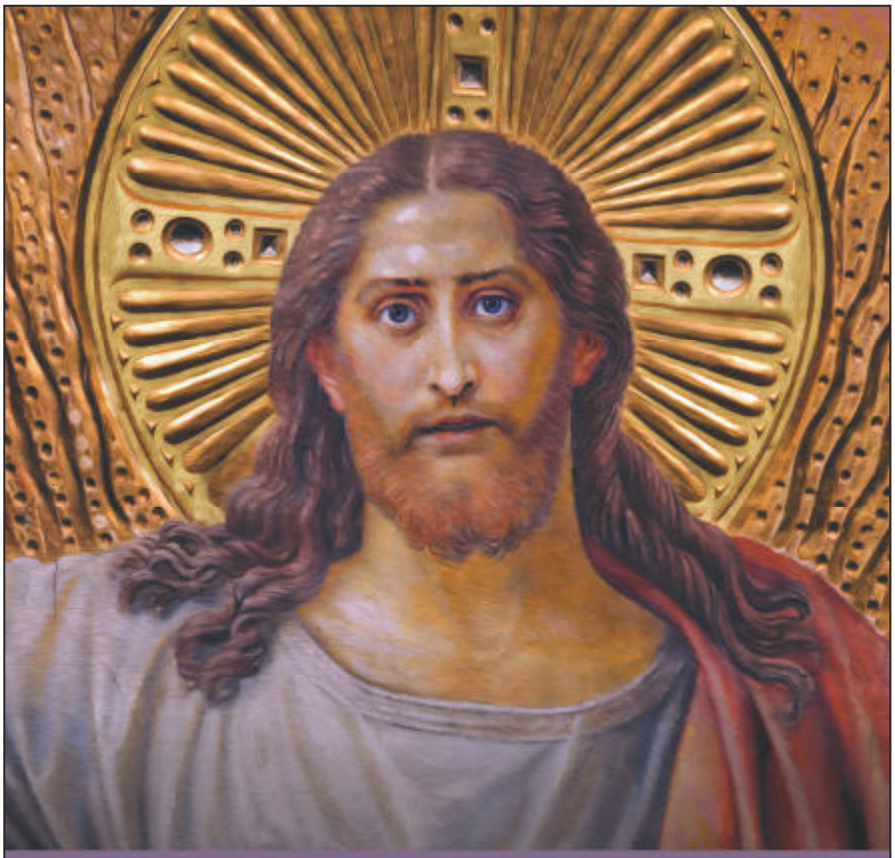
JUNE 13, 2021 • ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME



11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants."- Mk 4:30-32b

Gospel Reflection

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

A favorite motto of St. Teresa of Calcutta was, "do small things with great love." This is how it works in the kingdom of God. God can do tremendous things with the smallest gesture, especially when it is done in love. We can clearly see that our world is suffering greatly. People are struggling to find peace, navigate through conflicts, earn a sustainable living, find security and enough food to eat, and work through political tensions and conflicts. In the light of the magnitude of the difficulties that exist around us and even within us, we can find ourselves floundering to discover practical, effective solutions. How can something so large be helped by someone as small and seemingly insignificant as me? While whole systems and structures may be out of the league of our personal influence, are we really that helpless in the midst of all of the turmoil, sadness, and suffering?

If we believe that God is with us and that God is still working to bring about the glory of His kingdom, then the answer is no. We are never helpless or without hope. Armed with a strong life of prayer, we can always flee to God and ask for inspiration, wisdom, and especially love. We are all blessed with unique gifts and talents and it often seems that considering all that the world lacks, love and charity remain at the top of the list. Life can easily become a battleground of hostility. Because life is challenging and difficult, anger is not far away. We see it on people's faces and hear it in their voices. There is a measure of frustration that permeates all avenues of life. It is even felt in the air.

