Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe You are really here in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You more than anything in the world, and I hunger to receive You. But since I cannot receive Holy Communion at this moment, feed my soul at least spiritually. I unite myself to You now as I do when I actually receive You.

"For It Is in Giving That We Receive ... "

These familiar words come from the Peace Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi. St. Mary's deeply appreciates every gift made by parishioners to help keep our parish strong. Here's a closer look at two popular giving options:

Commitment to Parish Life (CPL)

Over recent years, an increasing number of parishioners have opted to switch from using traditional weekly envelopes to St. Mary's Commitment to Parish Life (CPL) giving option.

- CPL benefits both the giver and the parish when it comes to budgeting. The giver commits to donate a set amount to the parish and can honor that commitment either through traditional gifts (checks or cash sent to the Rectory or deposited in the weekly collection basket) or opt for an electronic fund transfer (EFT). If you opt for an EFT, this can be done through either your bank or St. Mary's.
- With CPL, you know exactly how much your gift will be and if you prefer, you can use the EFT option and not even have to remember to write a check or send it in. Having this revenue projection also enables the parish to budget more accurately each year.

Envelopes to deposit in the weekly collection basket are available whether or not you choose CPL.

Online Giving through Vanco

Especially if you would like to contribute to St. Mary's via credit card, our online giving program through Vanco is available on our parish website, stmarysonthehill.com. You can use Vanco to set up a one-time or a recurring donation. The set-up process is simple. Vanco is used by thousands of parishes nationwide, including many throughout Western New York. As a PC Level 1 compliant service provider, Vanco is dedicated to protecting the security and privacy of all donors.

If you have additional questions, please contact St. Mary's Business Manager Bob Over at bob@stmarysonthehill.org or Bookkeeper Heather Pierce at heather@stmarysonthehill.org.

Thank you again for your continued support and generosity.

Gospel Meditation

God remains where love remains. When a believer realizes without doubt that God is love, it is a powerful moment. Being able to place our resurrection trust in this fundamental truth allows us to experience God's presence in all our experiences: the good and bad, positive and negative, life enriching and destructive events we encounter. It's no wonder that St. Paul so accurately tells us that it is love that endures all things and lasts. How can God not endure or ever fade away? Because He is God, Jesus also guarded and protected His disciples as the endearing Shepherd who always had their best interest at heart.

If we become too immersed in the world, we lose touch with these deeper realities. We can become so preoccupied with preserving what we have created or think we need, forgetting that it is not building our city that really matters, but God's. Jesus clearly did not belong to the world and, by virtue of His Resurrection, He tries to get us to understand that we do not, either. The truth brings us to other worldly, more divine places and takes our eyes off the concerns that often captivate our fears and storm our senses.

Life can easily erode our faith. Think of your life over the last couple of weeks. What challenged your faith and distracted your divine glance? Even being overly stimulated with technology and social media can erode our sense of confidence and cause us to forget who we really are. We need to distance ourselves from the world in order to experience the joy Christ offers. The world will never like the word of God. It is too challenging and too perplexing. The world mistakenly believes that it can survive on its own. It is a mistaken judgment that may cost people a lot in the end. It is all so very simple: God remains when we love one another. If in all the business of our lives and all that each day brings, the good and the bad, we follow the call and path of love, we will walk with God. There is nothing to fear, and anxiety finds no home.
