A NOTE FROM FR. SCOTT | UNA NOTA DEL PADRE SCOTT

My Dear People,

We have come to the end of the Bread of Life discourse in our Sunday readings. Today it all comes to a climax as many people cannot accept Jesus' teaching on the Eucharist; a teaching on Jesus himself as the Bread of Life. Even some of his own disciples cannot come to terms with this teaching. Many walked away from Christ, walked away from Eucharist. And so Jesus says to the 12 apostles: “Do you always want to leave?” Peter answers: “Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God.” I have always loved that question of Peter: “Master, to whom shall we go?” At the end of the day, it is to Christ that we go, to the One who offers us the very gift of Himself and offers us eternal life.

This coming Thursday night is the dedication of the new Holy Infant Catholic Church in Durham. The dedication has been postponed a number of times, most recently in June. However, our neighboring parish finally has their Certificate of Occupancy and I look forward to being with them as Dean on Thursday when Bishop Luis dedicates the new church.

As you heard this weekend, we are seeking catechists to assist us in passing on the faith to the children and youth in our parish. The work of catechesis is important. Perhaps think of a Catholic school teacher or religious education teacher who was influential in your life. I think of Sr. Anne Bernard, who was my fifth grade teacher. She was a wonderful example of someone who devoted her life to God, the Church, and teaching children. She passed on the faith to me and my classmates faithfully. I remember that she even wrote our school song. I stayed in touch with Sr. Anne until her death and celebrated her funeral Mass. It was through teachers like Sr. Anne that my Catholic faith was nourished. Consider the influence that you can have on the young people of our parish. For more information, contact:

In His Love,

Fr. Scott

Queridos Todos,

Hemos llegado al final del discurso del Pan de Vida en nuestras lecturas dominicales. Hoy en día todo llega a un clímax, ya que muchas personas no pueden aceptar la enseñanza de Jesús sobre la Eucaristía; una enseñanza sobre Jesús mismo como el Pan de Vida. Incluso algunos de sus propios discípulos no pueden aceptar esta enseñanza. Muchos se alejaron de Cristo, caminaron lejos de la Eucaristía. Y entonces Jesús dice a los 12 apóstoles: "¿Siempre quieren irse?" Pedro responde: "Maestro, ¿a quién iremos?" Tienes las palabras de la vida eterna. Hemos llegado a creer y estamos convencidos de que tú eres el Santo de Dios". Siempre me ha encantado esa pregunta de Pedro: "Maestro, ¿a quién iremos?" Al final del día, es a Cristo a quien vamos, a Aquel que nos ofrece el don mismo de Sí mismo y nos ofrece la vida eterna.

Este próximo jueves por la noche es la dedicación de la nueva Iglesia Católica Holy Infant en Durham. La dedicación se ha pospuesto varias veces, la última en junio. Sin embargo, nuestra parroquia vecina finalmente tiene su Certificado de Ocupación y espero estar con ellos como Decano el jueves cuando el Obispo Luis dedique la nueva iglesia.

Como escucharon este fin de semana, estamos buscando catequistas que nos ayuden a transmitir la fe a los niños y jóvenes de nuestra parroquia. El trabajo de la catequesis es importante. Tal vez recuerden a un maestro de escuela católica o maestro de educación religiosa que fue influyente en su vida. Pienso en sor Anne Bernard, quien fue mi maestra de quinto grado. Ella fue un ejemplo maravilloso de alguien que dedicó su vida a Dios, a la iglesia y a enseñar a los niños. Ella me transmitió la fe a mí y a mis compañeros de clase fielmente. Recuerdo que incluso escribió la canción de nuestra escuela. Me mantuve en contacto con sor Anne hasta su muerte y celebré su misa funeral. Fue a través de maestros como Sor Ana que mi fe católica se nutrió. Consideren la influencia que pueden tener en los jóvenes de nuestra parroquia. REFLECT

FIRST READING

Joshua, who helped settle the Israelites into the Promised Land, knew the struggle ahead lay in Israel's fidelity to God. How does anyone best show fidelity to God?

SECOND READING

Toward the end of his letter, Paul takes up the topic of husbands and wives. He speaks of the importance of mutual subordination and love. What do you see as secret to a successful marriage?

GOSPEL

Jesus' bread of life discourse ends with the report that "many of Jesus' disciples" no longer followed Jesus. How should we respond to family or friends who choose to walk away from Jesus?

– WHAT'S COMING UP IN THE PARISH? –

The Bible Timeline is a 23-session course that will be offered via Zoom on Saturday mornings from 9:00AM-10:30AM, starting September 11, 2021 and ending March 5, 2022.

There will be no Zoom sessions on 11/27/21 (Thanksgiving), 12/25/21 (Christmas Day), or 1/1/22 (New Year's Day).

All participants will need to purchase their own workbook and online video access through Ascension and should have their own Bible and a copy of the "Catechism of the Catholic Church". The group will follow the workbook guidelines and questions after each session and will pray for guidance and inspiration from God the Holy Spirit through the intercession of His Holy Spouse. We have no theological leaders, just Our Divine Leader, and our goal is to know God more.

For questions or to enroll, please contact Kathy Siemer at kathleensiemer@embarqmail.com or 336-562-5452. The last date to enroll is September 4.

– ST. THOMAS MORE PARISHIONERS IN SERVICE –

St. Thomas More School parents and the Knights of Columbus removed the sandbox and old turf at the school. Then they prepared the ground for the installation of a new piece of play equipment, built a Gaga pit, and installed metal poles to extend the sun sails in the school's Bird Garden. They were amazing! All volunteered for a full day of work, and the Home and School Association was thrilled to have the support of the Knights of Columbus.
