fue el final de una etapa en la que los discípulos tuvieron una experiencia nueva y única de la Resurrección. Como ellos, nos toca dejar de mirar al cielo para ver en nuestro corazón a Dios y compartir esa experiencia con todos los hombres y mujeres de nuestro mundo de hoy. Que el Espíritu Santo nos acompañe en esta nueva tarea de contemplar a Jesús desde nuestro corazón. Amén.

A WAITING HARVEST
Vocation Awareness

Private Revelation Part II

Still, private revelations must be tested. What do you think you hear God saying to you should always be verified by asking these questions?

Is my private revelation in conformity with Church teaching?

Does it agree with the Public Revelation of the Church?

Is in it consistent with my God-given talents, desires, and life circumstances?

A lady once told me the God had spoken to her clearly, saying that she no longer needed to come to Mass or receive the sacraments. All she needed was the Holy Spirit and charismatic prayer. I informed her that she was not hearing the voice of God, but the voice of Satan. God will never command us to do the opposite of what he has already commanded us to do!

I am not suggesting the voice of God never calls us to do scary things. His call is sometimes very frightening. Therefore, so many men run from the call to priesthood for so long. It is a call to trust him, even when asked to do something that you know will be difficult. This is the way our faith grows.

From the Book "
To Save a Thousand Souls"
Fr. Brett A. Brannen

O Jesus,
Our Eternal Pastor,
Deign to look with merciful eyes
Upon this part of your loving flock.

Lord,
we need a large number of priests,
and men and women
consecrated to the religious life.
Multiply vocations,
And sanctify more and more
your priests,
And those consecrated in the religious life.

We ask you all this
through the Immaculate Virgin Mary of Guadalupe, your sweet and holy Mother.

Jesus give us priests
according to your heart.

Jesus, savior of all people,
save them, save them!

This week please pray for Bro. Oscar Rodriguez, M.Sp.S.
Oscar is from Jerome, ID. He just finished taking Pre-Theology II Classes at Mt. Angel Seminary.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Every day when you are in school, your teachers help you learn. You get better at following directions. You get better at listening. You get better at remembering what you learned. Over the school year, your teacher gets you ready for the next grade. In today's Gospel, Jesus prayed for his friends. Jesus spent the last three years teaching his friends how to follow God and how to love others. His time to teach was almost over. Jesus prayed that his friends would stay close to God. Jesus asked God to protect them as they shared his teachings with the whole world.

PRAYER

God, help me to learn all that I can from Jesus and my teachers.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Make a card for each of your teachers. Color a picture on the cover. Write a nice message on the inside. Thank your teachers for helping you learn, and sign your name. Then deliver your cards with a smile.

Find the path to Heaven.
