from the PASTOR

For many years, in many of the homilies I've given, I've challenged parishioners to grow as disciples of the Lord Jesus. Of course, discipleship involves far more than simply "believing", i.e., giving intellectual assent to a set of doctrines. True discipleship is indicated when the belief has translated into action for the Lord.

Discipleship expresses itself in four key areas: PRAYER and gathering to worship; NURTURING FAMILY and other important relationships; FINANCES (using our money the way the Lord intends); and SERVICE. In our efforts to grow in each of these areas, we discover more and more what it means to truly follow the Lord. But we are called not only to "follow" the Lord, we are also called to SHARE Christ with others. The Good News is too good to just keep it to ourselves! (That's called evangelism.) In short, we are called to be a joyful band of missionary disciples!

Ultimately, Christianity and discipleship is not about a set of doctrines to be learned and rules to be obeyed, it's about a Lord to be loved. And that love leads us to action and a desire to share the Good News of Christ with others.

With that in mind, and since today is the Feast of Christ the King, I urge you, today, to make at least ONE decision about some area of your life where you could become a better disciple, and pledge to the King that you will act on that decision. (It's almost like making a new year's resolution! That makes sense since next Sunday is the first Sunday of Advent, which begins a new "Church" year.)

We are also reminded in the Scriptures that the world, as we know it, will inevitably pass away, and that catastrophes will precede that passage. Sometimes I'm tempted to think that the Lord must be coming soon, because our lives seem filled with catastrophe—or at least we seem to be constantly moving from chaos to chaos. But as disciples, even when we find ourselves living in stressful situations, our lives remain focused on the coming Reign of God, and that's not bad. In fact, we welcome it! It's no longer chaos when we allow Jesus, our King, to be in

St. Vincent de Paul Society

Christ the King

Today as we celebrate Christ the King, we hear Jesus say: "…whatever you did for one of the least brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

Know that the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring your gift directly to the poor and suffering in our parish.

The "One-Hour Challenge!"

To have a happy, peaceful life, it is important that we have our lives in order, with our grateful response to God for his gifts being our top priority. That is how a disciple responds in the areas of prayer, family, finance, and service.

If you need help to put balance in your life, take the "one-hour challenge": Each week, spend at least…

- One hour in prayer and worship.
- One hour, special, focused on your family or other important relationship.
- One hour's wage (if you have a job) for the Lord. No job? Then give what seems right for you.
- One hour in service. (Helping another, or working for some cause.)

It's important to be specific in what steps to take in order to ensure that each "hour" actually happens!

May God bless you!

charge of our lives. And as disconcerting as it may be to Modern Man, we all must eventually admit that our lives are not our own, and each of us will have to give an accounting of ourselves before the Lord. The question for us will be whether we have truly been disciples—or not.

Again, a disciple is more than one who simply "believes". We translate that belief into action. In doing that, we discover that we can have peace in our lives even when challenged by sufferings or other stresses. For example, we don't need to panic about wars, or declining morality in our country, or the economy, or political turmoil, or whether the world will end tomorrow rather than in the distant future. Instead, the struggles we face as families, as a parish, or even as a nation, when viewed in the perspective of our own inevitable deaths and the world's end (and Christ's coming), should lead us to resolve to be good and faithful stewards every day, looking forward eagerly to the Master's return.

Each liturgical year is called "a Year of Grace", so, next weekend, we begin "The Year of Grace, 2027". I pray that it truly will be a year of grace for you, as you and I become, more and more, the disciples we are called to be. Through gracious hospitality, both in our parish and in our homes, may we welcome others to join us in knowing Jesus Christ, our King.

In Jesus,
Fr. Michael

P.S. St. Paul had no problem asking people to respond to financial appeals, and over the years I've found myself more and more comfortable addressing our responsibility as disciples to appropriately support the work of the Church. The stewardship of finances is one that we all would do well to start taking more seriously, because it actually impacts the other elements of discipleship more than we might think. "Giving" often gets short shrift in the Catholic Church, in part because cynics push the belief that financial appeals by the Church are actually attempts to wheedle us out of our money, money that we'd really rather spend on ourselves. Disciples realize that it's not OUR money! Everything of value is from God! And as stewards of HIS money, our job is to decide where he wants us to spend it for the buildup of his kingdom. Then we give gladly, not grudgingly, as St. Paul says. (2 Cor 9:7)

When deciding on practical steps that you can take on your journey of discipleship, I urge you to pray about this one, and see where the Lord leads you. God bless.

