THE CHRISTMAS TREE PROJECT ends Nov 30

Walk into stores & you will see that the Christmas season is upon us already. With that in mind, our Church is again collecting Christmas items for 'The Christmas Tree Project' (CTP). While doing your Christmas shopping please keep CTP in mind.

Your donations are much needed & appreciated. Items in most need are: artificial Christmas trees (lights or not, working or not), tree stands, lights (dead or alive), ornaments, Christmas decor items, wreaths, toys, games, stuffed animals for children, anything to bring the Christmas spirit and joy of the season to those in our community who need the help. All items collected go to our community during the giveaway the second weekend in December.

Donations can be dropped off till November 30 in or around the big green box located in vestibule between the main glass doors. Please be careful not to block the entrance!!! If needed, overflow can go inside on the left. Note this collection is different than the Christmas Giving Tree donations which go upstairs under the tree in front of the windows.

Thank you in advance! - Donna Carr (719-440-7265)

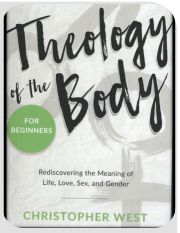
Week 44: Give thanks for your toothbrush Ch 3, "The Grace of Creation Becomes the Grace of Redemption." In the beginning man & woman were infused with grace, they were "drunk" on God's wine. When they doubted God's love & denied the gift, they fell from grace and "ran out of wine."



Comment (Dcn Andy & Paul L): Original sin is the denial of God's gift. Consider what is a gift in your life that you have never thought about giving thanks. There are plenty. Whether that would be our spouse or the fact that we get to brush our teeth every day. The counter action of original sin is faith. Learn about our faith. Learn how to bring God into your heart & have that relationship with Him daily. Recognize the beauty of God & Jesus' ascension into heaven in his glorified body. One day, God willing, we will all be resurrected into our glorified bodies. Through His gift of redemption, Christ breathes back into our bodies, our flesh, that same grace, that he pours back into our spirits. His wine of agape (pure self-giving love) into our eros (desire). We all yearn for that everlasting life. Whether you believe it or not, it is true. We fill those spaces with disordered things, and we can turn away from those things under God's grace to bring us to a well-ordered heart. Thus, bring us all to that everlasting beauty of God for all eternity. All we have to do is ask for God's help to meet that common goal.

Marian Devotion Rosary Group meets Mondays at 6pm for a meal/discussion, @7pm Rosary

St. Padre Pio: "Pray & propagate the prayer of the Holy Rosary, it is a scourge to the demons who flee in disbandment. It makes hell shake when it is prayed with faith and in group. St. Louis de Montfort: "When people say the Rosary together it is far more formidable to the devil than one said privately because in this public prayer it is an army that is attacking. It is very easy to break a single stick, but if you join it to others to make a bundle, it cannot be broken. In union, there is strength". Fr. Hubert Schiffer, one of 8 Jesuit priests who survived the Hiroshima atomic bomb, six blocks from ground zero, (all survived & never got radiation poisoning): "We believe we survived because we were living the message of Fatima. We lived & prayed the Rosary daily in that home."* Q's or to RSVP, email margie.huntington@gmail.com.

Caring For Loved Ones At Life's End

An old Irish proverb says, "It is in the shelter of each other that the people live." Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how best to "shelter" them. Here are some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them.

1. Invite God In
2. Listen
3. Inform Yourself
4. Be Steadfast in Compassion
5. Help Them Achieve Closure
6. Provide Opportunities for Resolution
7. Reminisce
8. Provide a Peaceful Presence
9. Show Tenderness
10. Bear Their Transition Patiently

Catholic Considerations For Our Earthly Passing

We prepare for eternal life by choosing to love and follow God now, in our daily lives and decisions. Our journey with Christ naturally includes equipping our consciences to make morally good judgments and acting accordingly. While no summary can substitute for thorough catechesis, one thing is clear: we are entrusted by God with the gift of life. This obliges us to make use of appropriate, effective medical care. The Church affirms the inviolable dignity of every person, regardless of the duration or extent of the person's incapacity or dependency. Nothing diminishes the unchangeable dignity and sanctity of a person's life, or the obligation to protect and care for it. Those who are sick should not be alone, and, even after death, accompaniment continues by praying for those who have passed. Excerpt from USSCB article:

Parish Library—Recently added books & DVD/CDs (below) are displayed on the upper shelf of bookcases along the right wall of the library & are available for checkout. Books will be rotated out as new donations & purchases are acquired. Books are then shelved by category (tag), author, then title.

