Why We Celebrate Christ The King Today

It is hard to contemplate the world as it existed in 1925. Less than ten years had passed since the end of World War I and most of the world was still reeling from the devastation of that "Great War." It was an incredibly unsettled time. This turmoil was the context in which the rise of fascism took place in Europe. Consider for a moment that it was in 1925 that Joseph Stalin took control of the Soviet Union. It was also in early 1925 that Benito Mussolini disbanded the Italian Parliament and became the dictator of that country. Adolf Hitler, while not yet solidly in control of Germany, was on the rise. It was in 1925 that he published his work, Mein Kampf. In many ways this rise of fascism was accompanied, and made possible, by an anti-Christian, anti-Church sentiment.

So, why the history lesson? Because it was also in 1925 that Pope Pius XI declared that the Church would universally celebrate a new feast on the last Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Feast of Christ the King. Pope Pius XI was an astute observer of the world in which he lived. In his encyclical, Quas Primas, Pope Pius XI makes it clear that this feast was created in direct response to what was happening in the world. He saw a trend growing where Christ was being "excluded from political life, with authority derived not from God but from man." It was the pope's hope that, in celebrating this feast, the Church would be reminded of where authority truly is derived from.

The pope also hoped that this new feast would inspire the faithful. He hoped that, in celebrating it, men and women would be reminded that it is to Christ we owe our fealty and that no earthly power can ever surpass that of his eternal kingship. But it is clear, as is seen in the quote below, that the pope did not see this as a passive, personal submission. Instead, he saw a need for the people of God to stand against the wave of anti-Christian sentiment that had been rising.

"This state of things may perhaps be attributed to a certain slowness and timidity in good people, who are reluctant to engage in conflict or oppose but a weak resistance; thus the enemies of the Church become bolder in their attacks. But if the faithful were generally to understand that it behooves them ever to fight courageously under the banner of Christ their King, then, fired with apostolic zeal, they would strive to win over to their Lord those hearts that are bitter and estranged from him, and would valiantly defend his rights."

Pope Pius XI believed the world of his time needed to be reminded of the primacy and Lordship of Jesus Christ, and that the faithful needed to be inspired to go out into the world in Christ's name, under his kingly banner. With this in mind, It would be safe to say that we still need this feast today, and that we may need it more than ever. The Church in our modern time does not necessarily face the threat of fascism and soviet communism, as it did in 1925, but instead we face the rise of secularism, militant atheism, and radical Islam.

The Liturgy of the Word from Revelation for the Feast of Christ the King reminds us Jesus is ". . . 'the Alpha and the Omega,'… the Lord God, 'the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty.'" Our challenge today is the same as it was in 1925; to live in the Lordship of Jesus Christ and to share the joy of his reign with the world. In the words of Pope Pius XI:

"He must reign in our minds... He must reign in our wills... He must reign in our hearts... He must reign in our bodies... that having lived our lives in accordance with the laws of God's kingdom, we may receive full measure of good fruit, and counted by Christ good and faithful servants, we may be rendered partakers of eternal bliss and glory with him in his heavenly kingdom."

Mass & Slice of Blessings November 25th!

On November 25 (Thanksgiving Eve), we will gather for mass, at 7 pm, to give thanks to God for our countless blessings we have received this past year.

After mass we will all meet in the St. Colette Gathering Space to enjoy a Slice of Pie and some apple cider! It's more important than ever to gather with each other, and to experience God's love through community. Everyone is welcome, so come and kick-off your Thanksgiving with this beautiful St. Colette tradition.

This Weekend! Fellowship After Mass

This weekend, after all masses, refreshments and fellowship returns in the St. Colette Social Area! That means we'll be serving up donuts, bagels, coffee and juice plus, some extra opportunities to spend some quality time with one another. See you there!

Attention Altar Care Workers!

Thank you so much for your work this past year, your work is greatly appreciated! It's time again to prepare the schedule for next year. If you are no longer able to participate in this work, please give me (Alex Luckhardt) a call by December 4th. I will try and keep the dates similar and partners together, if possible. However, it's good to put new people with experienced workers, so I sometimes need to make changes.

Also, I would like to have a list of substitutes for others to call if they are unable to find someone to switch with. If you would like to be included in this, please give me a call.

Finally, if you or someone you know wants to be an altar care member, please reach out to me. Altar Care service does not include vacuuming, only light cleaning like dusting.

Again, thank you for all your help, and may God bless you!

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Where do you encounter Christ as you walk through your day? This is an important question to ask ourselves. Not just where you pray, but do you find Jesus in the beauty of nature, playing with your grandchildren, or in the faces of the people you meet?

This Sunday, we end our liturgical year recognizing that Jesus Christ is King of kings and Lord of our lives. Our entire Church year has led us to this moment. From Advent, and our anticipation of the Messiah; to Christmas, celebrating His birth into our world; to Lent, a time of penance and reparation for our inadequate attempts to love God; to Easter, receiving God's mercy and love as we live in Christ's resurrection, conquering death; to the rest of Ordinary time which leads us through the life and mission of Jesus. Each year we move toward this day which crowns our lives by proclaiming Jesus as King of the Universe. My question to you is how do we honor a king we cannot see or touch?