As people of faith, we know that what we see here is not the end but only a part of something far greater to come. We know that God's kingdom is where we are ultimately meant to be, and the Gospel is the way to get there. If love and charity can prevail in us, then God will be able to do what God does best. God will use us to scatter the seeds of his kingdom. Through our small gestures, those seeds can receive the nurturing attention that is necessary for them to bear great fruit. We cannot fall victim to the strife that is around us. We have to keep ourselves refreshed and focused so that even in small ways, we can become part of the solution, not the problem. Love and charity, which come from God, can help to heal the ills of the world. May we bring these simple gifts to the everyday simple tasks of our lives! Watch how big the plant grows!

Announcements

Tabernacle Memorial Flowers
Flowers near the tabernacle were donated in memory of Isacc Broussard, Jr. and Lynn Poché by Kelly Broussard and Leona Poché. (Our church office staff is still accepting donations for flower arrangements near the tabernacle for other weekends in 2021.)

Thank You, Advertisers!
Fr. Metrejean and all of our parishioners extend sincerest thanks to advertisers who help support our weekly bulletin. Due to the number of left-over copies in the pews and bulletin racks in recent years, we have reduced the number of printed copies, however, we certainly hope that parishioners arrive early enough to read the bulletin before Masses begin! Please support our advertisers! Our bulletins are also linked to the "About" page of our website each week and can be emailed directly to parishioners! Contact our church office for assistance!

Legion of Mary

From our local praesidium:

The object of the Legion of Mary is the glory of God through the holiness of its members developed by prayer and active co-operation in Mary's and the Church's work. The unit of the Legion of Mary is called a praesidium, which holds a weekly meeting where prayer is intermingled with reports and discussion. The Legion sees, as its priority, the spiritual and social welfare of each individual. Every legionary is required to carry out a weekly apostolic work in the spirit of faith and in union with Mary.

Weekly meetings:
Wednesdays, 5:30 p.m.,
CCD Classroom 11

For more information, contact:
Shelly Picard, President (337-366-2873);
Dcn. Tim Marcantel; or Natial d'Augereau

We hope to see you there!

Spiritual Communion

Although we use this prayer most often when we view a televised or online video of a Mass, we may also choose to pray this prayer when we attend Mass, but don't feel worthy of receiving Holy Communion because we haven't been to a recent Confession. Please note, too, that, according to the quotation from St. Leonard, if we whole-heartedly offer this prayer several times each day, we can expect to be transformed!

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot, now, receive you sacramentally, come, at least, spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you have already come and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen. ~ St. Alphonsus Liguori

"If you practice the holy exercise of Spiritual Communion a good many times each day, within a month, you will see yourself completely changed." ~ St. Leonard of Port Maurice

Prayer for Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to you, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Imprimatur: August 29, 1967
+Maurice Schexnayder, Bishop of Lafayette in Louisiana
Written by Bishop Schexnayder, Second Bishop of Lafayette, after Hurricane Audrey hit the Louisiana coast in 1957.

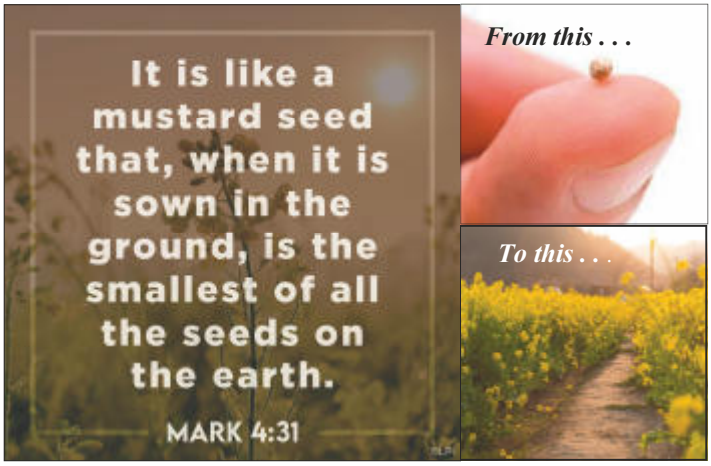
on Sunday mornings!



Questions of the Week

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading: The prophet Ezekiel's image of God growing Israel into a mighty majestic cedar tree bearing fruit, with birds nesting in its branches was intended to be words of comfort for the exiled Israelites in Babylon. How do you find God's comfort in times of distress?

