Second Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In the Gospel today, Jesus asks, "What are you looking for?" Often, we are looking for happiness in very selfish ways, but we find that when we look for ways to make others happy, it is then that we truly become happy.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

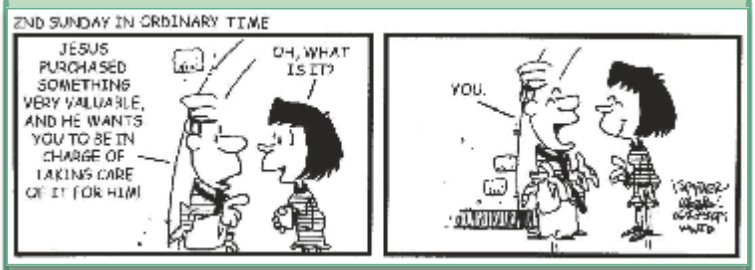
We are now in Ordinary Time and the next Prayer Boards can be turned in beginning February 8th and picked up the week of February 15th.



Share Your Faith

Our Catholic faith is meant to be shared. Not only to non-believers but also to believers. When we share our faith, others may see something in a new light or maybe have never even thought of something in that way. Each person has different life experiences to draw from; different encounters with our Heavenly Father.

Life doesn't seem to always be fair or easy as 2020 surely showed the world. Maybe 2020 gave us time to slow down and take a different look at how things have become, where we are going, how do we want to get there.

This Lent, share your thoughts with our parish family. You can share a line, a paragraph or a couple of paragraphs. A cartoon, artwork or photograph can express your thoughts. Your name can appear or you can be anonymous. Look at the readings for Lent which can be found in the missalette or find them at usccb.org.

Email your items to nativitydre@nativityofthelord.org or drop them off at the parish office. February 15th is the deadline for First Sunday of Lent. Include the date of the Sunday and which reading on which your are reflecting.

Christ Is Anything but Ordinary

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

We're about to dive headlong into week two of Ordinary Time, and we need to admit, after the hustle and bustle of the holidays, things are indeed looking more ... ordinary, at least in our spiritual lives.

The transcendent highs of the Christmas season are flatlining a bit and the vivid imagery of the Nativity scene has faded. The solemn anticipation of the Advent season is by now a distant memory.

Are you bored yet?

Here's a secret: I think that Ordinary Time can actually be quite extraordinary, if we're really living out our baptismal call.

In today's Gospel, Jesus point-blank asks Andrew, who is following him after hearing John the Baptist's testimony: "What are you looking for?" He's asking us the same question.

What are you looking for? Why are you following me? Is it for the Christmas cookies and the Advent carols? Is it for the King's Cake on the Epiphany? Is it for the feeling we get on Christmas when we just know God has done a wondrous thing?

None of those things are bad, but they are not what Andrew was looking for, and they were not what Christ promised him when he said, "Come, and you will see." Andrew was looking for the Messiah — the One who makes even Ordinary Time extraordinary. The One who can sanctify the longest and dullest of to-do lists, on the longest and dullest of days. The One whose peace can reign in our homes on January 25, not just December 25.

Remember what you are looking for. Come, and you will see.

Pastor's Notes

Dear Parish Family,
It is with great sorrow and a heavy heart that we say Goodbye to Deacon Dennis Leo Smith who passed away on January 8th. He suffered from COVID-19 and other complications in the hospital since Dec. 22nd. Deacon's wife Ginny, son Doug, brothers, and the rest of his family thank you for your continued prayers and support. Our parish owes much gratitude to Deacon Dennis and Ginny for serving, ministering, and attending our faith community for over 18 years. Deacon Dennis will be missed for his faithful diaconal service to the Church, generous ministry to Akron Children's Hospital, wealth of information and teachings in his bulletin articles, humorous library of jokes, and loving care for his family. May Deacon Dennis rest in the peace of Christ our Savior forever.