A Journey From Heartache to Peace:
How Christ Led Me Home Through St. William Parish

Gina Pattison

For many years, my life looked perfect from the outside—almost like living in Disneyland every day. I had a loving husband, and after 15 years of marriage we had a beautiful child. I had a large and joyful family, wonderful friends, and a level of comfort and success that should have made my heart full. Yet even amidst all these blessings, my heart always had a deep ache, a sense that something essential was missing.

Then, without warning, my life changed completely. I found myself a single mother raising my son alone. One Sunday I decided that instead of attending Mass at our home parish, we would attend Mass at St. William, a church I had discovered one day while passing by. The minute I knelt in the pew a peace washed over me. During Father Michael's homily, I knew that God had sent us to our new spiritual home. It was the first time in years my heart felt truly still.

As I continued attending Mass, I began to feel a peaceful inner whisper. I signed up for the Search program, and during the first Search session, I began to cry, I knew God was asking me for more. At a later session, Deacon Mike sat beside me in the front row - my usual spot, so no one would see me cry. I gathered the courage to ask him how I could join an order. He asked if I meant a Third Order; I didn't even know what a First or Second Order was, let alone a Third. Soon after, I met with Deacon Mike, and with the information and encouragement he gave me, I prayed and discerned if this was what God intended for me. After attending St. William's Discovering Your Gifts program, I learned that many of my gifts aligned with Franciscan spirituality. After continued discernment, I knew God was calling me toward the Franciscan Secular Third Order.

Within one month I began orientation with the St. Louis the King fraternity, and shortly thereafter began inquiry. During this time, I began attending St. William Bible studies, other events, and eventually started ushering. My heart is finally at peace, trusting that God will always provide for me, as Jesus said, "Your Father knows what you need" (Matthew 6:8).

On August 13 of 2026 I made my permanent commitment through the Rite of Profession in the Franciscan Secular Third Order.

Vincentians Make Other People's Problems Their Problems

Every person walking through the doors of St. William's carries a cross. We all face our own set of private struggles—health worries, financial anxieties, family difficulties, or personal burdens that keep us awake at night. Dealing with our own problems is hard enough. It takes strength, faith, and patience. But what defines our beautiful Catholic community is what happens next.

Inspired by the example of St. Vincent de Paul, our volunteers and dedicated parishioners voluntarily ask to assist with our neighbors' problems. They don't ignore their own difficulties; instead, they choose to take on the burdens of others—the local family facing eviction, the senior who can't afford groceries, or the neighbor recovering from an unexpected crisis. This is the heart of the Vincentian call: we step into the breach and make someone else's crisis our temporary, shared concern, not just as an act of human compassion, but as an act of profound love for God.

This Thanksgiving, let us reflect on the ultimate instruction given to us by Christ himself. He reminds us that at the end of time, He will judge us not merely by our faith, but by whether we showed active love and mercy to those in need. He promises us this eternal truth: "Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40).

The neighbor who needs assistance is Christ in disguise. When we give shelter, food, and comfort, we are serving our Lord directly. Our annual Thanksgiving Day Collection is how the entire St. William community participates in this divine solution. It is the fuel that allows our Vincentian ministry to continue turning the problems of others into moments of grace and assistance.

As you know, the Thanksgiving Day Collection is generously dedicated by our Parish to our St. Vincent de Paul organization. Although we encourage all of our Parishioners to attend our beautiful Thanksgiving Day Mass Celebration, we realize that not all can be there. Therefore, as we have done for many years, envelopes will be made available in the pews on the Sunday before Thanksgiving that you can return at the Thanksgiving Day Mass or on the following Sunday during the regular collection.

As you plan your holiday generosity, please consider offering a sacrificial gift to this collection. By supporting this fund, you are choosing to make our neighbors' struggles your own, and in doing so, you are choosing to walk the path of mercy that leads us to Christ.

