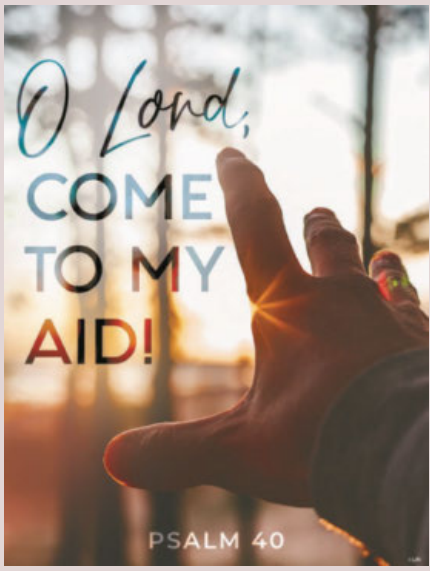
PASTOR'S CORNER



On this Twentieth Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Church encourages us to fight against evil by following the footsteps of Christ, who came to bring "fire" upon the earth in order to purify, transform, and save us from the perils that afflict us.

In the first reading, the prophet Jeremiah suffered grave injustice for the sake of the message he preached. He became a man of dissension for all the land where he preached. This was because his message was so discomforting to the leaders. So, their best option was to conspire and get rid of him.

Although they succeeded for a while, God proved that he was a mighty Savior. He did not allow him to perish. Instead, at his own time and in his way, God came to his aid. The Psalmist testifies: "I waited and waited for the Lord, and he heard my cry." Our God is ever faithful and ready to deliver us in times of difficulty. This is especially when we just and innocent. Hence, we must not give up even if we are crushed.

The second reading from the letter to the Hebrews encourages us to keep running steadily. We are to "focus on Jesus, the author of our faith." This reading encourages us to emulate Christ's zeal and courage during difficult moments in life. Hence, in the face of opposition, we must be firm. Indeed, Jesus Christ will supply the strength and energy we need to do all these.

The Gospel of today has left many wondering what Jesus means by bringing "fire and division upon the earth." This is because we call Him the Prince of Peace and the one who unites. Unfortunately, some fundamentalist Christians have employed this passage in a very literal and negative manner. Christ's message is indeed incisive. However, one needs the guidance of the Holy Spirit to understand what the Lord wishes to communicate to us.

Today's gospel reminds us of some events in the Old Testament where the fire came into play. God used fire and brimstone to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen 19:24). God used fire and hailstorm to punish the Egyptians for their stubbornness (Ex 9:3). The prophet Elijah called down fire from heaven to consume fifty soldiers (2 Kings 1:9-17) and his sacrifice (1Kg 18, 38).

Does Jesus want to destroy us with this same fire? No, the fire that Jesus brings is different. It is the fire of the Holy Spirit, which purifies our souls from evil and saves us. Hence, Saint Cyril of Alexandria writes, "The fire which Christ brings is for men's salvation and profits…The fire here is, the saving message of the Gospel, and the power of its commandments".

On this Sunday, Jesus reassures us of his willingness to continue the work of salvation which he started in us. He plans to achieve this through continuous purification. The fire he wishes to bring is that which is very positive and objective. It is for our purification and the consumption of the debris and fabrics of inordinate attachments, immorality, injustice, and corruption in our lives.

Finally, the good news is a cause of division because it contrasts to an unjust society and all that goes contrary to it. Hence, let us implore Christ: "Lord, come to my aid!"

Father Michael Rocha

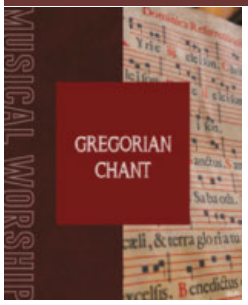
GREGORIAN CHANT



Gregorian Chant, Explained!

Gregorian chant is an ancient form of sacred music used in liturgical worship and prayer. Defined by a monophonic (meaning a single melody without harmony or chords), unaccompanied song, this type of chant focuses the singer's mind on the content of the prayer being sung, which makes it uniquely suited for use in the Mass. Dating to the first millennium, it derives its name from Pope St. Gregory the Great, though scholarship is unclear on when exactly this type of chant originated. Prior to the Second Vatican Council, it was standard to use Gregorian chant in the Roman Rite Mass. Sacrosanctum Concilium, the Constitution on Divine Worship promulgated by Pope Paul VI in 1963, asserts that Gregorian chant is "specially suited to the Roman liturgy…(and) should be given pride of place in liturgical services."

