Dear Parishioners,
This weekend and the coming week are packed with truly significant days in the Catholic Liturgical Calendar. We start with All Hallows Eve, or as we Americans refer to it now as "Halloween". Long before we started carving pumpkins and finding the perfect costume, the Church decided to celebrate the eve or vigil of All Saints Day. In fact, instead of dressing up as Spiderman, children would create and wear costumes of their favorite saint. Normally, All Saints Day is a Holy Day of Obligation. This year, the requirement is dispensed because it falls on a Monday and All Hallows Eve, or the Vigil of this great feast is on a Sunday. However, that should not serve as an excuse for not attending Mass on Monday. All Saints Day is a truly significant holiday in the Catholic Church because we are honoring the example set for us by some truly amazing human beings who, in cases of the great martyrs of the Church, willingly gave their lives for their faith. They literally lived the Gospel we hear this Sunday where we are called to love God with all of our heart, mind and soul. For our parents out there, have you purchased a book of saints for your children to read? The story of the saints are much more exciting – and real, than any of the stories involving fictional super heroes or addictive video games such a Fortnight. If you crack open a book of Saints, there you will be with Saint Joan of Arc as she endures burning at the stake for her belief that God has spoken to her. A few pages earlier you will have seen seemingly countless martyrs in the Roman arena being consumed by lions and surprisingly, not being afraid because their certainty in salvation was so strong. It's funny how we will give our children I-Phones with more computer capacity than the Apollo space program could muster but we don't bother to invest in a book of saints. If you haven't done so yet, I suggest you pick up a great book of saints from Amazon or a Catholic bookstore. Your children will thank you.

On 2 November we celebrate All Souls Day – the very special commemoration of the dearly departed souls of those we love. Other than Christmas and Easter, this is my favorite day on the Christian calendar because we get the opportunity to attend Mass dedicated solely to our relatives who have gone to God before us. So, if you have lost your Mom or Dad, Grandma or Grandpa, come to Mass and afterwards take a few minutes to bring flowers to their graves. Very commonly, Catholics who lose a loved one feel utterly helpless, but they seemingly forget that as the living, we possess the unlimited and enormous power of prayer. We can pray for the early departure of one of our loved one's from Purgatory to Heaven. The Mass is the highest form of prayer, so why not join your Pastor and your Associate Pastor for All Souls Day Mass at 7:00 Tuesday evening? You won't regret it.

Finally, I want to welcome our new Pastoral Assistant and Director of Staff, Jill Barrett to our team. Jill is a total rockstar, a financial and administrative wizard who formerly served as business manager at Saint Joseph parish in Lake Orion. Jill is a daughter of this parish, having received all of her Sacraments of Initiation here. Jill will be filling the position formerly held by Sheila Roy. Her portfolio will embrace the administrative side of our very expansive enterprise that is Saint Peter Parish and Saint Mary School. She will be concentrating on streamlining our processes and making sure that we are operating on all cylinders. Congratulations on the new position Jill and welcome aboard.
I want to take a moment to thank Moira Shaum for the unparalleled work she has done to keep the ship Continued on pg 2

Please join us for Mass on
All Saints Day, Monday, November 1st
8:00 AM, 12:00 Noon & 7:00 PM
All Souls Day, Tuesday, November 2nd
8:00 AM & 7:00 PM

afloat since July along with our very talented Associate Pastor, Fr. Christopher. Of course, (and thank heavens) Moira will be continuing on with her fantastic work as our business manager. She enjoys nothing less than my full confidence in that most sensitive position. However, now that Jill has arrived, Moira will no longer have to serve as Chief Engineer, banker, chief bottle washer and simply put, Mrs. Everything along with her own job. Thanks Moira, along with the rest of our amazing crew for getting us through a challenging transition.

I have now been here a month, and I cannot adequately articulate how impressed I am with our staff and faculty at the parish office and at our super star school. We are truly blessed to have so much talent and I am a very lucky Pastor to be surrounded by such a splendid team. They work long hours for far less than you can imagine. When you see a member of our staff or one of our teachers, do me a favor and say thanks.

One last thing, we need turkeys and all the trimmings once again for our friends at Saint Vincent DePaul. As you all know, our partners at Saint Vincent help those who are truly in need. I am asking each of you who are able to step up once again and help the needy have a wonderful Thanksgiving. Bring forth your birds, stuffing, cranberries and the fixings extraordinaire. Thanks in advance for all you do. Well that is it for now. Please know of my prayers for each of you and this week, especially for our loved ones who have gone to God before us.

In Christ, Your Pastor,
Fr. John

My Dear St. Peter Families,

One of my former students was in CVS with her mom when a very kind man came up and said his wife had "made some inspirational sayings on paper and he would like to pass them on." It was a colorfully handwritten, stapled together booklet.

The first thing that struck me was how God knew EXACTLY who to put in that CVS at that time. This little girl and her family are so warm, so loving, and so rooted in their Catholic faith…….and they of course thanked the man for the booklet and went to their car.

The mom's comment was, "These are amazing! This booklet needs to be shared, I couldn't keep this to myself. Thank you to whoever you are!!"

