SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON Ps 27 (26): 7-9

O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you;
of you my heart has spoken: Seek his face;
hide not your face from me, alleluia.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen

GLORIA Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Reading I Acts 1:15-17, 20a, 20c-26

Peter stood up in the midst of the brothers —there was a group of about one hundred and twenty persons in the one place —.
He said, "My brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand through the mouth of David, concerning Judas, who was the guide for those who arrested Jesus.
He was numbered among us and was allotted a share in this ministry.
"For it is written in the Book of Psalms:
May another take his office.
"Therefore, it is necessary that one of the men who accompanied us the whole time the Lord Jesus came and went among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day on which he was taken up from us, become with us a witness to his resurrection."
So they proposed two, Judas called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias.
Then they prayed,
"You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this apostolic ministry from which Judas turned away to go to his own place."
Then they gave lots to them, and the lot fell upon Matthias, and he was counted with the eleven apostles.

Responsorial Psalm 103:1-2, 11-12, 19-20

R. The Lord has set his throne in heaven.

Bless the LORD, O my soul;
and all my being, bless his holy name.
Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits.

R. The Lord has set his throne in heaven.

For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so surpassing is his kindness toward those who fear him.
As far as the east is from the west,
so far has he put our transgressions from us.
R. The Lord has set his throne in heaven.

The LORD has established his throne in heaven, and his kingdom rules over all.
Bless the LORD, all you his angels, you mighty in strength, who do his bidding.
R. The Lord has set his throne in heaven.

Reading II 1 Jn 4:11-16

Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another.
No one has ever seen God.
Yet, if we love one another, God remains in us,
and his love is brought to perfection in us.
This is how we know that we remain in him and he in us, that he has given us of his Spirit.
Moreover, we have seen and testify that the Father sent his Son as savior of the world.
Whoever acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God,
God remains in him and he in God.
We have come to know and to believe in the love God has for us.
God is love, and whoever remains in love remains in God and God in him.

Gospel Jn 17:11b-19

Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying:
"Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are one.
When I was with them I protected them in your name that you gave me, and I guarded them, and none of them was lost except the son of destruction, in order that the Scripture might be fulfilled.
But now I am coming to you.
I speak this in the world
so that they may share my joy completely.
I gave them your word, and the world hated them, because they do not belong to the world
any more than I belong to the world.
I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the evil one.
They do not belong to the world
any more than I belong to the world.
Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth.

As you sent me into the world,
so I sent them into the world.
And I consecrate myself for them, so that they also may be consecrated in truth."

Nicene Creed
I believe in one God,
the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

An Act of Spiritual Communion
My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Holy Eucharist. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

O Sacrament Most Holy, O Sacrament Divine, all praise and all thanksgiving be every moment Thine (3 times)

An Invocation to Saint Michael, the Archangel
In the name of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, we kneel humbly before your majesty, O God Almighty, and implore you to send us Saint Michael that he may rescue us in our adversity. Saint Michael, prince of the heavenly host, come to us! We call out to you with all our hearts! We place ourselves and our communities, our families and our parishes, our country, and the entire world under your very special protection.

May God create Saints among us! May He send us many priests! And through them, O saintly archangel, bring about the triumph of the Church in the battle that is waged against the demons of hell.

By virtue of the Holy Spirit, establish the reign of Christ in our country and in the entire world, so that peace may be secured forever. Amen.

Seventh Sunday of Easter

Reflections on Families of Parishes

Part 11: The Good Habit of Apostolic Boldness (UTG Reference)

A report goes forth through all the earth, their messages, to the ends of the world.
Psalm 19:5

"A quality that stood out among the early Christians was their boldness in proclaiming the Gospel, even in the face of hostility and persecution (cf. Acts 4:29, 31; 28:31). They did not hesitate to proclaim Jesus as the one Savior whom God offers to the whole human race, and to call their listeners to repentance and conversion. Their boldness was not a human personality trait, but a result of their intimate union with Christ (cf. Acts 4:13}." Unleash the Gospel

We are blessed in this country that we are free to practice our faith as we choose. This is not true everywhere in the world. Many of our brother priests have given their lives for the Lord and his Church - some are in prison for professing their Catholic faith today. The apostolic boldness which they have exhibited is truly awe inspiring.

But apostolic boldness is a trait that we nonetheless need to embrace, most especially in times of stress and change. We need look no further than our experience with the pandemic in 2020 to see that apostolic boldness is needed, as so many of us had to stretch ourselves far beyond what we know and love in order to bring the faith to others. Many of us had to learn how to use online tools such as livestreaming, had to learn about personal protective equipment so that we could visit the sick, had to learn more than we ever imagined about how to safely and yet licitly provide the sacraments.

Families will require apostolic boldness as well, and those who embrace it will be satisfied and rewarded. Apostolic boldness is an antidote to fear and anxiety, both of which can easily be brought on by a change as profound as families.