DID YOU KNOW

As your children head back to school, parents should begin laying the groundwork (if they haven't already) for open communication about the school's safety guidelines and policies. Talk to children about safe adults and keep lines of communication open about who they see and interact with, how they feel about their school days, and what they are learning. Remind children regularly that they should find a safe adult if they ever feel unsafe or uncomfortable in any situation. For more tips, read "Talking to Kids About Safety and Boundaries for Back to School" by visiting https://parequirements.com/blog/talking-to-kids-about-safety-and-boundaries-for-back-to-school.

COMEDY CORNER

What Kind of bird runs the church?

A cardinal!

RINCON DEL PASTOR

En este Vigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, la Iglesia nos anima a luchar contra el mal siguiendo los pasos de Cristo, quien vino a traer "fuego" a la tierra para purificarnos, transformarnos y salvarnos de los peligros que nos afligen.

En la primera lectura, el profeta Jeremías sufrió una grave injusticia por causa del mensaje que predicaba. Se convirtió en un hombre de discordia en toda la tierra donde predicaba. Esto se debió a que su mensaje incomodaba a los líderes. Por lo tanto, su mejor opción fue conspirar para deshacerse de él. Aunque tuvieron éxito por un tiempo, Dios demostró ser un poderoso Salvador. No lo dejó perecer. Al contrario, a su debido tiempo y a su manera, Dios acudió en su ayuda. El salmista testifica: "Esperé en el Señor con gran confianza, y él escuchó mi clamor". Nuestro Dios es siempre fiel y está listo para librarnos en tiempos de dificultad. Esto ocurre especialmente cuando somos justos e inocentes. Por lo tanto, no debemos rendirnos, aunque estemos desanimados.

La segunda lectura de la Carta a los Hebreos nos anima a seguir adelante con firmeza. Debemos centrarnos en Jesús, el autor de nuestra fe. Esta lectura nos anima a emular el celo y la valentía de Cristo en los momentos difíciles de la vida. Por lo tanto, ante la oposición, debemos ser firmes. De hecho, Jesucristo nos dará la fuerza y la energía necesarias para lograr todo esto.

El Evangelio de hoy ha dejado a muchos preguntándose qué quiere decir Jesús con traer "fuego y división sobre la tierra". Esto se debe a que lo llamamos el Príncipe de la Paz y el que nos une. Desafortunadamente, algunos cristianos fundamentalistas han empleado este pasaje de forma muy literal y negativa. El mensaje de Cristo es, sin duda, incisivo. Sin embargo, se necesita la guía del Espíritu Santo para comprender lo que el Señor quiere comunicarnos. El Evangelio de hoy nos recuerda algunos acontecimientos del Antiguo Testamento donde el fuego entró en juego. Dios usó fuego y azufre para destruir Sodoma y Gomorra (Génesis 19, 24). Dios usó fuego y granizo para castigar a los egipcios por su terquedad (Éxodo 9, 3). El profeta Elías hizo descender fuego del cielo para consumir a cincuenta soldados (2 Reyes 1, 9-17) y su sacrificio (1 Reyes 18, 38). ¿Quiere Jesús destruirnos con este mismo fuego? No, el fuego que Jesús trae es diferente. Es el fuego del Espíritu Santo, que purifica nuestras almas del mal y nos salva. Por eso, San Cirilo de Alejandría escribe: «El fuego que Cristo trae es para la salvación y el provecho de los hombres… El fuego aquí es el mensaje salvífico del Evangelio y el poder de sus mandamientos».

En este domingo, Jesús nos reafirma su voluntad de continuar la obra de salvación que inició en nosotros. Planea lograrlo mediante una purificación continua. El fuego que desea traer es muy positivo y objetivo. Es para nuestra purificación y para que consumamos los escombros y las estructuras de los apegos desmesurados, la inmoralidad, la injusticia y la corrupción en nuestras vidas.

Finalmente, la buena nueva es causa de división porque contrasta con una sociedad injusta y todo lo que la contradice. Por lo tanto, imploremos a Cristo: «¡Señor, date prisa en ayudarme!».

¿SABIA QUE?

Ahora que sus hijos vuelven a clases, los padres deben empezar a sentar las bases (si aún no lo han hecho) para mantener una comunicación abierta sobre las directrices y políticas de seguridad de su escuela. Hable con los niños sobre los adultos seguros y mantenga abiertas las líneas de comunicación sobre con quiénes se relacionan, cómo se sientan durante el día escolar y qué están aprendiendo. Recuérdeles regularmente que deben buscar a un adulto seguro si se sienten inseguros o incómodos en cualquier situación. Para más consejos, lea "Cómo hablar con los niños sobre la seguridad y los límites para la vuelta a clases" en https://parequirements.com/blog/talking-to-kids-about-safety-and-boundaries-for-back-to-school.
