Announcements…

YOUR PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED at all Masses celebrated this week for an end to persecution, our church, for vocation to the religious life, for an end to abortion, for the needs of the Parish, for our sick at home, in nursing homes and in the hospitals, for American Armed forces and Veterans, for world peace, an end to terrorism, and an end to the coronavirus pandemic.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE— Today's gospel is so familiar, it hurts! The hometown folks could not accept the presence of God in Jesus. After all, they had watched him grow up. We can easily make the same mistake if we do not see God present in the ordinary routines of our family. "The Lord be with you" is a statement of fact. Believe it. Live it.

IS GOD CALLING YOU? "For when I am weak, then I am strong." The Lord will ask us to bear many trials for His sake but will never abandon us. What is He asking you to do in service of His Kingdom? Father Jason Hage (315) 470 -1468, or write: vocations@syrdio.org.

Annual HOPE Appeal

The Annual Hope Appeal Campaign for 2021 has not officially been started at the diocese yet. Here at the Basilica we started our Hope Appeal envelopes in May to assure that everyone had the opportunity to make a pledge and fulfill the pledge with the amount of time needed so that we may once again reach our hope appeal goal. All donations made, have been credited to you and Sacred Heart Basilica.

The Traveling Vocations Cross

As part of the Year of Prayers for Vocations we invite all parishioners to become a part of welcoming the Vocation Cross to your home and as a family offer prayers for vocations to the priesthood and religious life.

A Sign up sheet is provided in the vestibule, to those who wish to take part in this Parish-wide time of prayer.

For those who sign up to take the Cross home you can pick it up during the designated Mass of your choice, for one week, and return it the following Friday to the Parish Office.

It is our hope that this experience will encourage each of us to take seriously our vocation as a member of the Body of Christ and encourage ALL of us to pray for the gift of vocations to priesthood and religious life.

May our prayer help inspire young women and men to be attentive to the movement of the Spirit within them and to step forward in faith and with generous hearts to wherever the Spirit leads them.

SUMMER BIBLE TIME AT THE BASILICA... Don't miss out on this year's SUMMER BIBLE TIME! We welcome our children and encourage parents to consider having your child (ren) participate. We'll be meeting the week of July 19-July 23 from 9am to noon in the church hall of the Basilica. Children entering grades 1-7 in the fall are welcome. There is no cost. The theme this year is ""ROCKY RAILWAY Jesus' Power Pulls US Through." It's a week for Jesus' friends to get together to learn, pray, play, sing and much more. We'll be looking forward to receiving your registration form. You can complete the form below and return to Sister Melanie by placing it in the collection basket or by sending it to 308 Lakeview Ave., Syracuse, NY 13204. For planning purposes, please return by July 5. Thank you. Parents will complete a more detailed information sheet on the first day we meet.

A SUMMER PRAYER
Long warm days…
The pace of life slow…
A time for picnics and rest in the shade…
Lord, help me to rest awhile
In the cooling shade of your presence.
Slow down my restless heart and fill me
With gentle compassion for all your people.
Amen.

Eucharistic Ministers...The Eucharist is the heart and center of the Catholic Community. Ministers of the Eucharist should be people of prayer who have a special love for the Eucharist. They assist in distributing Communion at Masses and bringing Eucharist to the sick as needed. Ministers of the Eucharist should in every way demonstrate by their reverence for the Eucharist that they truly believe that this is not just bread and wine, but the very Body and Blood of the risen Lord. Their manner of dress, their respectful reverence, and their care with the Sacred Species are observed by all in the congregation. One accepts this responsibility knowing he or she is willing to carry it out with deep faith and a deep and awesome sense of God's presence. The invitation to serve as Eucharistic Minister is open to all (baptized and confirmed) parishioners 18 years or older. We encourage everyone in the parish to consider this ministry.

Lectors...Lectors will serve at weekend Masses and special liturgies by proclaiming the Word of the Lord to the parish community. Lectors have an appreciation of the Gospel message, understand the importance of the Ministry and are dedicated to effectively communicating God's Message to His people. The Word of God is not merely read but pro- claimed. Effective proclamation involves the delivery of the message with clarity, conviction and appropriate pace. Any adult or teen with effective communication skills, who wants to absorb and express the spirit of the Liturgy, is welcome to be a part of this ministry. You will be trained in this important ministry.

