REFLECT

FIRST READING
Early in their Exodus journey, the Israelites expressed fear and frustration to Moses. God heard and responded to their "grumbling" by sending bread from heaven. When you have you experienced God answering your plea for help?

SECOND READING
Paul told the Ephesians that as believers in Christ you should "put away" the bad parts of "your former way of life." How have you done this in your life as a believer in Christ?

GOSPEL READING
We hear today the introduction of Jesus' extended "bread of life" discourse. In referring back to the ancient Israelites who ate "manna" (bread) in the desert, Jesus tells the crowds: "I am the bread of life." How would you explain to someone how Jesus sustains you?

Lectors

Attention Please:

The new schedule for August is available in the sacristy for you to pick up. There will also be a list of the current Lectors with phone numbers. In the event your name is not on the list please let me know as soon as possible so that you can be added. There is also an attendance sheet for you to check in when you are Lector or if you are substituting. Please take a copy of the new schedule and the list of Lectors. In the event that you cannot serve on the assigned day, please contact one of the other lectors to substitute for you. There will be a meeting of all Lectors during September. A specific date will be forthcoming. Thank you for service to the Parish.

Dave Griswack 313 999-5144

Eucharistic Ministers

If you have already turned in your name to be a Minister of the Eucharist, I just wanted to let you know there is no specific date for the resumption of Ministers. We are hoping it will be in the near future. However, we need you name and phone number so when the time comes we will have the names of everyone wishing to serve and a schedule will be instituted Thank you for your interest and future service. We will keep you posted as things progress.

Weekly Stewardship

Beginning the weekend of August 14/15, Offertory collections will be done using collection baskets. The use of the bin at the entrance will be discontinued. Thank You for your cooperation.

Please join us as we pray the Rosary before our weekend liturgies.

Most often, it is recited 40 minutes before the start of mass.

The Catholic Church dedicates the month of August to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Just as devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is only a form of devotion to the adorable Person of Jesus, so also is devotion to the Holy Heart of Mary a special form of devotion to Mary. It is intended that the faithful reflect on Mary's Immaculate Heart in its fullness. It is the expressive symbol and the living reminder of Mary's interior life, her joys and sorrows, her virtues and hidden perfections, and, above all, her virginal love for her God, her maternal love for her Divine Son, and her motherly and compassionate love for her sinful children here below.

Throughout scripture and in the early church you can find examples of devotion to the Heart of Mary. These devotions were widespread and became more and more popular as time went on. In 1799 Pius VI, then in captivity at Florence, granted the Bishop of Palermo the feast of the Most Pure Heart of Mary for some of the churches in his diocese. In 1805 Pius VII made a new concession, thanks to which the feast was soon widely observed. Such was the existing condition when a twofold movement, started in Paris, gave fresh impetus to the devotion. The two factors of this movement were first of all the revelation of the "miraculous medal" in 1830, and then the establishment at Notre-Dame-des-Victoires of the Archconfraternity of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Refuge of Sinners, which spread rapidly throughout the world. On 21 July, 1855, the Congregation of Rites finally approved the Office and Mass of the Most Pure Heart of Mary without, however, imposing them upon the Universal Church. Interestingly enough, there is no Universal Feast Day for the Immaculate Heart of Mary; however, the Church dedicates the month of August to that Most Pure and immaculate Heart.

Next week, we've all heard of the Seven Sorrows of Our Lady, but how many of us have heard of the seven Joys of Our Lady? I only heard about them recently; so, I'll explore that topic in the next bulletin.

IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY, PRAY FOR US

God Is Good All the Time!
All the Time God Is Good!

Don't forget, join us this Friday and every Friday at 3pm to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet on ZOOM. See the ad in our bulletin or on the parish website for details on how to join in. Hope to see you there!

Blessed Fr. Michael J. McGivney was born August 12th, 1852. At the age of 16, he entered the seminary, however, following his father's death in June 1873, Fr. McGivney left the seminary to raise his younger siblings, he was the oldest of 13 children, 6 of whom died in infancy or childhood. He later resumed his studies at St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore and on December 22, 1877, he was ordained a priest.

