DIOCESE OF CLEVELAND
Advent/Christmas Resources

This season of Advent and Christmas will certainly be different as together we cope with the effects of the coronavirus pandemic. All of us have been experiencing changes at Mass and other liturgical and spiritual activities due to our need to be physically distant and safe in parish gatherings. With the current pandemic guidelines in place, the question remains as to how do we best prepare our parishes, our families and ourselves to celebrate Advent and Christmas with complete intention? With this in mind, the Diocese of Cleveland created a new page on dioceseofcleveland.org to offer everyone a variety of user-friendly material aimed at helping to make this Advent and Christmas meaningful. This new webpage will provide educational, formational and liturgical materials to be used by parishes, parish staffs, families and individuals to deepen their preparation and appreciation of the birth of Christ. In addition, information about how to connect with livestreamed and on-demand Masses will be available as will inspirational resources to help us fully enter into this holy season and better prepare ourselves to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ with a welcoming heart. Visit dioceseofcleveland.org to take advantage of these resources.

INTERESTED IN A PASTORAL VISIT?

We are all ordinary people living in extraordinary times with the Covid-19 pandemic. Some are not yet comfortable coming back to church for Mass and/or Reconciliation. If you are comfortable with and interested in a pastoral visit at your home – whether it be with a priest for Confession or a Eucharistic Minister for Communion, please contact Beth Rado brado@sthilarychurch.org or 330-867-1055, ext. 206 in the parish office to make arrangements.

RISING ABOVE THE DARK CLOUDS WITH GRATITUDE & PRAISE

Rising Above the Dark Clouds with Gratitude & Praise, our latest 5-part video series from Randy Malick, Director of Faith Formations for Adults, is now available on our website. To watch the entire playlist, visit sthilarychurch.org/media-during-the-crisis/.

THURSDAY EVENING ZOOM ROSARY
Thursdays at 8 PM

All are welcome to join together to pray the Rosary on Zoom live through the St. Hilary Rosary Making & Repairing Ministry on Thursday evenings at 8:00 pm. To join, email Rosanne Rohana at rosanner@gmail.com. Looking to lead a decade? To volunteer to lead a decade of tonight's Rosary, please contact Tim Baker at tcbaker445@gmail.com.

FAITH FORMATION

Gospel Reflection

Reflecting on the scriptures
Our Advent scriptures work on multiple layers. And today's readings reveal several of them. Though Mark, the gospel we will read from primarily this liturgical year, has no infancy narrative, today's gospel reading deals with the coming in time of Jesus, the long-awaited Messiah. Today we hear about the beginning of his ministry.

But our second reading looks at another coming, the coming of the Lord at the end of time, and asks the excellent question, "Since everything is to be dissolved in this way, what sort of persons ought you to be?"

What sort of person ought you to be? Today?

At my father's wake a cousin shared that she was aware of some changes she ought to make in her life "one of these days." I told her that Dad had returned from a visit to the doctor, had lain down for a short nap before dinner…and never woke up. The moral of the story: What sort of person ought you to be…if God comes today…for you?

As I write this reflection over a quarter of a million Americans have died with Covid 19. Many more around the world have added to that number. Never in my lifetime has death been so pervasive.

Advent is a time of waiting. Waiting for the coming of the Lord in time at Bethlehem. Waiting for the Lord to come again at the end of time. And waiting to meet the Lord at the end of your own life. But this waiting is not just passing time, cooling-our-heels waiting. It is a time of active waiting, of preparation.

What kind of person do you want to be… when you meet the Lord again? Prepare now.

MEN'S GROUP MEETING
Saturday, December 12 at 7 AM

There have been hundreds of Marian apparitions reported over the centuries, few of which have been formally approved by the Catholic Church. On Saturday, December 12, the St. Hilary Men's Group will learn more about apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary and unusual encounters that have occurred since Our Lady's appearances. We will use a technique out of Paul Harvey's famous talks and approach the discussion as "the Rest of the Story." As we prepare to enter the Christmas Season, Hebrews 13:2 gives us some advice we should well consider. "Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to Angels without knowing it." This scripture leads us in natural fashion to Matthew 25:35, "For I was hungry and you gave Me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave Me something to drink, I was a stranger and you took Me in." God has created a plan for each one of us that exceeds our wildest expectations because it aligns with what we are meant to be doing, not what we expect we should be doing. The Men's Group meets on Saturday, December 12, to discuss how Mary Apparitions support God's work in our lives and suggest some ways to adapt to become a Better Man. We start with Mass, followed by bagels, donuts, coffee and conversation in a place that accepts each man as he is. Join us and bring a friend. Contact RJ Bradner for more information at 330-867-1055.

