Prayer for Vocations

Father in heaven, you sent us your only Son to redeem us and to build your kingdom on earth. Please give us the wisdom and strength we need to follow His call. Grant to the faithful a spirit of generosity, that Church vocations may flourish. Bless our priests with holiness and courage, that they may lead your people to Christ. Help all sisters and brothers to fulfill their sacred promises and so be effective signs of your kingdom. Lord, invite more men and women to your service. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

NEW EVENING BIBLE STUDY

Unlocking the Mysteries of the Bible — Often when we pick up the Bible and try to read it, we get lost. The Bible is a complex library of 73 books including poetry, laws, and history. It is filled with so many places and events it can be hard to follow.

Come join us as we take a chronological walk through the narrative books of the Bible. We'll explore a framework from which to read and understand Scripture and the story of God's love for us through salvation history.

This study will have 8 sessions on the First and Third Tuesdays starting November 5th from 7-9 PM. Half-hour video presentations are paired with small group discussions and light reading at home.

To sign up or for more information, either text, call, or email Ellen Schilke at (908) 217-1653 or Ellenschilke@gmail.com

From the Pastor's Desk National Vocation Awareness Week

This Sunday begins National Vocation Awareness Week here in the United States. It is an opportunity to remind ourselves of the need to pray for vocations to the priesthood, permanent deacons, religious life, and married life. People do not just decide to become priests or religious, it is the result of feeling drawn to the life and the work. It is born from a growing faith and love of Christ and the Church and the conviction that service to the Church through this vocation will not only bring joy but also better the lives of others who are drawn to Christ.

Imagine asking your son what he wants to be when he grows up, and he answers, "I want to be a priest!" What would your reaction be?

The truth is that God has a plan for each of your children; he wants them to be happy even more than you do. And their true happiness is found in discovering God's plan for their lives - their vocation - and following it wholeheartedly.

So if you're truly concerned about your children's well-being, it makes sense to help them discern their vocations, whether to marriage, priesthood, or religious life. Here are some simple ways to foster openness to God's call.

Read a good story — Add some books about famous saints to your bedtime reading. There are dozens of fascinating age-appropriate stories of saints who were priests and religious.

Watch a better movie — When it's time for family movie night, watch a religious movie. There are tons of Catholic films that depict heroic and interesting priests and religious. The conversation afterwards is far more meaningful than which explosion was the biggest!

Set the record straight — Media depictions of dating and sexuality are often opposed to authentic love. So when TV shows the wrong message, set the record straight about what leads to real happiness. Especially around teens, defend the sacrament of marriage.

Pray from the heart — In your family prayers, pray for more priests and religious. Let your kids hear you praying for their futures.

Talk about vocations — Speak openly about vocations to marriage, priesthood, and religious life. From the earliest age, make it clear that happiness in life is following God's plan.

Throughout this week, I invite you all to take some time to offer a prayer for those who are discerning where God is calling them to serve Him.

Fr. Chester
