SURVIVING THE HOLIDAYS

HELP AND HOPE AS YOU NAVIGATE THE CHRISTMAS SEASON

Wondering how you will survive the weeks surrounding Thanksgiving and Christmas? Are you dreading these holidays, knowing that everything has changed and that happy memories from past years can't be recreated?

Our Surviving the Holidays seminar is especially for people who are grieving a loved one's death. You'll learn:

- how to deal with the many emotions you'll face during the holidays
- what to do about traditions and other coming changes
- helpful tips for surviving social events
- how to discover hope for your future

PRAYING FOR THE DEAD

This month of November is dedicated to praying for the dead. One of the tenants of the faith that we profess as Catholics each time that we recite the Nicene Creed is resurrection of the dead. We believe that death is not the end but a new beginning. Regularly in our liturgies, such as in the Mass and the Liturgy of the Hours, we remember the dead. We pray for them in the Prayers of the Faithful or the Universal Prayers. Also, a part of every Eucharistic Prayer remembers the dead. Death is part of our journey in the Christian life.

The thought might arise though, why do we focus on the dead? The Church has always promoted the need and the duty to pray for those who have gone before us. We read in the Old Testament, "Thus he made atonement for the dead that they might be absolved from their sin" (2 Mac 12:46). In the New Testament, Jesus is professed as the Lord of the living and the dead, such as in Romans 14:9. The most important and best way for us to pray for the dead is in the Mass, the source and summit of our lives as Catholics. That is why we read and hear that a Mass is being offered for a person or persons. In the Mass, we bring heaven and earth together and we lift our prayers to the Lord. Our prayers can offer up atonement for them and aid them on their journey.

So, what can one do? One option is to have a Mass offered up for a loved one who has died. You can contact the Church office and they will help you do this. There are no limits to how many Masses you can have said for a person. Another option during this month to pray for the dead is to place their names in Our Book of Remembrance located next to the Baptismal font. Those names will be remembered throughout the month.

I pray this short article on why we pray for the dead is important not only for this month of November but as a regular practice of the Church. We are all one Church, the living and the dead. While we pray for the dead, we also believe those who have gone before us also intercede for us that we might continue to persevere and strive for our eternal world.

Through the Alliance of the Two Hearts,

Fr. Matthew J. Graham

STUMP THE DEACON!

I have heard the term "Apostolic Succession." What does that mean?

Basically, the term apostolic succession refers to the fact that each bishop can trace their spiritual lineage (rather than their biological lineage) all the way back to the Apostles. In other words, each bishop is ordained by another bishop, who was ordained by another bishop; this succession goes all the way back to the Apostles. Currently, three bishops ordain a new bishop – one Principal Consecrator (the primary bishop who ordains a bishop) and two Principal Co-Consecrators.

As an example, let's discuss Bishop Michael Duca's lineage. On May 19, 2008, Reverend Duca was ordained a bishop by the Principal Consecrator, Archbishop Alfred Clifton Hughes of the Archdiocese of New Orleans. Principal Co-Consecrators were Archbishop Michael Jarboe Sheehan, Archbishop of Santa Fe, New Mexico and Bishop Kevin Joseph Farrell, Bishop of Dallas Texas. Bishop Hughes had been ordained a bishop in 1981 by the Principal Consecrator, Cardinal Humberto Sousa Medeiros and two Principal Co-Consecrators, Bishop Thomas Vose Daily and Bishop John Michael D'Arcy. The lineage of each of the Consecrators goes all the way back to the Apostles.

Actually, priests and deacons are also a part of this apostolic succession because each priest and deacon is ordained by a bishop. On May 30, 2015, Bishop Muench ordained our pastor, Fr. Matthew, to the priesthood. On June 10, 2017, Bishop Muench ordained me as a permanent deacon. Just like all other bishops, Bishop Muench's lineage goes all the way back to the Apostles.

Apostolic succession also ensures that the teachings of Jesus will be passed on to future generations without error. St. Paul says in his second letter to Timothy, "…what you heard from me through many witnesses entrust to faithful people who will have the ability to teach others as well" (2 Tm 2:2). This passage reflects three generations of apostolic succession: St. Paul's, St. Timothy's and those who Timothy ordained.

There will be a meeting for all sponsors on Wednesday, November 17, at 7:00 p.m. in the Main Hall. The RCIA Inquiry sessions will come to an end on Thursday, November 18. The inquirers have been attending weekly sessions since August and have been learning about our Catholic faith. On Saturday, November 20, the inquirers will be assigned a sponsor to serve as their companion during the next stage of their journey.

For more information, contact Tammy at tjackson@icc-msh.org or 225.665.5359.

Men, become the leader your family, our Church, and our world need you to be!

Blinding by the Kingdom– Last week we began the process to both understand and form a strong desire in our hearts to acquire a taste for Heaven. This week, we will take an in depth look at one of the greatest conversion stories in the history of the Church: the transformation from Saul to Paul.

Next gathering - November 13 at 7:00 a.m. in the Small Hall.

Contact Deacon Rudy for details deaconrudy@icc-msh.org or 225.665.6359.

Baptism Seminar for parents and godparents

Baptism Seminars are held every second Monday of the month at 7:00 p.m. in the Administration Building. You need to register for each seminar by calling the church office at 225.665.5359 no later than the Friday before the seminar (11/8 by noon). The next Baptism Seminar will be held on Monday, November 8.
