VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

" If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it. " (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essenal Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporng the other with the communal celebraon of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Weekly Scripture

Virtues, Explained!

Confidence, in its virtuous aspect, describes the hope that man has in himself when he is under God's care and inviting the direction of the Holy Spirit. Its very name is derived from the Latin noun fides, which means faith.

Confidence is connected with the virtue of fortitude, but also with the virtue of hope, writes St. Thomas Aquinas, who quoted the Book of Job: "And you shall be secured, because there is hope; you shall look round you and lie down in safety" (Job 11:18).

It is confidence that Abraham exhibits when he petitions God to spare the righteous of Sodom (Genesis 18:25). Though he knows he is "only dust and ashes," Abraham has learned enough of the ways of God to be able to articulate them in prayer. This is the same confidence we have when we pray, entrusting our needs to God (1 John 5:14).

Sunday's Readings

First Reading

As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD,
I will judge between one sheep and another,
between rams and goats. (Ez 34:17)

Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

Second Reading

When everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all. (1 Cor 15:28)

Gospel

"When the Son of Man comes in his glory,
and all the angels with him,
he will sit upon his glorious throne,
and all the nations will be assembled before him.
And he will separate them one from another,
as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats." (Mt 25:31-32)

Live The Liturgy

Inspiration of the Week

At the end of time, the ones who neglected God will claim ignorance. "We never saw you!" they'll insist. But God is everywhere, making Himself known in every time and place. We can see Him, respond to Him — or we can look the other way. Which will we choose?

Holy Communion

Guidelines for Receiving The Eucharist

The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. Our Lord Jesus Christ is truly present under the appearances of bread and wine, in every particle and drop. When we approach the altar, we are invited to pray, reflect and receive with deep faith and adoration. The Eucharist is always received as a gift, never taken. Let us renew our devotion and prepare our hearts to participate in Holy Communion.

GUIDELINES FOR RECEPTION

Receiving in the hand

- Form a throne with your dominant hand under your non-dominant hand, palms flat.
- Stand still or kneel as the minister places the Host in your open hand.
- Step aside, use your dominant hand to pick up the Host, and consume it immediately in view of the minister.
- Check your palm and fingers for any remaining particles of the Host and consume them.

Receiving on the tongue

- Approach the minister calmly, standing or kneeling.
- Open your mouth fully and extend your tongue for a flat surface.
- Tilt your head back slightly and remain still while the minister places the Host.
- Avoid biting, lunging, or closing your mouth too quickly; let the Host come to you.

REVERENCE IN PRACTICE: ETHICAL REMINDERS

- Never have gum, candy, or food in your mouth during Communion.
- Keep hands free; carry items or children only if receiving on the tongue.
- Do not wear gloves or cover your hands with sleeves when receiving in the hand.
- Remove masks before approaching the minister.
- Consume the Host immediately; do not walk away with it.
- If you are unable to receive Communion, you may remain in your pew and pray.
