BAPTISMS

Presenting a child for Baptism is a serious obligation and requires a faith commitment on the part of the parents and godparents. This commitment is exemplified by being a practicing, active Catholic. Parents are obligated to attend a preparation session before a child's baptism if they have not attended one in the past five years. Sessions are held at 12:15 p.m. on second Sundays of January, March, May, July, September and November, in the Parish Activity Center. Please call the Parish Office to register. Baptism is at 12:15 p.m. on the third Sunday of each month except in March it will be on the second Sunday.

WEDDINGS

Please phone the parish office to set-up an appointment with a priest, in order to begin the sacramental preparation. Only after this initial meeting and assessment can a date be set for the wedding. The process requires at least 6 months.

NEW PARISHIONERS ARE WELCOME

Please come to the parish office to register. If you have a change of address, phone number or email, please inform the parish office.

We again thank everyone for their generosity toward our local people in need.

PATRIOTIC ROSARY

The Patriotic Rosary will be prayed at the Mercer County Fairgrounds Sunday August 15th at 9:30 a.m. We invite all to join us. Let workers know at the gate you are there for The Rosary to receive free admission for this event (free admission is not for the entire day). The Rosary will be prayed inside the large white building just north of the main entrance of the fairgrounds. Come and join us as we pray for our country!

Remember in your prayers those who have died, especially Anne Swift and Mary Poeppelman.

Sunday School/ Children's Liturgy of the Word

It's that time of year again! Come join us as we start our Sunday School Program for 2021-2022. This year we will ONLY be offering Sunday School for children ages 3 & 4 years old during the 11:00 a.m. Mass starting on September 26, 2021. We will also be starting up our Children's Liturgy of the Word the same weekend for any child over the age of 4 that would like to come join us during the 11:00 a.m. Mass.

Registration forms for Sunday School are available in the back of the Church, on the parish website, the Parish Office, and at the Religious Education Office. Please return completed forms to the Religious Education Office or Parish Office. Registration forms are NOT required for Children's Liturgy of the Word.

Do you need service hours for National Honors Society or for Confirmation?? Come join us and help bring the joy of your faith to the littles of our parish!! If you have any questions, please contact the Religious Education Office at 419-586-2370 or email tpierstorff@celina-ic.org. See you in September!!

Religious Education Registration

It is "Back to School" time! Religious Education classes for grades 1-9 will begin September 8 while Confirmation class begins on September 12. Registration for 1st-10th grade is underway! Registration forms are available in the Parish Office, at the entrances to the church, on our parish website, and in the Religious Ed Office. They may be returned to the Religious Education Office during regular office hours which are 8:30 – 5:00 Monday – Thursday, to the Parish Office from Monday-Friday, or dropped into the collection on Sundays. The Religious Ed Office is closed on Fridays. We are excited to start another faith-filled year with the youth of our parish!

RCIA

ARE YOU SOMEONE OR DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO…

- Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?
- Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?
- Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?

RCIA in the Celina Cluster offers an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Weekly sessions start in September, focus on the teachings and experience of the Church, and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. There are separate sessions for children or youth. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights, and your faith story in a warm accepting setting. For information, please contact your parish office or Charlie Mescher by email at meschercj@bright.net or by phone 419-586-5618 (home) or 419-953-6189 (cell).

Will you be a witness on the journey of faith for our RCIA participants? You can volunteer as a sponsor for one of our catechumens or simply serve as a faith witness during our formative sessions. You need not be an "expert" on Catholic theology - just a faith-filled parishioner willing to share the Catholic life with someone that has answered God's call to join our community.

If you are a fully initiated Catholic (baptized, confirmed, actively participating in the Eucharist) who is at least 18 years of age, please contact your parish office or Charlie Mescher (meschercj@bright.net or 419-586-5618) for more information to find out how you can be a positive influence in our RCIA process. It's an enriching experience for everyone involved.

The Secular Order of Carmelites or "Third Order" as called in the past, are accepting new visitors, (men or women, single or married) seeking a deeper prayer life, beginning in September and October.

- Do you have a deep devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary?
- Do you long for communion with like-minded Catholics?
- Are you being called to serve the Church in a deeper prayer life?

Then the Lord may be calling YOU. Our meetings are scheduled the 2nd Tuesday of the month, at St. Charles Living Center (former seminary) 2860 US 127, Celina, beginning at 6:30 PM, in the Auditorium. For more information, call; Norma Wermert, OCDS @ 419-678-3631

Bulletin articles are due in writing by 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday. You may email article to: tstewart@celina-ic.org.

Together & the Bread of Life – Presence: Physical vs Virtual

In the Bread of Life Discourse in the Gospel of Saint John chapter 6, Our Lord reveals himself as the Bread of Life and that whoever eats this bread will live forever (Jn 6:51-58). Having experienced the absence of the Eucharist during the pandemic, our yearning for Jesus, the Bread of Life, has grown deeper. We continue to reflect upon the importance of the Eucharist in our lives, how it gathers us as the body of Christ, nurtures and strengthens us for our mission and service in the world and ultimately prepares us for the great heavenly feast with God.

"Blessed are those who dwell in your house! They never cease to praise you." (Ps84)
"In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came to be through him, and without him nothing came to be…And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us and we saw his glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth." (Jn 1:1-14) As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion.

We often only think about the Incarnation - God coming to us in human form in Jesus - at Christmas time. Yet, the Incarnation is significant all the time. "The Word became flesh and dwelt among us." God understands our human experience and communicates to us through physical realities. In the sacraments, Christ's presence is made known to us through the stuff of the earth - water, bread, wine, oil – and these are experienced through our senses - touch, taste, smell. We must be physically present at Mass and in other sacramental celebrations in order to fully encounter Christ's presence.