Isn't this what we are called to do? Mark 16:15 says "And he said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation." Imagine if each and everyone of us talked to just one person a week about Jesus Christ!! If we spread the Good News to just one person!! What a difference we would make in the world!! The woman who wrote the booklet wanted to spread the Good News. Her husband found the perfect people to give the booklet to. I heard the story and decided to share it with you. Don't let this stop here……..pass it on!! Together we can change the world and build up the Kingdom of God!!

Joyfully in Christ,
Jeanine Walker
Director of Religious Education

A NOTE FROM OUR MUSIC MINISTRIES

HAPPY FALL!!!
Fall is my favorite season. I love the changing color of the leaves, the beautiful sunsets, bonfires and brisk mornings. As in every season, it's a time to be thankful for special people in our lives, our many gifts, people we work with, and for me having a job that I love. It is also a perfect time to ponder making new commitments to implement through the winter months.

WE HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY FOR YOU….

THE PARISH CHOIR is a group of very dedicated people who have a love for singing. This Choir sings at the 10:00 Mass every Sunday, Holy days, Christmas, Holy Week, Easter and a few other occasions. These volunteers rehearse once a week on Tuesday evenings from 7:00 to 8:30pm. We would love to have you join us! The more, the merrier.

THE CANTARE ENSEMBLE is also looking for new members. This group consists of guitars, violin, bass, drums, piano and vocalists. These talented volunteers rehearse on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 8:30pm and lead the congregation at the Noon Mass on Sunday. Maybe you play an instrument or just enjoy singing, we would love to have you become a member of the Cantare Ensemble.

We also have a group of CANTORS that lead the congregation at Mass. If you are an experienced cantor or feel you have strong vocal qualities please see me after Mass.

RESURRECTION CHOIR There are a very special group of people who lend their support by singing in the Resurrection Choir. This group gives of their time and talent to the families who have lost a loved one. When there is a funeral, they are notified and if they are available to sing on that particular day they come. We usually have a small group of singers to support the family at the Funeral Mass. If you are able to sing and have your mornings free, we would love to have you become part of this beautiful Ministry.

Very soon you'll be listening to the beautiful young voices of our Children's Choir. They will be leading the music at the 4:00 Mass about twice a month. I'm very excited to get the children singing again in the choir loft.

There are many opportunities to share your God-given talents with us. As you can see, we need vocalists, instrumentalists, energy driven people who love music. Please call the Parish Office at 586-468-4578 to sign up for your favorite Music Ministry.

Thank you in advance,

Nancy Simmons
Director of Music

Mercy in Action THANK YOU!

What a success Mercy in Action Day was – all because of you, the parishioners! When there is a need – we meet it; whether it is through a monetary donation, food donations, laundry supplies, cleaning supplies, children's books or the giving of our time and talent on the parish grounds or in the parish cemetery or community garden. We rocked!

The day started out rainy and cold … will people not come, will the cold keep them away? But of course when it comes to St. Peter Parish, there is never any concern. It was an amazing, incredibly moving day.

Fr. John Maksym started the day with a prayer filled with sunshine and hope.

Brian Newcom began our morning with a hearty, delicious breakfast. Feeding a hungry group of volunteer workers, including a football team is no easy task; but one would not be able to tell by watching Brian and his mighty pack of Knights. They were amazing.

Pat Plotkowski, Kathy Rodgers, and the whole St. Vincent de Paul team did an awesome job organizing, setting up, and keeping things running smoothly; directing volunteers, moving and organizing the food for the pantry. There is no Thank You big enough for their superb work, generosity and compassion for the people they serve.

Our Office Angels and dedicated volunteers behind the scene are the queen bees! They do it all! Without them, the planning, set up and organization of the entire day would not have happened.

There are so many to thank… We had over 200 volunteers from St. Peter Parish, St. Hubert Parish, St. Martin de Porres Parish, De La Salle High School, Austin High School, St. Mary School in St. Clair, and our very own St. Mary School.

While a lot of activity was going on in the church basement, volunteers were directing traffic through the parking lot, as 215 cars dropped off their donations between nine in the morning and noon. Our friends from the Iron Coffin Motorcycle Club drove a van full of food to the doors of the church. The club not only is a consistent supporter of Mercy in Action Day; but also adopts a St. Peter Parish family every year. Thank you to you all.

A high school with a high visibility on Saturday was Austin Catholic. Aside from donating a van full of food, students and their parents assisted with the sorting and boxing of the donations.

Our final total for St. Vincent de Paul was over 14,000 pounds of food and $1,000 in monetary donations! The food will be shared with our conference of SVdP pantries (St. Peter, St. Louis, and St. Hubert); as well as St. Margaret of Scotland from St. Clair Shores, St. Justin of Hazel Park, and St. Raymond in Detroit.

It was our St. Mary 8th graders who sorted and packed the bags of food for all of them on Tuesday. Go St. Mary School! Thank you so much for all you do throughout the year to help others in need.

