6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another." - Jn 15:16-17

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPi

"God has created me to do Him some definite service; He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission."

2 LEARN ABOUT ST. JOHN UNIVERSITY PARISH

MAY 9, 2021 | SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

OUR PARISH

Located in the center of the West Virginia University main campus, St. John University Parish was founded to support the Catholic Community of WVU. We are seeking to grow in holiness as disciples of Jesus Christ, and who, in turn, strive to bring others to Him and His Church.

Our parish community has been called to witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ at West Virginia University by serving the students, faculty and staff. As a parish devoted to campus ministry, we provide opportunities to participate in the sacramental life of the Church, to deepen one's spiritual life, to serve the poor and disadvantaged, and to develop meaningful, lifelong relationships with other Catholics on campus and throughout greater Morgantown.

We look forward to adoring our Lord and serving with you.

UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF ST. JOHN HENRY NEWMAN

St. John University Parish is a parish dedicated to campus ministry at West Virginia University and is blessed to have our Newman Hall as a home for our students to study, hang out, and grow in their faith.

St. Cardinal John Henry Newman

St. John Henry Newman, the 19th-century's most important English-speaking Catholic theologian, spent the first half of his life as an Anglican and the second half as a Catholic.. As he would later write, "To be deep in history is to cease to be a Protestant." He was a priest, popular preacher, writer, and eminent theologian. When Newman was named a cardinal in 1879, he took as his motto "Cor ad cor loquitur"—"Heart speaks to heart." Three years after Newman died, a Newman Club for Catholic students began at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. In time, his name was linked to ministry centers at many public and private colleges and universities in the United States. His feast day is celebrated on October 9. St. John's is under St. John Henry Newman's patronage and relies on his intercession for our parishioners and students. His motto, "Cor ad cor loquitur", can be found on the stained glass window in the choir loft of the church

From the Pastor's Desk

Last week I wrote on how May is the Month of Mary. I'd like to speak a little bit more on this topic especially as celebrate Mother's Day this weekend. We could make the case that May is the most traditional month on our calendar. It is filled with events and rituals in religious and secular life: May Crownings, First Holy Communions, Confirmations, Ordinations to the Diaconate and Priesthood, Graduations, and Mother's Day. These events even have musical traditions: Sir Edward Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance March I" at graduations; Marian hymns during May Crowning processions and ceremonies; appropriate Eucharistic hymns at First Holy Communion Masses. During the Easter season, the Church continues to celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation for those who were baptized as infants—those who became Catholics at the Easter Vigil received all the Sacraments that night.

May is particularly a maternal month: our mothers are at the center of all these events, preparing, celebrating, and enjoying their children's achievements and transitions. We honor them in turn on Mother's Day with different traditions: family gatherings, brunches, flowers, and gifts, thanking them for all their love and sacrifice.

Christ made Mary our Mother by giving her into the care of St. John at the foot of the Cross before He died. Our devotion to her adds to the maternal and traditional significance of this month.

Many popes have highlighted devotion to Mary during the month of May, including Pope Pius XII and of course Pope St. John Paul II. Pope St. Paul VI wrote a brief encyclical, "Mense Maio", in 1965 to Catholic bishops throughout the world as the Second Vatican Council was meeting:

"The month of May is almost here, a month which the piety of the faithful has long dedicated to Mary, the Mother of God. Our heart rejoices at the thought of the moving tribute of faith and love which will soon be paid to the Queen of Heaven in every corner of the earth. For this is the month during which Christians, in their churches and their homes, offer the Virgin Mother more fervent and loving acts of homage and veneration; and it is the month in which a greater abundance of God's merciful gifts comes down to us from our Mother's throne. We are delighted and consoled by this pious custom associated with the month of May, which pays honor to the Blessed Virgin and brings such rich benefits to the Christian people..."

So in summary, make sure Mary is present in your homes in a special way this month. Our home traditions are important. Pray a daily Rosary. Learn other Marian prayers – such as the Memorare, the Salve Regina, the Litany of Loretto, etc. Crown a statue of Mary in your home. Growing up, every time we'd get into our car, my mother would lead us in a simple song to the Blessed Mother: "Be with us Mary, along with the way. Guide every step we take. Lead us to Jesus, your loving Son, come with us Mary, come." I have always remembered that song.

I pray that this month of May will help you to grow in your devotion to our heavenly Mother, who loves each of us so dearly. As always, you remain in my prayers.

In Christ and Mary,

Fr. Brian

Hail Mary….

Each Sunday in May, before the 11:00 am Mass, the people of St. John's will gather to pray the Rosary. Join us at 10:30 am! By reflecting on the Mysteries of the Rosary, we will see the life of Jesus through Mary's eyes.

