PRAYER FOR RENEWAL

In every age, O God, you have called us to be your people, to be your Church.
In this time, we begin anew to discern the pathways that will lead us, your people, to you to continue that journey as we proclaim your Good News, celebrate your saving presence among us, serve others with charity and justice, and steward the world you have entrusted to our care.
Send your Spirit to lead and guide our Emmaus journey as we commit ourselves to renew our church.
This we ask in Jesus' name, our Lord. Amen

PRAYER TO ST. DOMINIC

May God the Father who made us bless us
May God the Son send his healing among us
May God the Holy Spirit move within us and give us eyes to see with, ears to hear with, and hands that your work might be done.
May we walk and preach the word of God to all.
May the angel of peace watch over us and lead us at last by God's grace to the kingdom.
Amen

Why Did the People of Jesus' Hometown Reject Him?

In today's Gospel (Mk 6:1-6) Jesus encountered rejection in his hometown of Nazareth. Some said, "Who does he think he is? We know him from childhood – he is only a carpenter, the son of Mary; we also know his relatives and cousins." In response, Jesus said, "No prophet is without honor except in his own hometown." Preaching like a prophet aroused the hostility of Jesus' townsfolk. A prophet proclaims the truth that can upset people either a challenge or rebuke. Jesus' town folks were afraid of him and their fear leads him to rejection. They became like their ancestors who were hard of face and obstinate of heart during the time of prophet Ezekiel (Ezek 2:2-5). For us today, we believe in Jesus more than a prophet. He is the Son of God, our Lord and Savior. Would we have turned against Jesus?

The truth is that Jesus is still with us. He speaks to us when the Scriptures are read during the liturgy and instruct us by the teachings of the Church through his priests. Are we afraid to listen? Do we tend to excuse ourselves from difficult teaching? Do we find that we favor secular views rather than the teaching of the Pope and the Bishops like the issue on abortion and marriage? The Vatican Council II warns that abortion is an unspeakable crime, but many say that the right to choose is more important than the right to life. How can you help propagate the right to life and the Holy Matrimony teaching of the Church? For more reflection on Pope Francis about the diabolical attack on the family click this link: http://www.pagadiandiocese.org/2018/02/20/pope-francis-same-sex-marriage-is-a-diabolical-attack-on-the-family/

In Jesus, Mary and Joseph we pray for protection.

MOST REVEREND MICHAEL W. FISHER BISHOP OF BUFFALO

We are continuing the engagement across our Diocese with the Road to Renewal work, and have made the determination that we need even more time to ensure that as many as possible have the opportunity to provide their insights and input. This includes, of course, our lay parish leaders, our principals and educators, our priests and deacons - all who have a stake in the future of this Diocese and who are vital to the renewal that is the responsibility of each of us to bring about. And so, in the coming months, we will be further collaborating and discussing the implications for the "Family of Parishes" model, which is a key component of the Renewal work as you may have heard. It essentially means sharing resources from one parish to the next - enabling those with more abundant resources and capabilities to assist those parishes that are more challenged, either financially or otherwise. It also means sharing priestly ministry and ensuring that no parish community is deprived of regular access to the sacraments. Other dioceses across the country have successfully implemented this "Family of Parishes" model and the benefits are clear and undeniable. But of course, we want to pursue this in the most appropriate way for our Diocese and with the full input of all. I invite you to check regularly our dedicated webpage - https://roadtorenewal.org/ - for updates and resources. We'll be communicating regularly on where we are and what we need from you.

The readings of this Sunday remind us of our ultimate aim in bringing about Renewal - evidencing zeal for the Gospel of Jesus Christ and astonishing others with the evidence of God's presence and our witness to His work among and through us. As Mark's Gospel attests: "When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands! Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?" It is God Himself who offers the gift of Faith and it is the option of each of us to accept and to live it conspicuously and in ways that leads and inspires others, and which leaves them astonished at what the Lord makes possible for those who love Him and live according to His will. Thank you again for taking a moment to allow me to share with you. Please remember in your prayers all those who are enduring the tragedy of the condominium collapse that occurred last week in Surfside, Florida. We hold in our hearts those lost and those still missing and especially their families in this very difficult hour. May God is His living care, comfort them and grant those lost eternal peace. Please be assured of my prayers for God's abundant grace and blessings on you and all those whom you love. I look forward to speaking with you again very soon!

Sincerely in Christ

IS GOD CALLING YOU?
(Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

Dave Baker at 716-847-5535 or visit buffalovocations.org.