I'd like to thank Fr. Dave Halaiko for covering our Mass schedule here at Nativity as I continue to fully recover from COVID-19. I'm also very grateful for all of your prayers, get well cards, and generous support. Our parish staff has stepped up to take care of running our parish in a smooth, effective, and pastoral manner. They remain to serve as a faithful, practical, and generous family who inspire me to be a better priest and pastor. We thank the Lord for so many blessings, even in times of loss and difficulty.

Thank you and God bless,
Fr. Kawalec

From the Deacon's Bench

We are honoring Deacon Dennis' wishes to share the "Year of St. Joseph" with you.

"Blessed Pius IX declared him 'Patron of the Catholic Church', Venerable Pius XII proposed him as 'Patron of Workers' and Saint John Paul II as 'Guardian of the Redeemer'. Saint Joseph is universally invoked as the 'patron of a happy death'.

Now, one hundred and fifty years after his proclamation as Patron of the Catholic Church by Blessed Pius IX (8 December 1870), I would like to share some personal reflections on this extraordinary figure, so close to our own human experience. For, as Jesus says, "out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks" (Mt 12:34). My desire to do so increased during these months of pandemic, when we experienced, amid the crisis, how 'our lives are woven together and sustained by ordinary people, people often overlooked. People who do not appear in newspaper and magazine headlines, or on the latest television show, yet in these very days are surely shaping the decisive events of our history. Doctors, nurses, storekeepers and supermarket workers, cleaning personnel, caregivers, transport workers, men and women working to provide essential services and public safety, volunteers, priests, men and women religious, and so very many others. They understood that no one is saved alone… How many people daily exercise patience and offer hope, taking care to spread not panic, but shared responsibility. How many fathers, mothers, grandparents and teachers are showing our children, in small everyday ways, how to accept and deal with a crisis by adjusting their routines, looking ahead and encouraging the practice of prayer. How many are praying, making sacrifices and interceding for the good of all'. Each of us can discover in Joseph – the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence – an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble. Saint Joseph reminds us that those who appear hidden or in the shadows can play an incomparable role in the history of salvation. A word of recognition and of gratitude is due to them all." http://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/apost_letters/documents/papa-francesco-lettera-ap_20201208_patris-corde.html

Tidbits from the Church Mouse

Hi Folks,

I hear that many of you decide to make New Year's resolutions every year. Often, I plan something that sounds like it will be possible to accomplish, but after a short while I give up. Life gets in the way, and I get discouraged. I wondered if I would ever find a resolution that I could stick with; well, this year may be the time.

Remember how last week, I was talking about taking some time to look up and be more aware of what is happening around me? I heard about a simple way that will remind me to do that every day. It uses something that I see you doing all the time-- a simple sign of the cross.

I can begin a prayer by saying the usual Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and then replace the words with: God, myself, my neighbor, and my world.

With my hand on my head, I am thinking about my relationship with God. Am I talking to God very often? Do I thank Him for my many blessings? With my hand over my heart, I am thinking of myself. Do I have any habits that are not healthy? Do I have too much stress? Do I eat right, and get plenty of sleep? With my hand touching my left shoulder, I am thinking of my friends and family. Have I treated them the way I should? Am I kind and caring? Do I have any grudges? With my hand touching my right shoulder, I am thinking about nature and the world around me. Do I take care of the wild creatures, lands, water, and clean air? I have decided that this little practice would make a nice addition to my night-time prayers.

That way, at the end of every day, I can pause, and take some time to reflect on how things went that day. If I find that I did something wrong, I can ask God for forgiveness, and resolve to make it better the next day. It will also give me time to be thankful for the good things that went right.

I like how this New Year's resolution shows me the way God put me in a relationship with Him, myself, others, and nature. It seems like a resolution I can keep.

So long for now from Chatter, your friendly church mouse.

Pope Francis composed a prayer to Our Lady, Health of the Sick, to implore her protection during the Covid-19 coronavirus pandemic.

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey
as a sign of salvation and hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick.
At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need.
We are certain you will provide,
so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee,
joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.
Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us:

He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.
Do not despise our pleas
- we who are put to the test - and deliver us from every danger
O glorious and blessed Virgin.