We hope that all of our Parishioners and their families have a wonderful holiday season!.

An Important Update Regarding Donation Checks to St. Vincent de Paul

Please update the payee line on future check donations to St. Vincent de Paul.

We are incredibly grateful for your continued generosity and support of our St. Vincent de Paul chapter. Thanks to donors like you, they are able to fulfill their mission in our community.

Due to an upcoming change in accounting guidelines, and because St. Vincent de Paul is a stand-alone organization, we have been asked to update how donations to St. Vincent de Paul are received at our parish.

Moving forward, please make all check donations payable directly to St. Vincent de Paul instead of combining these donations with your offering. You may still put the check to them in your Sunday envelope along with your offertory check.

What you need to know:
New Payee Name: St. Vincent de Paul
Effective Date: Immediately
Mailing Address: Unchanged

If you have already sent a check written to St. William on their behalf, don't worry! We are still processing those during this transition period. However, updating your records for future donations will prevent any potential processing delays.

Not only will this change allow us to comply with new accounting guidelines, but St. Vincent de Paul will receive your donation even faster because they will not have to wait for a parish check to be written to pass along your donation!

If you have any questions or need assistance, please feel free to reach out to Deb Diviny at (248) 624-1421 or ddiviny@stwilliam.com.

Thank you for your understanding, your flexibility, and your investment in our community!

The Giving Trees are up in the Tower Entrances filled with many tags. Please pick a tag to help the less fortunate have a Merry Christmas. Please note, the tags indicate a DUE DATE when the gifts must be returned. If you have any questions, please contact Karen Sommers at 248-624-8870.

Do You Know…

… that on November 25th the Church honors the virgin martyr Saint Catherine of Alexandria?

According to accounts of her life, Saint Catherine was a convert to Christianity who lived in Alexandria, Egypt, during the fourth century. Catherine was a beautiful young woman, the daughter of wealthy and noble parents. She was a virgin, and like many of the early women martyrs, intended to remain unmarried, as a spouse of Jesus.

When Catherine was eighteen years old, she learned of the persecution of Christians by the Roman Emperor Maxentius and went to see him about this great injustice. She spoke to him about the truth of Christianity and the falseness of the pagan gods.

Maxentius asked fifty of the greatest philosophers to engage her in a debate. Guided by the Holy Spirit, Catherine presented her arguments with such clarity that they realized what she said was true and were converted to Christianity. The emperor was greatly angered by the philosophers becoming Christians and ordered them to be executed. He had Catherine scourged and sent to prison.

Maxentius' wife and the general of the army went to visit Catherine in prison. During their visit, Catherine spoke with them about God and Christianity, and they were converted. They, too, were executed. He then commanded that Catherine be killed on a spiked wheel, but as soon as she was placed on it, the wheel fell apart. Catherine was martyred by being beheaded.

Saint Catherine of Alexandria and some other saints were removed from the Church's calendar in 1969 because few historical facts were known about them. As their stories were retold through the centuries, people added to them, and they became more like legends than biographies. Nevertheless, the essential fact remains…these holy people existed and became saints. In 2002, Saint John Paul II returned Saint Catherine to the Church's calendar.

Saint Catherine's body is buried on Mount Sinai, at a Coptic Orthodox monastery named after her. There is a tradition that says angels carried Saint Catherine's body to Mount Sinai.

She is a patron of philosophers, scholars, and single women. She is also one of the Fourteen Holy Helpers—saints whose intercession was considered particularly helpful, especially during the time of the Black Plague.

Faith Step: Consider Saint Catherine of Alexandria's story and pray for us, for our Church, and for our nation.

Kid's Corner

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

All the nations will be gathered before him.

Sharing the Gospel

Share food with the hungry. Give clothes to the poor. Visit people who are sick. Share the good news about Jesus with people who have made bad choices. Jesus came to forgive them. God will see the loving things you do. He will reward you one day in heaven.

Prayer

God, help me to share what you have given to me.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of yourself visiting someone in the hospital.

Mission for the Week

Read Matthew chapter 25, verses 31 through 46 with your family. Decide how you will make a difference. Share as Jesus asks.