The time away from the seminary had a profound impact on him. He saw firsthand how the death of his father devastated his young family in many ways, but mostly from the loss of his father's income to support the family. His family was not alone as many immigrant families dealt with this same situation.

On March 29th, 1882, while serving as assistant pastor at St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Connecticut, Fr. McGivney founded the Knights of Columbus to provide financial assistance to widows and orphans following a man's death. This remains the mission of the Knights of Columbus and is the foundation for the Insurance programs offered through the Knights of Columbus. In 1884, Fr. McGivney was assigned pastor of St. Thomas Church in Thomaston, Connecticut. During this time, he continued to grow the Order and promote the need for supporting our Catholic families in times of need. Fr. McGivney died from pneumonia on August 14th, 1890 at the age of 38. We celebrate the Feast Day of Blessed Fr. Michael J. McGivney on August 13th.

Fr. McGivney's legacy continues through the Knights of Columbus and the mission continues through the four principles of the Order: Unity, Fraternity, Charity and Patriotism. Through these principles, Knights of Columbus, through the intercession of Father McGivney, are instruments of God to protect the poor and defend the widows and orphans. The inspiration of Fr. McGivney has prompted us to have greater confidence in God's love so that we can care for the needy and outcast.

For many of us, summertime is synonymous with relax time. Whether enjoying the local pool or going on vacation, life takes on a different rhythm in the summer months.

A decline in church attendance during the summer usually leads to a dip in giving. Yep, you got it.
The summer slump.

God's call on your life doesn't stop just because attendance suffers a 30% drop during the summer slump. And online giving doesn't have to decline!

WHAT CAN I DO TO HELP OUR FAMILY PRACTICE OUR FAITH EACH DAY?

Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God's people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God's presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God's people.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

August 1, 2021
18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You cannot see the forest for the trees" is a widely known saying that can bring wisdom to our understanding of our journey. Often, our sight becomes limited to what is immediately before us. We lose touch with lessons and experiences from the past and promises and hope for the future. As human beings, we have the privilege of being able to choose things. What I like and don't like, want, and don't want can be major preoccupations of our minds and hearts. Our preferences and desires begin to define us more than the simple fact of our being. Who we are matters more than what we are or what we have. If we don't move beyond the external and superficial stuff to what really is of essence, we risk becoming very unsettled, disorientated, angry, and unhappy. We fail to see the bigger picture of hope and promise that lies ahead and the Divine Presence that has sustained and carried us before.

We like it when the "now" time of our lives satisfy us. Even the people who witnessed Jesus feed the five thousand got confused and distracted. It felt good when thousands of people were able to eat. They wanted to know what they could do to get this to happen again! But Jesus quickly reminds them that this is not the point of this sign. As much as the now time of our lives is of concern, it is not what is ultimately important. We need to learn the difference between being and doing, drawing more strength from who we are and who God is rather than what is happening around us and the choices we can make. Jesus is the true bread that came down from heaven. Jesus is the very incarnate presence of God who sustains life and assures us that we will not perish. This is not easy to understand and feel. We have to practice being in the presence of ourselves, others, creation, and God. We are brought to a holy place when we encounter the sacredness of being. This is real prayer.

Then, we learn to trust. It is when we cease trusting that we start to become afraid, uncertain, apprehensive, and doubtful, and overly self-concerned. We even start to grumble. God has our back. That is the essential powerful message of the living bread come down from heaven. God, who is alpha is also omega, the beginning and the end, and has everything in between in his care as well. A woman once remarked that her most powerful God moment happened when she and her husband cuddled with their new baby for a time. Without exchanging words and using only the affection communicated through sight and touch, they rested in being with each other. This brought them to the sacred, where they realized that a greater Being was with them. It was real. They knew that they were part of something bigger, intimate, and profound. When we rest in the Living Source of life, we will find that our souls are no longer hungry or thirsty.