MUSIC AND LITURGY

The King of Instruments

Two weeks ago, I wrote about the updated plans for our instrument that we use here at St. John's. I specifically spoke about the pedalboard project and how that was going to be implemented over time to embolden our music program. Well it is my joy to announce that we were able to get another part of that project complete thanks to the donation of a new Mac Mini computer! With the new computer in place, we are now using an organ called the Friesach organ. As soon as I am able to, I will get the pedalboard finished and we will finally have a full size "organ." Here is a little information about this new instrument:

The organ of St. Bartholomäus church in Friesach was built by Orgelbau Eisenbarth from Passau (Germany) in the year 2000. At first the organ was built as a two manual [a manual is an organist's term for keyboard] instrument with 38 stops [a stop is a knob that typically controls one set of pipes], later the Solowerk (solo work) [a third manual that produces trumpet and horn sounds] was added. Due to its size and sound it counts as one of the most important organs in Carinthia (lower Austria). https://piotrgrabowski.pl/friesach/

I understand that some of this might sound like highly technical organ information, but let me break down how an organ works (granted our organ is electronic, but it is still nice to know about the recording sample that we are using). An organ draws wind either physically or electronically through bellows or a blower sends wind into a wind reservoir that is held like bagpipes until a manual (the keyboard) is operated and the tracker that is connected to a valve opens and sends the wind through the pipe. The pipes themselves are measured most typically in the geometric sequence of the factor of 2. So the pipes in feet can be as follows: 1, 2, 4, 8, 16, 32, 64. Most often, you have pipes from 2 to 16 feet, but larger cathedral organs can have pipes all the way up to 64' and beyond. The key to playing the organ is a) learning how to play a keyboard, and b) learning how to create organ registrations, which are just combinations of different stops (which pipes are operated) at any given time. One also has to learn how to change between the different manuals. For example, when I play a hymn that is meant for congregational singing, I usually will play on the Hauptwerk manual (the great manual … also, as an organist, you have to usually have to know the different terms in either English, French, or German as the different countries developed different styles of organs). For a Psalm, I will play on the Schwellverk (the swell manual) and change in between the manuals when it is just a cantor or the congregation. If you are ever curious about what all of this looks like in practice, please feel free to come and ask me for a demonstration at any time! I hope that as the instrument at St. John's expands, the repertoire will continue to grow all for the glorification of God!

UNDERSTANDING OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

Catholic Traditions and Treasure by Dr. Helen Hoffner

Kitchen Madonnas

A Kitchen Madonna is a painting, plaque or a statue that honors Mary's role as a homemaker. The Kitchen Prayer of the 1950s calls Mary Queen of Our Kitchen. The Kitchen Madonna plaques of the 1960s showed Mary greeting the Christ Child while holding a loaf of bread, inspiring mothers to nurture their children and make their homes warm, welcoming, and comfortable.

The custom of keeping a picture or statue of Mary in the kitchen has been especially popular in areas near Poland and Ukraine. (p. 74)

Compendium Catechism of the Catholic Church USCCB

33. What are the symbols of faith?

The symbols of faith are composite formulas, also called "professions of faith" or "Creeds," with which the Church from her very beginning has set forth synthetically and handed on her own faith in a language that is normative and common to all faithful.

34. What are the most ancient symbols (professions) of faith?

The most ancient symbols of faith are the baptismal creeds. Because Baptism is conferred "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19), the truths of the faith professed at Baptism are articulated in reference to the three Persons of the Most Holy Trinity.

Faith Formation Corner

Sunday Morning

Our last in-person session for this academic year will take place this Sunday, May 9th. Children preparing to receive First Reconciliation and First Communion will be contacted about their continuing formation.

Many thanks to all our families and catechists for their efforts to study, pray, and witness to the Gospel during this challenging year!

Our Director of Religious Education, John Lojewski, welcomes any questions about our program.. You may email him at dre@mountaineercatholic.com

A Red Cross blood drive will be hosted at St. Francis de Sales Catholic Church in Morgantown on Thursday, May 20, from 12:30 to 6:00 PM in the lower level of the church social hall. The need for blood is now critical, so blood donations from both first-time and returning blood donors are needed to maintain a safe and sufficient blood supply. Please call the Red Cross at 1-800-RED-CROSS (or enter the code STFRANCISWV at redcrossblood.org) to schedule an appointment. For questions or to ask about opportunities to help out with the blood drive, call Bob at 304-291-0745.

St. Ursula has a new project!

SHARING GARDEN

St. Ursula food bank is starting a sharing garden this year

They will have a free seed library, some seedings in May when it is time to plant outside, a small herb bed, and containers with tomatoes, peppers, cucumbers, etc. It won't be big enough to have a large harvest, just a chance to get resources into people's hands that are already gardening or interested in learning how. They are also in talks with WVU extension about holding a container garden workshop and with other farms and gardens to get local donations over the summer to help supplement a "harvest box" during distribution.

What's needed:

Seeds Do you have any from your garden from the last few years that you didn't use? We can package them in smaller packs for the library for families.

Seedlings Do you start your own for your garden? Will you have any extras? Do you know any nurseries that would be interested in donating?

Soil Topsoil and amendments are needed to fill containers and herb beds. Do you know anyone who can donate or has a place they can come and pick up in bulk? Compost, topsoil, vermiculite, sand, etc.

Volunteers If you would like to help, please reach out to Jo at 773-550-2777.
