3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled … You are witnesses of these things." - Lk 24:44, 48

From Our Pastor

Dear Friends,
If you have been to a 5pm, 9am or 11am Mass lately, you may have noticed greeters at the various entrances of the church! Over 30 families have stepped up to help us with the first word of our parish tagline: ENGAGE. We all like to feel welcomed in the places where we go and church should be a place that we feel most welcomed! I am grateful to these 30 families who have stepped up to help. We would like to have about 30 more families/individuals at those various Masses so that we can have a better rotation. If you are friendly and want to help with this new ministry (which is great for families!), please contact Jennifer Drouillard at the Parish Office or email her at Jennifer.drouillard@stjosephmaumee.org.

Regarding the greeters, you may seem some blue reserved signs out at those Masses. Please don't remove those! Those are for the greeters who are doing a valuable ministry that takes them right up to the time of Mass beginning. I didn't want them to not have a seat after they have volunteered for this ministry. Thanks for your understanding.

Finally, Fr. Joseph is starting back up his rounds of visiting our homebound parishioners. He will be helping Deacon Bob with this important ministry of bringing Communion regularly. He can also hear your confession while he visits with you. Fr. Joseph has been vaccinated and is happy to wear a mask if you would prefer while he visits. If you would like to be on his regular rotation or know of someone who would, please let Chris Baltes know in the Parish Office. She will get the information to Fr. Joseph.

We are also working with our area nursing homes to try and start our regular Masses back up and our Holy Communion rounds. Different nursing homes have different policies these days so we are doing our best as we know it is important for the residents to have a visit and to receive Communion.

Thanks for all you do for our parish! Let's continue to pray for one another.

In Christ,
Fr. Eric