Anyone who has spent significant time away from loved ones knows that connecting through a video call just isn't the same. We want to touch them, hear the nuances in their voice, linger in their physical presence. Similarly, and more importantly, viewing Mass on television or via social media just isn't the same as participating in person. While at times watching Mass is the only option available to us due to illness or other serious circumstances, it is good for us to remember that Jesus came to us in human form - in flesh and blood - so that we could more fully grasp the great love that God has for humanity. When we gather together at the celebration of the Eucharist, we hear God's word, feel the presence of Christ with one another, touch and taste the very Body and Blood of the Lord.

Jesus said, "where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." (Mt 18:20) This is especially true when we come together at Mass. In the celebration of the Eucharist, we experience Christ's presence together, are formed in word and sacrament, receive the Body and Blood of Christ in Holy Communion, and are sent forth in Christ's mission of mercy, forgiveness, and compassion. In the Eucharist, we realize the true identity of the Church as the Body of Christ. In the Eucharist, we grow in communion with our Lord and one another, assured that Christ is with us.

Presence: Physical vs. Virtual

"It's not perfect, but we are doing our best to make it work." The bride-to-be was doing her best to appear cheerful during the marriage preparation meeting with her fiancé and me. The meeting was over Zoom, not because of the pandemic, but because all three of us were in different states. The couple had spent most of their engagement separated by a ten-hour drive and were working hard to navigate the difficulties of a long-distance engagement. They faithfully texted each other throughout the day and never missed their video call each evening, the only opportunity they had to see each other "face-to-face." But while virtual communication was necessary and even a great gift, both of them agreed that the situation was putting a strain on their relationship. Virtual presence was not enough and was a poor substitute for the real presence of the other. Anyone who has attempted to maintain a long-distance relationship can sympathize with this couple's longing to be together, especially as they prepare for marriage. Even as a celibate priest, I am frequently moved by the beauty of spousal love, which the Scriptures frequently use as a metaphor for the relationship between God and His people. Isaiah says, for example, "For your husband is your Maker; the LORD of hosts is his name" (Is 54:5), both John the Baptist and Jesus himself refer to Jesus as the bridegroom (Jn 3:29; Mk 2:19), and heaven is described as a wedding feast (Rev 19:9). The Catechism of the Catholic Church sums this reality up well: "The entire Christian life bears the mark of the spousal love of Christ and the Church" (CCC 1617). And for an excellent overview of the relationship between God and His people as one of marital love, I recommend Jesus the Bridegroom, by Dr. Brant Pitre.

We must never lose sight of the remarkable truth that Jesus is calling each of us to a relationship with Him that resembles marriage. It is a covenantal relationship in which the Lord gives the entirety of himself to the Christian and the Christian gives him/herself entirely to the Lord. At every Mass, we have the opportunity to enter into this spousal relationship. Jesus offers Himself wholly to us in the Eucharist, which is Jesus Christ himself – Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity (CCC 1374). For our part, we have the opportunity to receive this total gift of Jesus himself into our bodies, and, in this reception, to give ourselves wholly back to Him. Keeping all of this in mind, it becomes readily apparent that "virtual Mass" is not enough. During the pandemic, it may have been necessary for a time (and, for some, it may still be necessary), but making the choice to attend Mass virtually would be akin to choosing to remain in a long-distance relationship with the one we love and maintaining our distance from the One who deeply loves us. Nothing that can replace being in the physical presence of, and being physically united with, the one we love. Our hearts break for those who, because of age or medical vulnerability, cannot be physically present with us for Mass. We must never forget nor neglect those who are truly homebound, as these persons are never forgotten by God. For those of us who can attend Mass safely, however, it is time to come back into the Real Presence of the Bridegroom. "Virtual Mass" has been a necessary supplement to our relationship with the Lord, but every authentic spousal relationship desires union with the beloved. It is time come back home to the "source and summit of the Christian life" (CCC 1324). It is time to dwell again in the presence of Jesus Christ who satisfies the deepest desires of every human heart.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

They are courageous, wise women who ground us, focus us, and inspire us. They are the good mothers who walk with us and light our way. They teach us life lessons and help us heal and navigate through challenges and difficulties. We need people to point the way. Sometimes, these wise ladies are not our biological mothers but women in our lives, who through their strong and faithful presence, anchor us and remind us that we are loved. We need these women. Human beings do their best when they have cheerleaders in their lives. They show us that even when facing despair there is always a brighter tomorrow.
Jesus needed his mother. She had to be that faithful anchor, that guiding presence, in his life. Jesus needed to be affirmed and encouraged just like any other human being and Mary had to be there, right by his side, doing precisely that. Even when her heart was pierced as he was nailed to a tree, she did not give up hope. Most certainly, she continued to wait, watch, hope, and love until he took his final breath. That's what mothers do. Even when their heart breaks, they persevere.

Today, our Blessed Mother is our cheerleader once again. Taken up to heaven in body and soul, she points to and directs us toward our final destiny. Life eternal waits! Any disappointment, fear, or anxiety can be set aside as she gently reassures us of God's love and promise. Always a mother filled with grace and hope, she calls us to reaffirm our faith in God and in the gifts we have each been given. We can persevere and do what we need to do to live life well, with faith, hope, and love as our guiding lights. Knowing who we are and who we will one day become helps us to better chart the course and direction of our earthly lives. Looking to the example of our Blessed Mother, we receive the assurance we need.
