Distribution of Ashes—Ash Wednesday

Fr. Bob

With Ash Wednesday approaching on February 17, it's necessary to begin to educate everyone regarding changes to the distribution of ashes during this time of Pandemic, issued by the Congregation for Worship at the Vatican, on January 12, 2021. We will be following this method at St. John XXIII.

After blessing the ashes and sprinkling them with Holy Water without saying anything, the priest addresses one time to the entire congregation the traditional words, "Repent, and believe in the Gospel," or "Remember that you are dust and unto dust you will return." The priest then cleanses his hands, and wearing his facemask, distributes the ashes to each person silently by sprinkling the ashes on the top of the head.

These changes minimize the necessity of physical contact between minister and recipient and remove the need for the minister to speak while in close proximity to the recipient. While not well-known in the United States, the distribution of ashes via sprinkling has been the traditional way to receive ashes at the Vatican and throughout Europe and the rest of the world. This method is actually very symbolic of how people in the Bible did Penance for their sins, as well as how the water of the Sacrament of Baptism conquers our sin:

- "Now on the twenty-fourth day of this month the people of Israel were assembled with fasting and in sackcloth, and with earth upon their heads." (Nehemiah 9:1)
- "Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the long tunic in which she was clothed. Then, putting her hands to her head, she went away crying loudly." (2 Samuel 13:19)
- In addition, there is baptismal symbolism too. At baptism, after the person is washed clean with water, the priest anoints him/her as priest, prophet, and king on the crown of the head with chrism oil. At the beginning of Lent, ashes, which are a reminder both of sin and baptism into Christ death, are sprinkled on the crown of one's head to symbolize the Lenten Season of Penance in preparation for the celebration of Christ's Resurrection on Easter, when Jesus conquers sin and death.

While we have not yet finalized this year's Mass Schedule for Ash Wednesday, I think it's important for all of us to know not only how the distribution will be like this year in the time of Pandemic, but also know of the deep symbolism involved in distributing ashes by sprinkling on the head. Again, we will be following these norms this year at St. John XXIII, as issued by the Vatican.

Lenten Regulations for Fasting and Abstinence

1. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence. The Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence in the United States.

2. The obligation of abstinence (refraining from eating meat) begins at age 14. The law of fasting (limiting oneself to one full meal and two lighter meals) obliges all between the ages of 18-59. No one should consider this obligation lightly.

3. Those individuals who have a medical condition in which fasting may be considered harmful are not obliged to fast, but should perform some other act of penance or charity.

4. Pastors and parents are asked that minors, though not bound by the law of fast and abstinence, are educated in the authentic sense of penance and encouraged to do acts of penance suitable to their age.

5. Notable during this Lenten season is that the Solemnity of Saint Joseph falls on a Friday. Because of this, there is not an obligation to abstain from meat on Friday, March 19, 2021, the Solemnity of Saint Joseph, according to the norm of canon 1251.

6. The faithful are encouraged to do acts of penance and charity during the Lenten season beyond what is prescribed by the law.

Newly Baptized

Please welcome to our faith family:

- Milena Rose Montesano, daughter of John and Leslie Montesano
- Camila Nicole Negrych, daughter of James and Nicole Negrych

May they grow in wisdom, age and grace.

Rest In Peace

Please remember in your prayers

- Paul John Chasko
- John (Jack) Mendel
- Margaret Christman

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
