Pastors Notes

60 YEARS OF GLORIOUS LIFE!! THANK YOU!!

"Oh it's just a number" but what it represents is years of blessings and love. I want to first start by thanking my parents! The youngest of four I know that I was NOT planned but certainly always loved and wanted! I am sure that there could have been more pictures of me when I was growing up but there were not many "paused" moments in the action! I think a movie camera (high speed) may have served best in those early days to capture the things that I must have gotten into every day.

I want to thank my siblings for putting up with me as well as always including me in the games and fun even though it must have been truly a challenge and sacrifice.

I am most thankful for the life of Faith that was instilled in me and shared as a "matter of fact" kind of approach to being Catholic. No question ever about Sunday Mass, once a month confessions, attending devotions and working the parish Bazaar. I have nothing but fond memories of my Catholic school years and the opportunity to be an altar server paired up with my best friend and brother. I talk about 20/20 vision as we moved into this new millennium but Catholic Focus and vision has been a 60 year event for me!

I am thankful that many of those early years were celebrated through sports with my dad and playing the two games that I loved as a child. Baseball and basketball gave me perspective and a chance to experience failure and success as well as team work. Sports, vacations to Lake Erie and Sunday visits to grandparents made life in the 60's and 70's iconic.

But the best of my 60 years certainly have been the last 34 years as a priest! Wow…. Each year I gain a year in the vineyard of the Lord. The past 16 years have been the greatest honor as pastor of Immaculate Conception combined with the past four years as pastor of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton! Couple that with the most recent years sharing priesthood with Father Roniel makes it surreal for me!

I am thankful for my friends who have supported my priesthood and have shared their families and their lives with me teaching and loving me into the best priest and pastor that I could have ever hoped to be in Christ!

In th
how

I want to thank everyone who sent me cards, gifts, food and money to show your love and appreciation at the occasion of my day of birth. I have just finished opening the cards and just finished the food this week and now I want to thank all of you here since it would be impossible to do so individually!

But I want to thank you for sticking with me as your shepherd during the pandemic. Showing your deep faith as you welcomed me into your home through "Operation Safe Mode" and stayed in tune with who we are as a parish family while others hid in fear. I terribly missed the face to face encounters but I believe that all of us have grown in a deeper appreciation of what a Faith Community means as the nurturing gift of a life in Christ.

I want to thank all of you who expressed your unbelief that I could be possibly 60 years old not looking a day over…. (pick a number) years old. I come to accept such sentiments but also realize that if you can make me younger…. then you, too are younger. But age is an attitude of mind and in looks… in the eye of the beholder!

Now the "Beloved" Pastor – Recently at VBS where Father Roniel was playing his guitar and dancing with the children someone made the comment that Father Roniel is the "coolest" priest ever! They love his youth and his smile as well as his authentic love of the church! So…. If he is the "coolest" priest ever then where does that leave me? Father Roniel is the coolest and I am the beloved pastor! I am the "old man" who is blessed to have years of dedication to his flock.

I am thankful for this role for when I prepared 11 couples for marriage last weekend, most of them I had given them First Communion and Confirmation. The "Beloved Pastor" will now officiate at their wedding too! We just held a Confirmation retreat for our 8th graders (soon to be 9th graders) in preparation for their big day in September. Of these students I have baptized and gave First Communion…. Now I am their catechist as they prepare to complete the sacraments of initiation. If you think parents are proud to watch their children grow and succeed you can only imagine how the spiritual (Beloved Pastor) Father feels on days like these in the life of the Church!

15 more Years – As I wind down my ministry with only 15 years left I am blessed to be in two loving parishes with generous members who honored me so at my birthday. To have come from a family of great faith and accompanied by wonderful friends through the years I cannot wait to see what God has in store for me in years to come.

THANK YOU – please accept this note today as an appreciation for your generosity and even though it is impossible to personally reach out to you, I have done so in my prayers! So let us remember it is times like these that Saints were formed … so let us become Saints and stay "safe" in the Lord!!

2021 VISION

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

GATHERING SONG "For the Beautify of the Earth"

1) For the beauty of the earth,
for the glory of the skies,
for the love which from our birth
over and around us lies.
Refrain:
Lord, of all, to you we raise this, our hymn of grateful praise.
2) For the wonder of each hour of the day and of the night,
hill and vale and tree and flower,
sun and moon and stars of light, [Refrain]

GLORIA Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

READING 1 Ez 2: 2-5

As the LORD spoke to me, the spirit entered into me
and set me on my feet,
and I heard the one who was speaking say to me:
Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, rebels who have rebelled against me;
they and their ancestors have revolted against me to this very day.
Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you.
But you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD GOD!
And whether they heed or resist—for they are a rebellious house—they shall know that a prophet has been among among them.

