Today begins WORLD MARRIAGE WEEK

World Marriage week begins with World Marriage Day, occurring each year on the second Sunday of February, honors the lifelong commitment of husband and wife. World Marriage Day events provide the visible sign of support couples need to continue to make the daily decision to love one another. Pope St. John Paul II, in 1993, gave World Marriage Day his Apostolic Blessing. Visit foryourmarriage.org for resource to strengthen, enliven, or repair your marriage.

Honorable Andrew Cuomo, Governor of New York State

Dear Governor Cuomo:

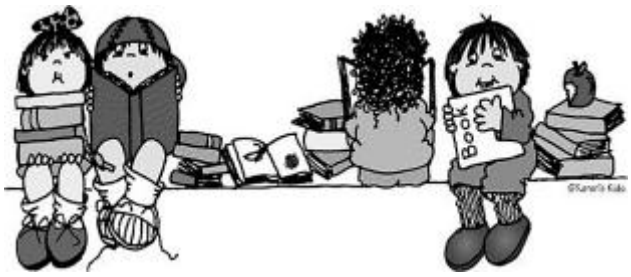
First Grade News

By Mrs. Cathy Graves

So much to learn and so much to accomplish in first grade! We are an active bunch this year and take advantage of many fun brain break activities. We also enjoy poetry and story books. We work on a poem each month and become very good at chorally reading the poems. We have enjoyed many read aloud stories and we celebrate each time 25 books have been enjoyed.

Our current ELA work has us learning the l -blends in words like clap, flip, and plum. To further practice those blends, we have been reading books that focus on the l-blends. We read The Storm and read about dark clouds, flashes of lightning, claps of thunder, and blowing wind. This was a great story to also work on sequence of events.



In mathematics, we have been working to master the facts through 20. Subtraction is a current topic and learning different strategies to subtract is our focus.

During Religion we have spent several lessons learning about God's wonderful creation. We understand that God appreciates that we take good care of the beautiful world he has made. We also learned about the sacrament of Baptism that welcomes us into God's church.

Social Studies and Science round out our days. We have finished up our work on weather and the four seasons. We have also learned about time and discussed past, present, and future. It was interesting to learn about the log homes of long ago and how they were only one room cabins. They offered no privacy, and it is hard for 1st graders to understand what you could possibly have done for fun back in those days of long ago.

Parish Council Corner

Happy 2021! Parish Council was in full attendance to begin the New Year.

We began with a Zoom meeting with our wonderful School Principal Maria Cahill. She shared that there have been many silver linings through this crazy pandemic. The students have adapted very well through the many changes. We are up in enrollment, and we are at full capacity. Maria stated that parents are still calling about enrolling their children at St. Pius Tenth. She is giving 2-3 school tours per week. Open enrollment is going on at this time.

There have been many adjustments made for their finances. They have added a cleaning crew, and fund-raising has been cut short due to the pandemic. Their biggest fundraiser was the golf tournament which had to be cancelled.

Catholic School's week starts this Sunday. The school already participated in the Diocese wide food drive. The children are now bringing in hygiene items to support Coldwater House. They are finding creative ways to keep in touch. The school's Parent Committee is working on a virtual bingo night. Maria said that with the help of Faculty, Parish Staff, and Parents working together St. Pius Tenth is having a successful year so far! We are very fortunate to have Maria as our school Principal. Thank you Maria for all you do here at St. Pius Tenth!

Parish Council members then shared their Christmas Mass experiences. Some were at home watching the Mass. Others shared their thoughts about being in the Church building. It was a beautiful Christmas season for all.

The Christmas Giving Tree program was very successful. St Pius donated over 300 gifts and Social Ministry did a fantastic job making this a positive experience in sorting and distributing the gifts.

Father Paul shared that they are working on the best way to distribute ashes for Ash Wednesday. He also said that we will have 3 Easter Sunday Masses. They would be at the same times we now have for our Sunday Masses.

Our One and Done program for the fall cleanup in November went very well. We appreciated all who came out to make this a success! Nothing new is in the works for now. We are looking into the possibility of filling backpacks for children in the future.