Thank you for your generous support in last week's Peter's Pence Collection! As a parish, we collected $664.00. Our contributions, combined with those from our brothers and sisters around the world, provide essential support for the Holy See's activities and help Pope Francis relieve the victims of wars, oppression, and natural disaster around the world. If you missed the collection, it is not too late to give. Visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections.

EVEN THOUGH IT IS SUMMER...DON'T FORGET TO COME TO CHURCH.

The Prophecy of You and Me

Prophet. There's a heaviness to this word. It's weighted down with meaning. We think of prophets and we think of Charlton Heston with wild hair and a booming voice, reaching out his hand to work wonders of nature by the grace of God. We think of prophets and we think of ancient Biblical history — someone far away, someone so removed from our everyday life. A prophet is someone who knows something we don't.

When I let you in on this secret, it might scare you at first: in a way, God is calling you to be a prophet. He is calling me. He is calling anyone who hears the truth of the Gospel. However, there is no need for the megaphone and the wild locusts. This prophet gig might not be what you're thinking.

What does a prophet do? He hears and testifies to the truth, even when it's uncomfortable, even when it's unpopular, even when it results in, as Paul says, "weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions and constraints." A prophet doesn't have to be smart or rich or ordained; heck, he doesn't even have to be particularly willing.

All a prophet has to do is listen to the truth. The truth we receive from Christ, through the Gospel and the sacraments, is a mighty gift. But it is a gift that we are not meant to simply keep for ourselves. In possessing it, we are compelled to also pass it on, to share it, to let the Spirit set us on our feet.

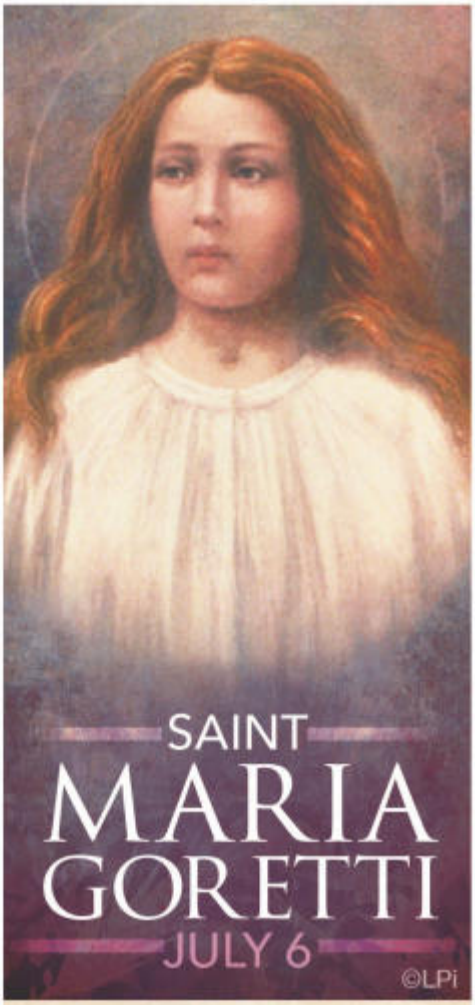
LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

God never ceases to proclaim His Word. His life-giving presence continues to sustain all things and keep them in being regardless of whether there is the faith to receive or perceive Him. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be so hard of heart and obstinate that we fail to see what God is trying to do. While God remains ever present, faith is necessary for God's power to bear fruit. As we celebrate our country's independence, let us not forget the difference between liberties and freedom. While the liberties we have are most welcome treasures, only freedom from what blinds, deceives, and weighs us down can bring happiness. God is all about healing, transformation, and hope. In order for God to do what God does best, we have to invite Him in and see Him for who he is. Otherwise, God's will for humanity will be something at which we simply take offense, a common reaction when something challenges or unsettles us.



As for me and my household, we serve the Lord