Meeting via Zoom
Fridays, 10:30-11:10 am

If you are interested in joining us in prayer for friends and family who have lost their faith or who have no faith, please e-mail Michele Mills at mt4@uakron.edu with your e-mail address and phone number. The prayer format will be emailed to you as well as instructions for joining our Zoom meeting.

SOCIAL ACTION

ST. HILARY CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

St. Hilary's Christmas Giving Tree is in place in the Spiritual Center and in the back of church. This year we will be helping mostly children and seniors with a few exceptions of the Opportunity House and the TRY agencies. Each of the individuals on the Christmas Trees have only ONE tag on the trees. We receive the names from inner city schools and agencies that are aware of the hardships of the families and needs of the elderly.

Please have your gifts under the Christmas Trees by NOON on December 13. Because of Covid, we need to have the schools and agencies pick up by 5 PM on that Sunday so that the areas can be cleaned for Monday. If you have chosen a gift card to a senior, please write the amount of your gift card and place in a box so that the gift card will not be lost. (Every year we have gift cards in envelopes and placed under the trees.) It is really special for the elderly to receive a few cookies or a box of candy with your gift card. Make sure your tags are secured with tape on the outside of your wrapped gifts. Please also make sure your gift bags are secure and items will not fall out in the process of moving. This includes packages that are tied together—please make sure the gift tag number is on all boxes or bags.

Please call Betty if you have any questions or concerns at 330-475-9587.

Please help us to fill the requests of the children this year to have a Christmas. It has been a terrible year for so many families! One mother told the head of Community Action that all she wanted was to have something to give her children at Christmas. These gifts give them HOPE!

PLEASE REMEMBER THAT YOUR GIFTS WILL BRING JOY TO BOTH THE SENIORS AND CHILDREN. GOD BLESS YOU ALL FOR ALL YOU DO FOR SO VERY MANY.

PETER MAURIN CENTER
Thank you!

Here is a letter we received recently from Dave Churbock, Director of the Peter Maurin Center of Akron. Your generosity to the collections of toiletries and hygiene items may seem insignificant, but as you will read, they are a big deal for the clients of the Center. Thanks, thanks, and ever thanks:

Dear Father Steve and the St. Hilary Parish Family,

As managers, 99% of the time we tell folks when they are doing something wrong, but unfortunately we don't always tell them when they are doing something right. For years, St. Hilary Parish has been doing the RIGHT things in supporting folks living on the edge, through the Peter Maurin Center. Your family has done SO MUCH over the years, but just recently, I have seen women in (homeless) campsites literally crying in joy over receiving toiletries and hygiene items. You all are awesome! You all are remembered during our prayers of Thanksgiving each time we gather at the Peter Maurin Center. Thank You!

Humbly,
David Churbock

DONATE YOUR CHILDRENS AND TEEN BOOKS

We have many requests from families/parents on the Christmas Giving Tree for children and teens books. We will have a box next to the Halloween candy box for any toddler, children, and teen books that are in clean and good condition. Please NO ADULT BOOKS! You have no idea how much we appreciate all your help in providing extra books for families struggling this holiday season. God Bless you and the parish of St. Hilary for all your help.

SAVE YOUR UNUSED TRAVEL ITEMS!

We would appreciate any travel shampoo, lotions, and soaps if you have been able to travel. These will be bagged for the many seniors this Christmas as an extra gift. We CANNOT use opened and used bottles! Please place your donations in the cabinet in the Donation Hallway.

DON DRUMM ORNAMENT SALE This Weekend!

Blessings in a Backpack will hold their annual Don Drumm Ornament Sale in the Gathering area on Saturday December 5, from 2-5:30 PM and Sunday, December 6 from 9 AM– 1 PM . This year's options are: Large Standing Tree ($100) or Christmas Tree Ornament ($30). If you have any questions, please email blessingsakron@gmail.com.