Literature: Fiction/Nonfiction – "A Torn Picture" by James S. O'Leary
Popular Authors: Matthew Kelly – "33 Days of Miracles, Wonders, and Grace; Also, "The Content Diet", both by Matthew Kelly
Christian Living – "Don't Waste Your Life" by John Piper
Catholicism – "The How-To Book of Sacramentals: Everything You Need to Know but No One Ever Taught You", by Ann Ball

Thank you for keeping our parish library shelves stocked with your book donations.

Seeking Volunteers for Audio/Visual & Livestream—At every weekend Mass we rely on a volunteer to advance the projection slides and manage the sound mixing board, as well as start the Livestream. This is something you could easily do at any Mass you ordinarily attend. If you enjoy working with sound equipment or you'd like to learn, and want to help the parish out with this important ministry, please call the office or write the music director Mark Bauman, at mbauman@stfranciscs.org.

The small booth with the equipment is at the back of the church. Adults and youth 8th grade and older are welcome to volunteer. Once trained, you could manage the equipment without supervision. It's not technically complicated; just about anyone could learn to do it.

You could choose to volunteer as often or as little as you would like; the scheduling is handled through the parish's online ministry sign-up program. It would be nice to have some more parishioners involved in this ministry so that substitutes can more easily be arranged when someone can't serve as scheduled. Thank you for considering this way to serve our parish.

What does God think about sex & divorce? by Peter Kreeft "Your Questions, God's Answers" Q#48-49

That is the right question. What we think about anything is not the standard by which we should measure what God thinks about it, but vice versa. God invented sex. One of the first commands God gave mankind was "Have many children" (Gn 1:27-28). So if we want to find out what it is and how to use it, we'd better listen to its inventor. Sexuality, (male & femaleness) is God's design. It is a quality of your personality, not just an act of your reproductive organs. You are either a man or a woman. You don't have to "have sex" to be sexually fulfilled. Jesus & his virgin mother were both fulfilled & complete without "having sex".

Sex is not something to "get." It is designed for giving (Sg 7:11-13). If you want the most perfect, joyful sex possible, then you want monogamy, the one person you give the whole of yourself to in marriage (Prv 5:15). Jesus clearly announced God's plan about marriage: it is for life, no divorce. (Matt 5:31-32, 19:1-12; Mark 10:11-12; Luke 16:18). If a Catholic marriage goes sour, then, what are the options available? Marry outside the Church (adultery), separate without remarriage, or heal the torn marriage.

Nearly everyone in our society has been touched by the tragedy of divorce or knows someone who has. We must be compassionate & forgiving to those hurt by divorce, but the Church can't change her teaching because she must remain faithful to Jesus Christ, her Lord, no matter how strong the pressures from society are to compromise. What the Church gives us is not just a teaching she has invented - she can change those (i.e. fasting laws, Holy Days, whether priests can marry) - but she gives us the teachings of Christ. When we choose to obey or disobey her, we are choosing to say yes or no to Jesus Christ. "Jesus said to his disciples, 'Whoever listens to you listens to me; whoever rejects you rejects me'" (Lk 10:16).

There are many complex & difficult aspects of divorce. How then can the Catholic Church be so absolute about a situation that is not simple? The answer is that the Church does not get her principles & standards from the situation, from the world, which is changing & uncertain, but from God, who is eternal & absolute. She does not have the authority to correct her Lord.

Bishop Barron's "Roadmap for the New Evangelization". The most effective way to evangelize a skeptical modern world is to look at the transcendentals—Truth, Goodness, and Beauty.

The Life of the Saints (Goodness): Bishop Barron explains that the "goodness and radicality of the Christian life" lived out publicly by great saints (like St. Francis, St. Dominic, or Mother Teresa) is what catches the world's attention and powerfully evangelizes.

Creation and Art (Beauty/Truth): When addressing the transcendental of Truth, Barron explicitly focuses on the theology of "continual creation," explaining that God sustains the universe the way a singer sustains a song. When addressing Beauty, he talks about leading with the objective beauty found in sacred art, architecture, and creation.

Registration creates a two-fold obligation: On the one hand, the Pastor & his Apostolate of Lay People take on the obligation to serve the spiritual needs of each parishioner. On the other, the parishioner takes on the obligation to support the mission and needs of the parish.