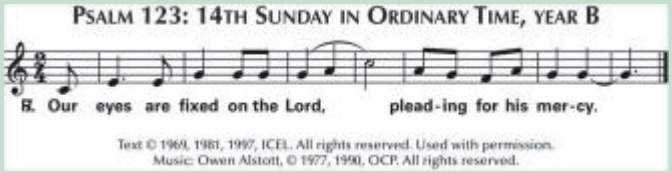
RESPONSORIAL PSALM



READING 2 2 COR 12: 7-10

Brothers and sisters:
That I, Paul, might not become too elated,
because of the abundance of the revelations,
a thorn in the flesh was given to me, an angel of Satan,
to beat me, to keep me from being too elated.
Three times I begged the Lord about this, that it might leave me, but he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you,
for power is made perfect in weakness."
I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me.
Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints,
for the sake of Christ;
for when I am weak, then I am strong.

GOSPEL Mk 6: 1-6

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples.
When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue,
and many who heard him were astonished.
They said, "Where did this man get all this?
What kind of wisdom has been given him?
What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands!
Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary,
and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon?
And are not his sisters here with us?"
And they took offense at him.
Jesus said to them,
"A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house."
So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them.
He was amazed at their lack of faith.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Closing Song "America the Beautiful"

1) O beautiful for spacious skies,
for amber waves of grain;
for purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee, and crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

2) O beautiful for pilgrim feet,
Whose stern, impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat,
across the wilderness!
America!! America! God mend thine every flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law.

Home with the Lord - In the Spirit of Christian charity, your prayers are requested for the repose of the souls of Rose Mary Surgent. May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace. Amen.

Youth News

Summer Family-Formation Workshop: This summer, we want to invite you to our First Family Faith Formation Workshop on the topic of Prayer! The family celebrates the Gospel of Life through prayer, both individually and communal. All families are called to be Domestic Churches, but what does that truly mean? How do we cultivate our unique family spirituality? These questions and more are explored!

We invite all Faith Formation Families to please join on July 17th for the 4 PM Mass, and then head downstairs to Mack Hall for dinner. We will then do a family activity together and split kids from parents for separate teachings. We will come together for some worship and adoration, and close with S'mores. This is a great way to bring your family together to learn how to pray individually AND communally!

Please register online at: https://www.osvhub.com/stelizabeth-ann-seton-church/forms/seas-familyworkshop

Senior Youth Ministry— Calling and Choosing all High School Students entering grades 9-12 this fall! Please join us at Saint Agnes on July 10th and August 14th for a summer night retreat! We will have Pizza, S'mores, adoration, games, and so much more. Come on out to enjoy this night of community, worship, and meet Jen and Matt, the new youth ministers! Questions? Contact Jen Wilson at JNWilson@dioceseofgreensburg.org

Youth Choir: We have missed singing with the youth of our parish during the pandemic, but we are ready to return to singing! The SEAS Youth Choir will provide an ensemble experience for students from ages 6-18 to develop musically as individuals while contributing to the liturgy. The Youth Choir will sing at 8:30 AM masses once a month starting in September 2021. If interested, you can find a flyer in the back of the church with information for parents and students, all rehearsal and mass dates, and director contact information. If you have any additional questions after reviewing the flyer, please feel free to see Rita Feals after mass.

THE CATHOLIC ACCENT

Catholic Bishops' Vote Explained: The Bishops vote to prepare a document to bring greater clarity around the Church's teachings regarding the most Holy Eucharist

JUNE 2021 – At a virtual meeting called by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in mid-June, Bishop Kulick and his brother Bishops voted overwhelmingly to authorize the doctrine committee of the USCCB to draft a teaching document on the meaning of the Eucharist in the life of the Church.

Relative to that document, what was reported by the mainstream media did not reflect accurately the discussion and the vote:

- There will be no national policy on withholding Communion from politicians.
- The bishops did not vote to ban politicians from receiving Holy Communion. This was not up for vote or debate.
- The bishops made no decision about barring anyone from receiving Holy Communion - not President Biden, Speaker Pelosi or any other specific policy maker.

Since then, Bishop Kulick has received a number of communications from concerned laity.

"Let me assure you, I am focused on the future of our diocese; one that unites us and does not divide us. Our call as Bishops is never to divide the flock, but instead, to bring unity and clarity on the Church's teaching of our fundamental understanding, celebration and living of the most holy Eucharist in our lives as disciples of Christ," Bishop Kulick said.

Discussions about the issuance of the Eucharist teaching document began well before the presidential election and took on a new level of importance as every diocese in the country now tries to find a way to re-engage parishioners in a post-pandemic world and to assist in the catechizing of the faithful on the importance of the sacramental encounter with Christ in the Eucharist.

Each Catholic - regardless of whether they hold public office or not - is called to continual conversion, and the U.S. bishops have repeatedly emphasized the obligation of all Catholics to support human life and dignity and other fundamental principles of Catholic moral and social teaching.

"I reaffirm the preeminence of the right to life in the scheme of the Church's social justice teachings. I think we can all agree that, despite our own human weaknesses and sins, we strive daily to preach and live with Eucharistic consistency," Bishop Kulick said.

Bishop Kulick urged the faithful to be wary of mainstream media spin on the work of the USCCB.

"I am saddened to say that the recent coverage served only to fuel emotions and to stroke political angst," Bishop Kulick said.

Moving forward, everyone in the Church is invited to pray for the bishops as they continue their dialogues and reflections.