This year Big Families of Michigan also benefited from the Mercy Day in Action outreach. Big Families of Michigan supports orphaned children and those in the foster care program. As a parish family, we collected approximately 800 books that will be given to children of all ages at Christmas. We also collected various cleaning and laundry supplies for the Aging-Out Program. A child in the foster care system ages out at 18 years old. Big Families of Michigan helps them to get started. They can do this because of the many organizations that help them to do so – we are now one of them – again, thanks to all of you. We also collected $500 in gift cards that were given to Lori Sparagowski, Coordinator of Big Families of Michigan to use for the Aging-Out Program initiative. Thank you Lori for all you do.

The third initiative this year was cleaning up St. Peter Cemetery. The clean-up crew, including adults and the entire De LaSalle High School football team, completed the clean-up mission in less than 40 minutes. It was so moving to see the DLS students, parents and football coach give up their personal time to help us out.

Another working crew of individuals went to our Community Garden to clean up after a fruitful year in the garden. This community garden serviced eight food pantries, including our very own SVdP and Macomb Country food pantry; plus two veteran group homes throughout the summer. The neighbors in need appreciated the fresh fruits and vegetables available during the growing season. Many of the new volunteers who went out to help will be back in the spring to re-open the garden, plant, weed and harvest. Thank you all for your labor of love!

It was a spectacular day! By the way, the sun came out and warmed us up. Thank you God the Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit for all you do for us.

God's Blessings Always,
Deb Goff-Liegghio and Pat Plotkowski

WOMEN'S BOOK CLUB

The Four Winds is a powerful American epic story about love, heroism and hope. It is set during the Great Depression, a time when the country was in crisis and at war with itself. It is a memorable and unforgettable portrait of America and the American dream, as seen through the eyes of a woman whose courage and sacrifice will come to define a generation. The story is likely to strike a chord as it is especially prescient considering the state of our nation in 2021. The book is well written and an easy read. Our group was captivated by the detailed history of the Dust Bowl and how it made Americans refugees in their own country. We rated The Four Winds a 4.5 out of 5.

On November 11th we will get together to discuss Anxious People by Fredrick Backman. It is a brilliant, funny, compassionate, and comforting read with a satisfying ending that makes you feel better about the world. It is about a failed bank robbery and subsequent investigation with a distraught bank robber and victims that are argumentative and difficult.

Join us on November 11th at 1 pm at the Pantry Restaurant on Hall Rd. Bring a friend.

Order of Alhambra
Galicia Caravan #77

How is St. Francis of Assisi tied to the Order of Alhambra?

The International Order of Alhambra is a Catholic Order which promotes social and fraternal relationships among its members. By becoming a member of one of our caravans, you will be provided with an opportunity to form enduring fellowship and friendship. The Alhambrans pray often to their patron saint for the Order: St. Francis of Assisi.

In 1208, St. Francis of Assisi abandoned the riches of the Italian merchant class for a laborer's tunic and a bed under the stars. He made a choice to live in perfect imitation of Christ's own poverty. Francis wanted his followers to live and preach in this same spirt. By his devotion to Baby Jesus, St. Francis popularized the Christmas creche and the Eucharist, in which the "Son of God so humbles himself that for salvation He hides himself under an ordinary piece of bread." St. Francis died in 1226.

St. Francis is a role model to us as Alhambrans. His words and actions are one of those ways that allows us to follow him and Jesus in our works with God's Special People that are intellectually disabled. When we are working with these special people, we are so humbled by their faith in God like St. Francis.

In honor of St. Francis this month, please take some time to reflect on his words:

"Most High, glorious God, enlighten the darkness of my heart and give me true faith, certain hope, and perfect charity, sense and knowledge, Lord, that I may carry out Your holy and true command. Amen."

If you are interested in learning more about Alhambra and St. Francis of Assisi and want to become involved in our works, check our websites: www. God bless and Keep praying!

Reminder!

All church doors will be locked 15 minutes after Mass has started for security reasons. If you have to step out of Mass or find yourself running late, Door Five, off of the main parking lot, will be the only one that will be accessible from the outside.

Thank you so much for your cooperation in keeping our parish family safe.

Reporting Sexual Abuse

The Archdiocese of Detroit encourages individuals to report clergy sexual abuse of minors and others – no matter when the abuse occurred. Individuals may contact local law enforcement authorities and/or they may report to the Archdiocese of Detroit by calling the Victim Assistance Coordinator at (866) 343-8055 or by emailing vac@aod.org. In addition, the Michigan Attorney General's Office can be contacted at its toll-free reporting hotline at (844) 324-3374 (Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) or by email at aginvestigations@michigan.gov.

More information about the Archdiocese's efforts to address abuse may be found at protect.aod.org

Memorial Contributions

In Memoriam

The Fr. Vincent Welch Memorial Hall Market Street entrance consists of a paved brick walkway, enhanced by beautiful landscaping, with lighting and a fountain in the courtyard. St. Peter Parish extends the opportunity to "purchase" a personalized, 4"x8" paver brick engraved with your name, or a name in memory of a loved one. The donation is $100 per brick. For information, contact the Administration Building at 468-4578.