Second Reading: Paul encourages the believers in Corinth to be courageous in knowing one day all will appear before "the judgment seat of Christ." How confident are you in reflecting on judgment day?

Gospel: Mark tells us that Jesus often spoke in parables to the crowds about the kingdom of God. Today's parables speak to the often unseen and subtle growth of the kingdom of God in our midst. How might you better observe the kingdom of God at work in your life? ©LPi

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

St. Anthony Can Find Anything – Even You!

"Tony, Tony, come around! Something is lost and it must be found."

Did you learn this one when you were a kid? In my experience there are even a lot of lapsed Catholics—or people who were never Catholic at all—who know that when you lose something, St. Anthony becomes your best friend. Missing keys? Pray to St. Anthony. Can't find your favorite sweater? St. Anthony. Forget where you parked your car in the mall lot? St. Anth—okay, you get the idea. Whatever it is, large or small, important or trivial, Tony has a reputation for finding the lost things.

It's a devotion that can seem a little like superstition—witchcraft, even?—if you don't really understand it. Mumble an incantation to a dead guy and you're guaranteed to find your sunglasses. But as with most traditions that are old, beloved and effective, looking a little closer reveals the truth of the matter.

When we lose something really important, what do we do? We make the whole household stop what they're doing to join the search. Having St. Anthony as a friend means you ask him to stop what he's doing to help, too. And how he helps is by taking the matter exactly where all matters need to go—straight to the feet of Christ.

Here's the real genius of St Anthony: He takes the most mundane, commonplace occurrence—misplacing socks—into an encounter with the divine and truly all things great and small are gifts from God. He grabs our hand and points to the cross. "That's what you're looking for," he tells us.

In the end, Tony doesn't really find the lost things. He finds the lost people.

Elementary Summer Religion Program 2021

Monday - Friday; June 14-25;
8 a.m. - Noon

Reminder: Online make-up packets will be available for home study and/or absences!

Thank you to all who have volunteered to help!

However, we still need two adult/high school Leaders, a few "subs" for Crew Leaders in all grade levels, and "subs" for Station Leaders!

Campers' (Children's) Dress Code

For Days 1-9 (June 14-18 and June 21-24):

- modest shorts (no low-rise shorts or visible midriff; the appropriate length is equal to school uniform shorts)
- modest short-sleeve shirts (no spaghetti straps, tank tops, visible midriff, or inappropriate messages on T-shirts)

- socks and tennis shoes (no sandals or flip flops for outdoor games!)

For Day 10 (June 25):

- this year's summer program T-shirt
- nice jeans, capris, or modest skirt (NOTE: No shorts, please, because we will spend some time in church for Adoration, Confession, and Mass.)
- Clean shoes or dressy sandals (clean tennis shoes are acceptable, but no flip flops)

- Reminder: Indoor (not outdoor) games on Day 10!

Activities on Days 1-9 include:

- Drop off (before 8 a.m.) and pickup up (at Noon) in front of our church parish hall. Please drive around the cemetery and form a drop off/pick up line in the northbound, outside lane on Broadway Street.
- Large-group Morning Assembly to introduce topics, Bible stories, music, etc.
- Grade-level crews rotate through five 25-minute learning centers:
  - Crafts and activities
  - Bible Theater
  - Prayer Center
  - Catechism Corner
  - Outdoor games (or indoor exercise in inclement weather)
- Snacks and review Mass music at mid-morning
- Large-group Daily Finale (parents and grandparents are invited to join us in the parish hall)

Activities on Day 10 (June 25) include:

- Grade-level groups rotate through five 25-minute centers before 10:30 a.m. (Day 10's flexible schedule depends upon the number of campers who are present for Confession in each grade level.)
  - Two centers of indoor games (board games, dancing, table games, etc.) in the parish hall
  - Safe Environment presentations which are appropriate for each grade level.
  - Adoration (limited to 10 minutes for Grade 1) and Adoration/ Confessions (for Grades 2-5) in church
  - An activity to review highlights of Bible stories, topics, etc.

- Weekday Mass at 11 a.m. (Parents, grandparents, and friends are welcome but seating is reserved for our campers.)
- Closing remarks & dismissal in the church parish hall.
