Dear Friends,

What a delightful story Nathan Ausubel writes. Now that harvest time is here, it's even more meaningful.

"All their lives two young brothers had lived in a city behind great stone walls, never seeing field nor meadow. One day, they decided to visit the country.

As they went walking along the road, they saw a farmer plowing his field. They watched him and were puzzled.
"Why on earth is he doing that?" they wondered. "He turns up the earth and leaves deep furrows in it. Why should someone take a smooth piece of land covered with nice green grass and dig it up?"

Later they watched the farmer sowing grains of wheat along the furrows.

"That man must be crazy!" they exclaimed. "He takes good wheat and throws it into the dirt."

"I don't like the country!" said one in disgust. "Only crazy people live here."

So he returned to the city.

His brother who remained in the country saw a change take place several weeks later. The plowed field began to sprout tender green shoots, even more beautiful and fresher than before. This discovery excited him very much. So he wrote to his brother in the city to come at once and see for himself the wonderful change.

His brother came and was delighted with what he saw. As time passed, they watched the sprouts grow into golden heads of wheat. Now they both understood the purpose of the farmer's work.

When the wheat became ripe, the farmer brought his scythe and began to cut it down. At this the impatient one of the two brothers exclaimed: "The farmer is crazy! He's insane! How hard he worked all these months to produce this lovely wheat, and now with his own hands he is cutting it down! I'm disgusted with such an idiot, and I'm going back to the city!"

His brother, the patient one, held his peace and remained in the country. He watched the farmer gather the wheat into his granary. He saw him skillfully separate the grain from the chaff. He was filled with wonder when he found that the farmer had harvested a hundred-fold of the seed that he had sowed. Then he understood that there was logic in everything that the farmer had done."

Isn't it true that only when we patiently seek God's intervention in our lives that we'll discover the bountiful harvest He will bring about?

Love,

Fr. Dave

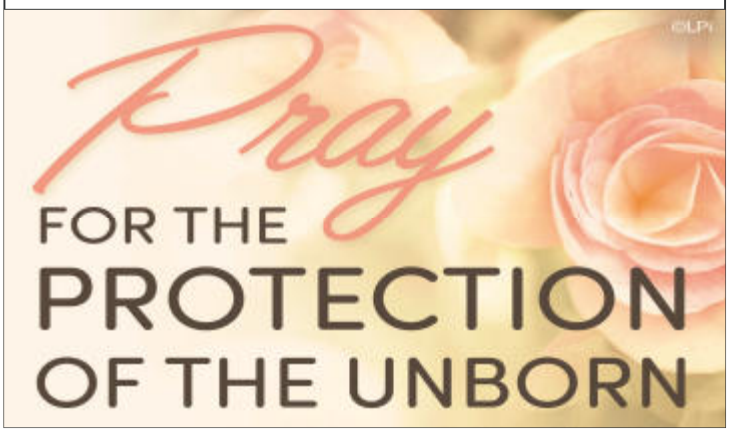
Diocese of Toledo

Next weekend, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Europe and the Americas, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

A Prayer to St. Joseph
Defender of Life

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child. We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life —especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen.



Turkey Bingo is being held on Sunday, November 7 from 12-3 in the St John's Parish Hall. To make this a huge success we are in need of lots of donations. We are looking for door prizes, canned goods, paper products, gently used items for the white elephant sale, baked items for the bake sale and of course monetary donations and gift cards. Please help us if you can and put it on your calendar and plan to attend.