In becoming a priest, you have already proven that you are quite capable of apostolic boldness. You have radically given your life in service of the Lord. The move to Families will require that all of us reach into that apostolic boldness so that we can make the change with confidence and joy.

Reflection: Acts 4:13

Observing the boldness of Peter and John and perceiving them to be uneducated, ordinary men, they were amazed, and they recognized them as the companions of Jesus.

Have a prayer-filled week,

Fr. Douglas Bignall

Confirmation is a divine action, the work of the Spirit empowering a person 'born through water and the Spirit' to 'live as a faithful disciple of Jesus Christ'." On May 8th, Bishop Fisher, assisted by Fr. Douglas Bignall and Dcn. Dennis, confirmed 17 of St. Hubert's students during Sacrament of Confirmation at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Detroit. May the gifts of the Holy Spirit strengthen them and make them witnesses of Christ's love. May they always live their life with faith and joy. Please keep them in your prayers as they take the next step of their faith journey.

A note of thanks to all who assisted in making our Confirmation a success. Thank you to Catherine Huhn, Guy Petrucci and Jim Smith for your devoted service. Thank you to Bill Russell and Judy Breitenbucher for their musical talents. Thank you to Emily Kinney and Susan Silich for proclaiming God's word through the readings. We are extremely grateful for all of you. Nicole Fournier

Pentecost Means RED

As in past years, we ask that you bring a red (or white) plant with you when you come to church on Pentecost Sunday on May 23rd. We will then plant the flowers in St. Hubert's gardens.
Thank you in advance! Shelly Buckman

This is CSA Weekend!

Thank you to those of you who have already mailed your CSA pledge cards as this ensures we Fuel the Mission to witness Christ.

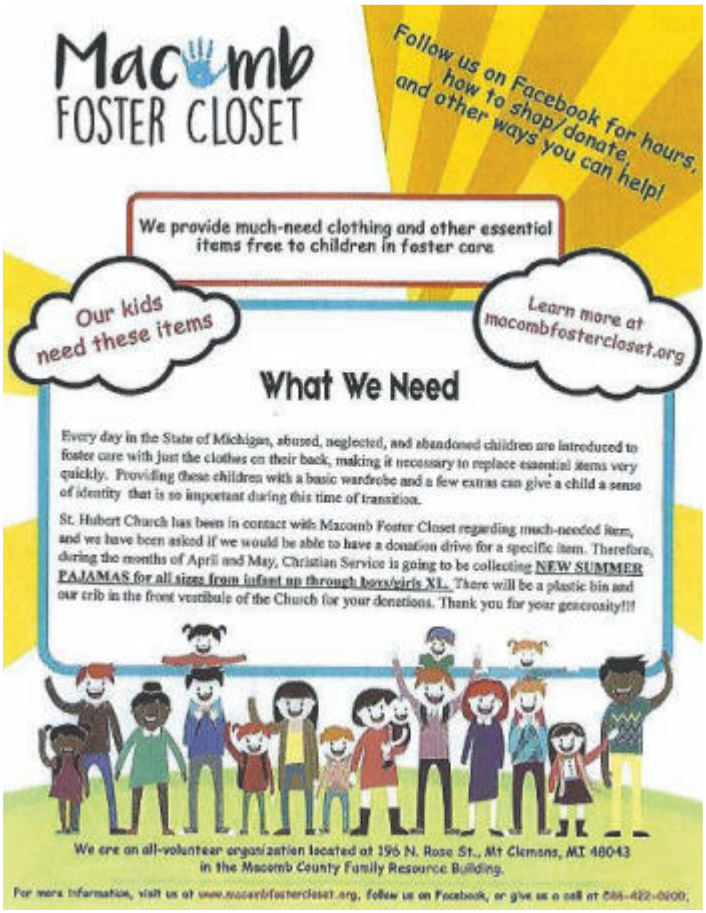
Fr Doug is asking all parishioners to join him in contributing to this year's Catholic Services Appeal. If we all give, we will easily meet St. Hubert's 2021 CSA target of $92,031, which is our parish share of the support of more than 170 CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services.

Any gifts we receive over our target will be returned to our parish in full. If, however, we do not meet this target, we will have to make up the shortfall from our general fund.

If you are still prayerfully considering your CSA pledge, you may mail your completed pledge card in the pre-addressed envelope that was provided you. You may also pledge your gift to our parish's campaign online at givecsa.org.

This weekend CSA packets are available in the Gathering Space for you to pick up. If you are not currently attending Mass in person, please leave a message for Lynn in the Rectory at 463-5877, extension 101, and a packet will be mailed out to you.

Christian Service



There will be cement work being done this week at St. Hubert that you may encounter entering/exiting church and the activity center. Please watch your step!

Memorial Day

There will not be a Mass at St. Hubert on Memorial Day. St. Louis will have a 9:00 AM Mass that day.

