November 1st—All Saints Day

Because Nov 1 is a Monday, it is not a holy day of obligation this year. Mass will be 5:30 pm.
Children are encouraged to dress as their favorite saint at the Sunday Masses, Oct 31st All Hallows Eve.

November 2nd—All Souls Day

Traditionally, priests offer three Masses on All Souls Day for the relief of the Holy Souls in Purgatory.
These three Masses are said in direct succession one after the other—Father will preach and distribute communion at the first Mass.
All Souls Day Masses begin 5:30pm on November 2nd.

Throughout the first 8 days of November (Nov 1-8), we gain a plenary indulgence by making a visit to the cemetery! Partial indulgences are gained visiting the cemetery on all other days through the month.