Our gospel this week gives us direction. Whatever you do to the least of my people that you do to me. Several saints have talked about how we cannot proclaim with our lips that Jesus is lord of our lives if we don't live it out in word and deed to all those we encounter. When we look at the gospel, it is very sobering to notice that those who are separated from the flock off to the left, like goats, are not murderers, rioters, those who attack children, or perpetrators of fraud. The crime for which they are eternally set aside is neglect. They neglected the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the naked, the sick, the prisoner. None of us needs to look too far to see this kind of neediness in our own family, our community, our neighborhood, or our country. The tragic needs of so many people around the world are so great that it can be overwhelming to think of. We can end up deciding that it's all too big for us to handle. But, perhaps the first step is to ask for eyes to see what is close at hand. Eyes to see what it is that I can do for the needs of people as they present themselves to me.

If we are to truly celebrate Jesus Christ as Lord and King then we must be active in every part of our world, being Christ for all those we encounter. We must ask daily, "in what way can I serve Christ the King as he presents himself in the people around me?" We must make it our constant mission. I remain, your servant in Christ, Theresa Lisiecki.
Reflection: Is Jesus Christ your Lord and Savior? Is your life a living testimony to that truth?
Prayer: Help me Jesus to see you in all I encounter.
Family Activity: Whether as a book or a YouTube video, share the story of Martin the Cobbler by Leo Tolstoy with your family and discuss ways you meet Jesus in strangers.

MINI-CATECHISM

We are one week away from the season of Advent, and while the rest of the world has already started celebrating Christmas, as a community of faith we are not meant to be there yet. I realize that social expectations (family, work, school gatherings) force our hand, but that doesn't mean we should completely join the madness! Advent is meant to be a time of reflection and preparation. Like the night long ago, our hearts and lives should slow down, quiet so as to welcome the Christ Child's birth. At Christmas, we celebrate a miracle: The Son of God being born into the world and into our lives. Advent, like preparing our homes for an honored guest, is a season of preparing for that birth. We do that by refocusing our attention away from the secular and towards the holy. In faith, we are called to remember those early believers who prepared the world for Jesus. When we look at the Sunday readings we are drawn to the three intensions of the Advent season. We recognize those ancient saints who lived their faith, and in doing so, readied the world for Jesus' first coming. We prepare for Jesus to come again at the end of time. Yes, Christ is coming again, and we refresh our efforts to fix our lives. We rejoice in a God who loves us so much as to send His only Son to bring about our salvation. This is what the season of Advent is meant to be about.

Advent begins the fourth Sunday before December 25th. This year with Christmas falling on a Friday, it gives us almost four full-weeks. We could fill it with all sorts of activities, both spiritual and secular, but, as we said, Advent is a time to slow down. It is a season of hope, a time to nurture peace and experience joy in anticipation for the love that is made incarnate with the birth of Jesus. Keep this purpose ever in mind as you make your plans to prepare for Christmas, and start your planning now. Everything will make sense or become senseless in relation to this purpose. If baking cookies helps you achieve this purpose, bake away. Sitting quietly on a park bench, taking long walks in quiet places, visiting your church each day, reading, singing, serving others...whatever it is that helps you achieve the purpose of Advent, give yourself to those.

If you are new to the season of Advent, want a refresher or would like a resource to introduce older children, consider checking out Fr. Mike Schmitz's YouTube videos; Ascension Presents, "The True Meaning of Advent;" or Busted Halo's, "Advent in 2 Minutes." Looking for something meatier? A sincere word of thanks to all who donated to the November Food Drive! Word of Life

"An old Irish proverb says, 'It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.' Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how best to 'shelter' them. Here are some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them: usccb.org/end-of-life-care."

Welcome to Our New Brothers!

The Dr. Thomas A. Dooley Knights of Columbus Council would like to extend a warm welcome to our newest members! Earlier this year, we welcomed Fernando Palazzo, Joe Beardsley, and Matt Pauley into our Council. More recently, we were pleased to welcome Patrick Greener, Jim Himes, and Shane Miller. We are proud to have you join our brotherhood of Catholic men, dedicated to faith, family, fellowship, and service. We look forward to working alongside you as we continue serving St. Colette Parish and our surrounding communities. Welcome aboard, Brothers!

A Heartfelt Thank You!

Once again, the Dr. Thomas A. Dooley Knights of Columbus Council would like to express our heartfelt gratitude to the generous parishioners of St. Colette. Your kindness and continued support have made this year's Baby Bottle Drive another tremendous success. Although the final tabulation is still underway, early figures indicate that we will exceed last year's total! Your generosity makes a real difference in the lives of women who have made the decision to have their babies, but need the support of others. On behalf of the Knights, thank you for opening your hearts and showing what it means to put our faith into action.