FROM BROKEN TO BOLD Book signing by the Author, Kelly Kennedy, on December 13

We are excited to showcase the newly released From Broken to Bold, written by St. Hilary Parish parishioner and Athletic Director, Kelly Kennedy! Kelly will join us in the Gathering Area on Sunday, December 13 from 10-11 a.m. for a book signing. Kelly will have books available to purchase for $15 (cash, check, Venmo or Paypal).

Coach Kelly Kennedy draws from her NCAA Division I basketball coaching experience and some tumultuous life seasons in her new book, Broken to Bold: A Journey of a Rise to the Top, a Major Fall, and a Revelation of Truth. The book is targeted to anyone and everyone seeking encouragement and hope during the ups and downs of life and career. Many will find faith-based encouragement: from coaches to executives, parents to managers, business owners to pastors. The book employs practical language, easy-to-grasp concepts, and real-life examples which readers can relate to and apply. Her coaching experience at University of Akron, Iowa State, Texas Christian (TCU) and the University of Oregon make Kelly more than qualified to impart timeless truths to the reader. Kristin Sheehan, Program director of Play Like a Champion Today, praised the book stating, "Kelly Kennedy's resolve to embrace her trials as a path to self-actualization will inspire you to rely on everyone's true head coach: God." Stephanie Norman, Associate Head Women's Basketball Coach at the University of Louisville, endorsed the book describing it as "Not only motivating, but a gentle nudge that there is no time like the present to come to Jesus. I really enjoyed it!"

From Broken to Bold is published by Tall Pine Books, based in Warsaw, Indiana. It is Kennedy's first book.

From Broken to Bold is also available on amazon.com for purchase in both paperback and eBook formats.

OPLATKI IS COMING!

Oplatki, a central Europe Christian Christmas tradition, will be available after all Masses the weekend of December 12 and 13.

St HILARY PARISH FOUNDATION

November is a time when we express thanks for the blessings we have received, and a time to pause and make plans for the future. As you consider your annual charitable giving, please reflect on the impact St. Hilary Church and School have had in your life and consider directing your year-end gift to the St. Hilary Parish Foundation. As you plan to make the most of your donations in 2020, know that the Foundation gratefully accepts gifts of cash and appreciated assets such as stocks or bonds. Even if you don't itemize your taxes, because of the new stimulus package passed by Congress, qualified charitable donations up to $300 for individuals may be tax-deductible. The CARES Act legislation also temporarily suspended the limitation on qualified charitable contributions of cash, allowing for a current year deduction (for those who itemize) up to 100% of AGI. This provision is in effect only for the 2020 tax year. If you are 70 ½ or older, you may be able to make a qualified charitable distribution (QCD) directly from your IRA to the St. Hilary Parish Foundation and reduce your taxable income. Please speak to your tax advisor and IRA administrator to determine the best gift for your particular circumstances. Keep in mind that 100% of your gift to the Foundation remains at St. Hilary, supporting the needs of St. Hilary Church and School now and in the future. For more information, please contact Diane Sarkis, Development Director, at 330-608-4787.

BRING YOUR BABY JESUS TO CHURCH DAY—December 12 & 13

Next weekend on the third Sunday of Advent, we will have a Family Spirituality event for the whole parish—Bring Your Baby Jesus to Church Day! At every weekend liturgy on Dec. 12 and 13, Fr. Steve and Fr. Matt will bless your infant Jesus statues from your home crèche. You may participate either in-person or virtually. Bring or have your statue out and available for the blessing.

This Church tradition, also known as Bambinelli Sunday, was established during the papacy of St. Pope John Paul II. Each year he invited the children of Rome to assemble in St. Peter's Square on the Third Sunday of Advent during his Angelus address. He asked them to bring their little statue of the baby Jesus that would later be placed in their Nativity set at home on Christmas. He blessed the statues and said, "May the Infant Jesus, present in the Crib of your home, be the concrete sign of a limpid and sincere faith, which will enlighten, guide and direct your life and that of your dear ones." Both Pope Benedict XVI and Pope Francis have continued the tradition, and in recent years it has started to expand to other places outside of Rome...like St. Hilary this year! It is a beautiful Advent tradition, one that sanctifies the home with the baby Jesus and makes his arrival in the manger scene an even more joyous event.

To learn more about this beautiful tradition, check our parish website later this week for a recorded reading of Bambinelli Sunday: A Christmas Blessing by Amy Welborn read by our very own, Sr. Carol Joy.
