SUNDAY THOUGHT
Acts of the Apostles 4:32-35

On Easter Sunday evening, Jesus called down the Holy Spirit upon His awestruck little band of disciples to prepare them for the challenging and exciting days that awaited them. One of the immediate results of receiving the Holy Spirit was a desire among the disciples to form a strong bond of love for each other. This joyful desire for community was made visible in the very basic and practical way they share their possessions.

It is always good to have dreams and to try to keep the ideals alive; otherwise, it is all too easy to settle for life as it is. If we wish to keep alive the vision of living in the light of the Risen Lord Jesus, we too must live in such a way that will bring new life to other people. Ask the Holy Spirit to direct your resurrection energies down worthwhile paths to make the Easter message of hope know to others.

CELEBRATING THE SAINTS
Saint James the Less, Apostle (+62)

James "the Less," the younger of the two Apostles by the same name, is variously identified in the tradition as "James, the son of Alphaeus" and "James, the brother of the Lord." He is traditionally believed to be the author of the canonical letter that bears his name, noted for its emphasis on the importance of both faith and works in the Christian life.

Paul says that James, along with Peter and John, was one of the "pillars" of the Jerusalem Church (Gal. 2:9). In the Church's first council, the "Apostolic Council" presided over by Peter; the Apostles considered which of the Jewish ceremonial laws would remain binding for Gentile converts. James provided the necessary compromise, insisting that non-Jews ought to conform only by avoiding eating meat sacrificed to idols and entering into unlawful marriages (cf. Acts 15:13-29).

Saint Hegesippus, writing in the 2nd century, gives a striking picture of James' austerity: He abstained form wine and meat, and avoided cutting his hair and perfuming his body. James prayed often in the temple so that "the skin of his knees became hardened like a camel's."

According to tradition, James became the first Bishop of Jerusalem. He suffered martyrdom in the year 62. Saint James the Less' feast day is May 3rd.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

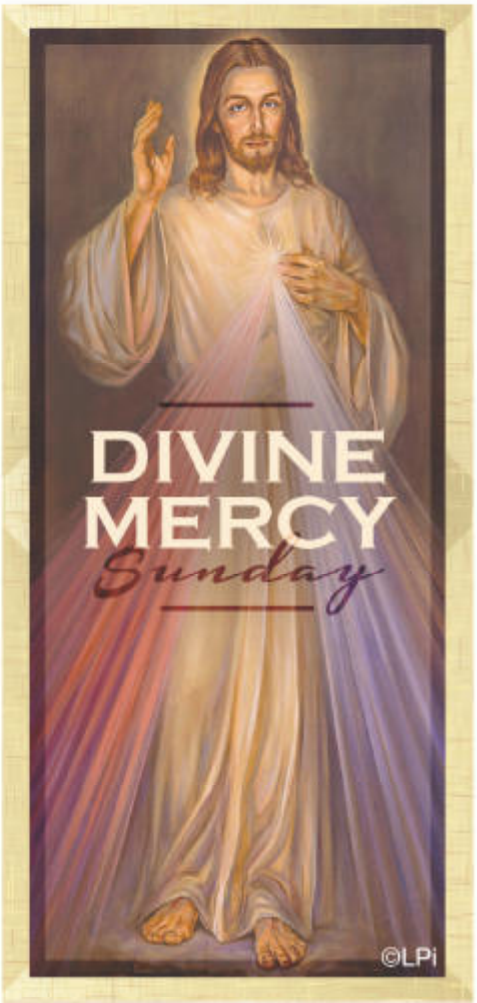
Alleluia! Forgiveness has risen from the grave! What a wonderful joy fills us today as we ponder the inexhaustible mercy of God. When experienced, we are moved to do all in our power to avoid sin and embrace the loving presence of our risen God. God stands ever ready to receive us and wants nothing more than for us to come home. How reluctant we are to believe this truth! We want proof, tangible evidence and absolute assurance that what we have been told is true. Jesus has risen from the dead and brings us peace. It is the gift of wholeness and holiness that is breathed upon us by God's life-giving and healing mercy. May the rays of love that flow from the heart of Christ pierce ours!



My Lord and my God!

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

What a wonderful joy fills us today as we ponder the inexhaustible mercy of God. "Mercy is the heart of God," Pope Francis tells us. The image of a heart has been used to point to the very life source of a person as it is the organ that allows life to flow through our veins and sustain us. Mercy is the heart of God. Imagine this dynamic, powerful, compassionate, piercing, embracing, loving, propelling, penetrating, absorbing, and enveloping, transforming presence of God flowing into the very depth of our souls. It is God's mercy that allows blood to flow through our veins. It is God's mercy that forms every atom of our being and leads us to what is true. God's mercy reveals all superficiality and falsehood, and lays bare all distortions, empty promises, weakness, and sin.

"Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope," Pope Francis continues. God's all forgiving, compassionate love is with us. When we finally believe and accept that Christ's resurrected transfigured presence resides with us, we then find within us a strong confidence to accept life's imperfections and disappointments and move on. Every day is a new adventure in new life. God leaves the past behind and opens doors to the future. It doesn't matter how many mistakes we made yesterday. All that matters is what we do tomorrow and what we learn along the way. It is so easy to remain tethered and mired in the past, but there is no need to do so. God is all about tomorrow and the work God has yet to do in our lives.

Mercy gives birth to hope. Hope for the greatest of sinners and hope for the worst of disasters. There is nothing God cannot do and nothing God cannot fashion. After all, everything we know and treasure was once nothing, and look what God did with the nothing God had! The resurrected Christ stands before us with nail marks in his wrists and wounds on his body as a testament that not even injustice, suffering and death can trample over and destroy God's mercy. What have we to fear? Why do we keep ourselves from peace? Our lack of faith prevents us from going forward and fully receiving the holiness God desires to breathe upon us. Breathe in God's mercy, allow the wind of God's presence to kiss all of your sins and caress all of your fears. Exhale peace.
