MUSIC & PRAYERS FOR March 21st THE 5th SUNDAY IN LENT

Opening Hymn: Jerusalem, My Destiny

Refrain: I have fixed my eyes on your hills, Jerusalem, my destiny! Though I cannot see the end for me, I cannot turn away. We have set our hearts for the way; this journey is our destiny, let no one walk alone. The journey makes us one.

1. Other spirits, lesser gods, have courted me with lies. Here among you I have found a truth which bids me rise. (Refrain)
2. See, I leave the past behind; a new land calls to me. Here among you now I find a glimpse of what might be. (Refrain)
3. In my thirst, you let me drink the waters of your life. Here among you I have met the savior, Jesus Christ. (Refrain)

Kyrie: Kyrie eleison, Christie eleison, Kyrie eleison.

Responsorial Psalm: "Create a clean heart in me, O God. Create a clean heart in me."

Nicene Creed: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, True God from True God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, Catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Hymn of Preparation: Take Up Your Cross

1. Take up your cross, the Savior said, if you would my disciples be; take up your cross with wiling heart, and humbly follow after me.
2. Take up your cross, let not its weight fill your weak spirit with alarm; his strength shall bear your spirit up, and brace your heart and nerve your arm.
3. Take up your cross, heed not the shame, and let your foolish heart be still; the Lord for you accepted death upon a cross, on Calv'ry's hill.

Communion Hymn: Seed, Scattered and Sown

Refrain: See, scattered and sown, wheat, gathered and grown, bread, broken and shared as one, the Living Bread of God. Vine, fruit of the land, wine, work of our hands, one cup that is shared by all; the Living Cup, the Living Bread of God.

1. Is not the bread we break a sharing in our Lord? Is not the cup we bless the blood of Christ outpoured? (Refrain)
2. The seed which falls on rock will wither and will die. The seed within good ground will flower and have life.
   (Refrain)
3. As wheat upon the hills was gathered and was grown, so may the church of God be gathered into one. (Refrain)

Closing Hymn: Change Our Hearts

Refrain: Change our hearts this time, Your Word says it can be. Change our minds, this time, Your life could make us free. We are the people Your call set a part, Lord, this time change our hearts.

1. Brought by your hand to the edge of our dreams, one foot in paradise, one in the waste. Drawn by your promises, still we are lured by the shadows and the chains we leave behind. But (Refrain)
2. Now as we watch you stretch out your hands, of'fring abundances, fullness of joy. Your milk and honey seem distant, unreal, when we have bread and water in our hands. But (Refrain)

RESPONDING to the Call

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

When Our Own Hour Comes

We parents know that it's tricky, tackling the topic of fear with our kids. We want them to know that it's okay to be scared, that it's something we all feel from time to time. We want them to understand that bravery isn't the absence of fear, but the choices we make in persevering despite that feeling.

Most of all, we want to model the right kind of behavior for our kids. Whatever our scary situation is — illness, a job loss, life changes — we want them to see us make a choice to face that fear head-on.

Jesus seems to be the parent who is gently broaching the topic of fear with his children. A great sense of foreboding hangs over these readings. Jesus knew what was coming. He knew it was going to be hard, both for him and for his followers, who did not have his courage. Even he admits to being "troubled" and he speaks of "the time of judgment." There is the dramatic raising of Lazarus, the talk of how a grain of wheat must die in order to bear fruit, the depiction of Christ as an obedient student of his own suffering.

"Yet what should I say?" he asks them. "'Father, save me from this hour?' But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour."

This week, Christ gives us a very parental gift: He shows us his fear, and he shows us how to conquer it. He challenges us to embrace the purpose for which we came to this hour — whatever that hour may hold.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
Catholic Life Explained:

Question:
What is spiritual communion, and do you need to be in a state of grace to receive it?

Answer:
The practice of making a "spiritual communion" dates back several centuries and St. Thomas Aquinas described it as "an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Holy Sacrament and a loving embrace as though we had already received Him." Traditionally, a prayer of spiritual communion has been used by those who are unable to receive sacramental communion because of health, inability to attend Mass, or who cannot receive communion because of grave sin. This practice has been encouraged by many saints and spiritual writers and most recently Pope Francis encouraged the practice when the realities of the COVID-19 pandemic prevented so many Catholics from taking part in the Mass or receiving sacramental communion.
Although the graces offered in spiritual communion are not the same as those offered in the sacramental communion of the Mass, this practice is still a powerful opportunity to express our desire for union with the Lord and to be united with Christ and the Church, even in an imperfect way.

The Knights of Columbus Father Ging Council will be conducting their annual MI (Tootsie Roll) Drive the weekend of March 26-28, 2021.You will see them with their new blue vests and friendly smiles (under the masks) at a few selected businesses around town and after the weekend Masses at St. Anne Church. All of the donations go to citizens with intellectual-developmental disabilities, with 80% of the funds collected staying in our community (Club Create North Oakland County, SCAMP, and Brandon Schools Special Education),

Please be generous as these funds are greatly needed.