We at Parish Council wish you Healthy Warm Winter! Lisa Conway, Parish Council Member

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Everybody has a place at the table, and nobody deserves to feel inferior, unworthy, unwanted, or marginalized. It is not part of God's vision. Jesus came to heal, make things whole, set things right, and restore relationships. No one is to feel unwelcome or alienated from the community. Whether we like it or not, this message is at the core of the Gospel. It makes a lot of sense when you think about it. Perhaps this is why people kept coming from everywhere to listen to Jesus speak and to be in his presence. He made perfect sense. Most of us have no issue buying into this vision. We run into trouble, however, when we fall into the trap of privilege and power. We diverge from God's vision when the powerful begin to control who is entitled to wholeness and inclusion, and greed becomes a driving force. Prejudice and entitlement have no place in the kingdom of God, and even the most needy and hurting among us are worthy of the compassion Jesus desires to offer. There are no easy solutions to the world's dilemmas. But one thing is for certain, no one can be singled out, excluded or mistreated. Everyone matters.

A MOMENT WITH TODAY'S SCRIPTURES

The Church, as a voice of the Gospel, proclaims the sacredness of all human life. Everyone created by God is fashioned in God's image and has Divine DNA at the center of their soul. God never leaves what God creates but always remains intimately bound to what he has given form. Everyone has a place and because they have received the gift of Divine Blessing, nobody deserves to feel inferior, unworthy, unwanted, unclean or marginalized. Even the most broken of souls has a place. We, the Body of Christ, have the privilege and responsibility to give voice to the voiceless. The cries of the little one in his or her mother's womb are just as sacred as the cries of one who is homeless and hungry. The migrant deserves our attention as much as the forgotten elderly and even the prisoner, with a heart hardened by anger and resentment, deserves respect and dignity.

The Gospel of Life is often hard to swallow, and we would rather keep those we consider unclean, different or unfixable in a place by themselves. It is hard to see them with us, but they deserve to be. There is far too much violence in this world and the result of that violence is the assault on human life. Many are forced to leave the place they call home in search of safer ground, finding few if any along the way who will help them. How different today's Gospel story would be if Jesus gave in to what was politically correct at that time. The leper would have been turned away and a soul, already beaten down by disease and fear, would have experienced an even deeper wound. Jesus wouldn't have captured much attention from anyone, nor would he have mirrored the Father's compassion and love.

Where do we stand with all of this? Do we at least understand that God's vision is often in conflict with the vision put forth in our world and even the one we advance ourselves? There is no doubt that it is incredibly challenging to find a place for everyone at the table. This challenge is compounded when the systems of operation and structure that are so ingrained in us affirm power and privilege rather than inclusivity and justice. Everything really goes askew when the powerful begin to control who is entitled to wholeness and inclusion, and greed becomes a driving force. Prejudice and entitlement raise their ugly heads and we find ourselves with quite a mess. It's time to admit that things have been a mess for a very long time. The mess needs to be healed, not by erasing it but by allowing God to touch it and make it whole. We need to bring God back to the center of life where God belongs. There are no easy solutions to the world's dilemmas. But, knowing that wholeness, healing, and dignity are worthy pursuits, we can more confidently labor to achieve God's vision. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The Unfailing Goodness of God

I have always wondered why Jesus told the cleansed leper not to publicize how he had been healed by the Son of God. It's not that I can't understand why Jesus would want to keep the matter quiet — after all, he knew that as soon as people heard, he would be mobbed with requests for healings, and his movements restricted.

What gets me is the fact that Jesus simply must have realized the leper would not listen to him. Why give someone a command you know they will ignore? It's a complicated question, and when I reflect on it, I can't help but connect it to another equally complicated question: why does God, all-good and all-knowing, allow bad things to happen?

Yes, God is all-good and all-knowing. So when He gives us free will, He knows what we will do with it. However, He is also all-powerful. He can and will bring good from any situation, any tragedy, or even any instance where someone ignores Him.

Was it a sin for this leper to do other than what Jesus had said? That's a heavy question for a Sunday morning! But it's plain to see that, even though this man ignored Jesus' command, God still used his actions. How many were brought to Christ because of the news spread by this leper!

As someone trying to live out a stewardship way of life, what is God requesting of you right now?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
