MARCH 28, 2021 PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We continue the work of Jesus Christ, to Unleash the Gospel and help everyone seek and experience the love and mercy of God.

Father Bogdan's Corner

Palm Sunday, also known as Passion Sunday, begins the Holy Week. It is the second Holy Week during the Coronavirus Pandemic. It is the day that we remember and celebrate Jesus' entry to Jerusalem as King and Savior. People of Jerusalem gathered at the road and gave Him the royal treatment. A few days later, the same crowd and Sanhedrin cried out to crucify Him. Minds and hearts are subject to change. One day Jesus was great and another day he was a criminal to be crucified. We must appreciate that the Son of God did not change Himself. He remained for us the King, the Savior, "Redemptor Hominis" and stayed with us in the Eucharist. My parishioners do not allow yourself to become uprooted from Jesus Christ, rich Catholic traditions, and His church that we are proud to be members through the Sacraments of Christian Initiation: Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. Remain under the Cross of Jesus Christ. Look at our beautiful cross in the Sanctuary. His death on the Cross is our victory. Declare that you will follow Resurrected Jesus for the rest of your life. Make Him the Way, the Truth and the Life. But before that, let us suffer with the pain of rejecting sinful life. Venerating or adoring the Holy Cross on Good Friday, (which will be a little different this year due to the pandemic) let us get the strength and determination we need to become a new person and maintain a holy life.

Let us build God's church in our hearts, homes and our country. Let us invite our friends, neighbors, media, politicians, teachers, doctors, and all who feel that there is a God, Creator of the Universe, life and heaven to join us. Holy Saturday – Easter Vigil reminds us about our origin and roots. Let us once again be rooted in Jesus.

You can enter the way of Jesus by works of Mercy. Jesus offers us mercy; St Faustina explained the role of mercy in our lives. We will have Divine Mercy Sunday, April 11th beginning at 12 noon with Adoration. There will be Reconciliation, Divine Mercy Chaplet and Mass will begin at 2 p.m. I have invited all Pastors and their parishioners that will be part of our Family of Parishes, St. Mark, St. Louise de Marillac, St. Mary, Our Lady Queen of Families, St. Anne and Our Lady of Grace Vietnamese Parish to join us for this event. If you are seeking a new way to follow Jesus, first seek His mercy.

Make the most of your Holy Week Journey!

God Bless you,

Fr. Bogdan

COVID-19 Liturgical Directives from Archdiocese of Detroit

1. Holy Communion will not be under two species. It is recommended that you receive Communion in your hand. Please lay your hand flat and do not try to take the host.

2. The exchange of peace continues to be omitted.

3. Masks, social distancing and use of hand sanitizer remains in affect.

4. The water fonts remain empty. Renewal of Baptism Promises and Sprinkling with Holy Water will take place at all the Easter Masses.

5. Hymnals and pew cards remain out of the pews.

6. Palms will be distributed at the door by an usher wearing gloves before the Mass. Keep your palm with you and the blessing will take place during the Mass. No palms will be left out.

7. The Passion of Jesus Christ will be read by the Celebrant and two lectors. No text will be available for the faithful. You will need to listen.

8. There will be no processions this year. When you come into the church you will remain in your seats.

9. There will be no washing of the feet on Holy Thursday. The repose of the Blessed Sacrament will be in the Tabernacle this year until 10 p.m.

10. Only the celebrant may adore the cross by kissing it. There will be no individual veneration of the Cross on Good Friday. You may approach, bow or genuflect without touching or kissing and keep social distance.

11. The Blessing of the Pascal Candle will take place outside and only the priest and altar servers will process in. There will be no individual candles this year.

12. The faithful are permitted and encouraged to sing at these liturgies but must have their mask on.

If you are interested in resuming your role as an Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion or you would like to become one, please call the parish office and leave your name, number and which Mass you attend. We will be making out schedules soon. We will also be having a meeting between the Masses on a Sunday to go over the guidelines that are set by the Archdiocese of Detroit.

If you choose to be in this role, we ask that you dress appropriately when coming to Mass. Thank you for understanding.

First Reading: Is 50:4-7

The Lord GOD has given me
a well-trained tongue,
that I might know how to speak to the weary
a word that will rouse them.
Morning after morning
he opens my ear that I may hear;
and I have not rebelled,
have not turned back.
I gave my back to those who beat me,
my cheeks to those who plucked my beard;
my face I did not shield
from buffets and spitting.

The Lord GOD is my help,
therefore I am not disgraced;
I have set my face like flint,
knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

Responsorial Psalm 22:8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24

R. (2a) My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

All who see me scoff at me;
they mock me with parted lips, they wag their heads:
"He relied on the LORD; let him deliver him,
let him rescue him, if he loves him."

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Indeed, many dogs surround me,
a pack of evildoers closes in upon me;
They have pierced my hands and my feet;
I can count all my bones.

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

They divide my garments among them,
and for my vesture they cast lots.
But you, O LORD, be not far from me;
O my help, hasten to aid me.

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

I will proclaim your name to my brethren;
in the midst of the assembly I will praise you:
"You who fear the LORD, praise him;
all you descendants of Jacob, give glory to him;
revere him, all you descendants of Israel!"

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Second Reading: Phil 2:6-11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God
something to be grasped.
Rather, he emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
coming in human likeness;
and found human in appearance,
he humbled himself,
becoming obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.
Because of this, God greatly exalted him
and bestowed on him the name which is above every name,
that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

Verse Before the Gospel Phil 2:8-9

Christ became obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.
Because of this, God greatly exalted him
and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Report Abuse

The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages individuals to report clergy sexual abuse of minors and others - no matter when the abuse occurred. Individuals may contact local law enforcement authorities and/or they may report to the Archdiocese of Detroit by calling the Victim Assistance Coordinator at (866) 343-8055 or by emailing vac@aod.org. In addition, the Michigan Attorney General's Office can be contacted at its toll-free reporting hotline at (844) 324-3374 or by email at aginvestigations@michigan.gov.

More information about the Archdiocese's efforts to address abuse may be found at protect.aod.org.

Registration

Parishioners may register in person, by phone, or online.

Baptism

At least one parent needs to be registered, active and a practicing Catholic for at least six months. A Baptismal Preparation Class is required for both parents and godparents. The church requires that at least one of the godparents be an active and practicing Catholic. For more information call the Parish Office.

Marriages

Arrange at least six months in advance.

Communion Calls

Pastoral Staff members visit the sick in the hospital when possible and take Communion to the sick and homebound regularly. Names of the sick should be reported to the Parish Office.

If you or someone you know is interested in becoming Catholic, please contact the Parish Office or send an email to stfaustina@comcast.net

St. Faustina is extending a personal invitation to you so that we can help with your spiritual needs.

If you have been baptized and have made your First Holy Communion, please contact Fr. Bogdan to inquire about Confirmation.