Parish Offices will be closed Monday, May 31st for the holiday

Class of 2021 Graduate Mass

Saturday, June 5th – 5:00pm Mass

Congratulations! What an accomplishment! St. Hubert Parish wants to celebrate with our high school and college graduates and mark this important milestone. We send our prayers and encouragement as you move ahead into new endeavors.

You, your family, and friends are invited to a special Mass for the graduating class of 2021 on Saturday June 5th at 5:00pm. We ask that you wear your cap and gown and any medals, ropes, and pins you received.

In addition, we'd like to recognize all of the graduates with a special tribute in the Beacon. If you are planning on attending, please complete and drop off the form below and include a photo of your grad, to the Faith Formation Office or rectory mail slot (attn: Nicole) as soon as possible.

How many of you know what a Timothy Award is?

For those that don't know, it is an award recognizing young people in grades 9-12 who exemplify leadership, Christian service and commitment to their parishes, families, school, and civic communities. St. Hubert and the AOD celebrates and acknowledges 6 high school students from our parish for their faith in action. Sadly, due to Covid restrictions, the in-person ceremony that would have honored hundreds of students throughout our region, was cancelled. The staff at St. Hubert will praise and observe their "going the extra mile" to serve our faith community on May 16th during the 11:30 mass. Please help us congratulate:

Max Godin
(LCHS, 12)

Alexandra Gulisano
(LCHS, 11)

Moira Periappuram
(LCHS, 11)

Justin Piejak
(LCHS-N,11)

Paige Schornak
(LCHS, 12)

Abbi Starkweather
(LCHS, 11)

These young men and women have shown great dedication to St. Hubert and their community this past year by volunteering their time as Faith Formation catechist aides. With youth like this representing our future, things sure look bright. If you should see one of these young women during mass, let them know how awesome they are. Congratulations, and thank you for your dedication to our parish. Nicole Fournier

Called to Serve

Called to Serve© is an interactive workshop for high school teens. The program is designed to guide, empower and encourage teens to promote and model safe and nurturing behavior in their jobs, service and volunteer roles within their schools, parishes and the greater community. Many places of businesses require the Called to Serve workshop to be completed in order to volunteer with them. This workshop is a 3 hour presentation where they will learn to recognize appropriate behavior and understand physical, emotional and behavioral boundaries, particularly in relation to their work with younger children.

ALL 2020-2021 CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES and CURRENT 9TH-11TH GRADERS SHOULD REGISTER FOR THIS CLASS.

LOCATION: FR. BOROWSKI ACTIVITY CENTER

DATE: SATURDAY, JUNE 19, 2021

TIME: 9:00a – 12:00p

There is no cost to attend. Continental breakfast will be provided. Parent permission is required. You MUST pre-register with Nicole Fournier at the FF office at 586-463-5875 or email nfourniershff@gmail.com.

DEADLINE FOR REGISTRATION IS JUNE 2nd

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

When Jesus was physically with his disciples, he guarded and protected them. One of his greatest desires was that they share his joy completely. God's love is the source of all things and their sustenance. As we conduct the normal routines of our lives it is easy to get caught up in the immediacies of this world and lose focus. We become very self and worldly dependent, forgetting that God wishes to guard and protect us. The joy the resurrected Christ can offer cannot be found in this world. It takes a bit of faith to realize that God's will is a constant in our lives and that God desires only the sustenance and goodness of both our bodies and our souls. We need to trust in God's constant and rejuvenating love. This radical resurrection trust allows us to experience the joy of God's presence in all of the good and the bad, positive and negative, life building and life destructive events that we encounter. God remains where love remains.

Christian Service

Dear Parishioners,

I know Mother's Day has passed, but the need and the offer have not. Please consider donating to MCREST'S "MOMS FOR MOMS" fundraiser now through May 31, 2021. CHRISTIAN FINANCIAL CREDIT UNION will generously match all gifts through May 31—up to $10,000! If you have any questions by please contact April L. Fidler, CEO, MCREST at (586) 586.415.5101.

Joan Schmidt
Christian Service Coordinator

On Mother's Day, we honor the women who kissed our skinned knees and wiped our tears. Who were there for every birthday, every holiday, the fabric that knit our families together.

We honor the women who taught us how to be mothers.

This Mother's Day, you have the power to give back and create a warm and caring temporary home for mothers experiencing homelessness and their children by helping MCREST furnish our new women and children's shelter with necessities like blankets, children's books and toys, and cookware for preparing nourishing meals.

Pay tribute to your mom this Mother's Day by helping a fellow mother experiencing homelessness. Give today in honor of that special woman in your life and MCREST will celebrate her with a special Moms for Moms keepsake certificate.

Simply enter your honoree's name and street address in the notes section of your donation. We will mail a frameable certificate in your name.

This Mother's Day, send a little extra love to mom along with the gift of comfort and compassion to mothers and children experiencing homelessness. Every gift given will help twice as many mothers and children.

Thank you,

April L. Fidler
