NEW EVENING BIBLE STUDY

Unlocking the Mysteries of the Bible — Often when we pick up the Bible and try to read it, we get lost. The Bible is a complex library of 73 books including poetry, laws, and history. It is filled with so many places and events it can be hard to follow.

Come join us as we take a chronological walk through the narrative books of the Bible. We'll explore a framework from which to read and understand Scripture and the story of God's love for us through salvation history.

This study will have 8 sessions on the First and Third Tuesdays starting November 5th from 7-9 PM. Half-hour video presentations are paired with small group discussions and light reading at home.

To sign up or for more information, either text, call, or email Ellen Schilke at (908) 217-1653 or Ellenschilke@gmail.com

From the Pastor's Desk

Deacons

In addition to "transitional deacons" who are in formation for the priesthood, the Catholic Church provides an opportunity for men to serve as Permanent Deacons. Those men who are called to the Permanent Diaconate can be married, and they are ordained usually after a period of five years of training and formation. Many permanent deacons have secular jobs to support their families, and strive to balance family, Church, work, and other responsibilities.

Deacons can: Preside at baptisms and marriages; assist the priest or bishop at Mass. Proclaim the Gospel and preach; Teach in Adult Education and RCIA and RCIC programs; Visit the homebound and the sick; Lead Communion Services; Serve as chaplains; Preside at Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament; and Preside at Public Blessings. They can also serve and assist in other ways.

The "Liturgical Manual For Deacons" stated, "When the deacon comes to serve, he must empty himself from all selfish concerns." He "must minister to the priest and to the altar with the humility of him whose very body and blood were offered on the altar of the cross." It also stated that the poor must know the deacon as a friend and that, "All must have such trust in his prudence and charity that his wise guidance is spontaneously welcomed."

The following "Prayer for Deacons" asks the Lord to guide deacons in their ministry:

O God, Father of us all, look with favor on those whom You have called to the sacred and ancient ministry of the diaconate. Through the intercession of St. Stephen, grant grace to Your deacons as they minister in charity to the poor, proclaim the holy gospel at Mass, and assist Your priest at the Altar. Keep close to your heart, Lord, the wives and children of permanent deacons, and grant that the witness of their husbands and fathers may bring about holiness and virtue in each family member. We ask this through Jesus Christ who is Lord forever and ever. Amen.

As we reflect on this prayer, we are reminded that we are blessed to have faithful, dedicated, and holy deacons, Deacon Mike Meyer and Deacon Dennis Webster, to serve us at St. Catherine's. Please find an opportunity to thank them for their service and continue to wish them well in their ministry.

Fr. Chester

The collection for November 10th was $4,088.00 (122 envelopes) for the regular collection.

On-Line Giving for November 10th was $3,051.00 (95 donors).
