CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 19, 2021 under the theme of "Disciples of Jesus: Witnesses to the Gospel." On this day, catechists are formally commissioned for ministry to the community. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each baptized person plays in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. MARK BRAUER

The Church today (Sunday) celebrates Catechetical Sunday. This year's archdiocesan theme is "Disciples of Jesus: Witnesses to the Gospel." This focus endorses the third part of Encounter, Grow, Witness from Unleash the Gospel.

You may have read or heard that Pope Francis instituted the Lay Ministry of Catechist this year. In his apostolic letter, *Antiquum Magisterium (*instituting the Ministry of Catechist) he said, "*This ministry as a definite vocational aspect, as evidenced by the Rite of Institution, and consequently calls for due discernment on the part of the Bishop. It is in fact a stable form of service rendered to the local Church in accordance with pastoral needs identified by the local Ordinary, yet one carried out as a work of laity, as demanded by the very nature of the ministry. It is fitting that those called to instituted ministry of Catechist be men and women of deep faith and human maturity, active participants in the life of the Christian community, capable of welcoming others, being generous and living a life of fraternal communion." (*Antiquum Magisterum,8).
Jesus is central to our Christian faith and life. "At the heart of catechesis we find, in essence, a Person, the Persons of Jesus of Nazareth, the only Son from the Father" (Pope John Paul II, Catechesi tradendae, no. 5, www.vatican.va/ holy_father/john_paul_ii/ apost_exhortations/documents/hf_jp-ii_exh_16101979_catechesi-tradendae_en.html). The parish is the place we experience being Church. "The parish is the primary experience of the Church for most Catholics. It is where the faithful gather for celebration of the sacraments and the proclamation of the word of God" (National Directory for Catechesis [NDC] [Washington, DC: United States Conference of Catholic Bishops [USCCB), 2005], no. 60]. It is the place where we are nourish with the Word of God and the Bread of Life.

The purpose of Catechetical Sunday is to highlight the importance of sound catechesis for the life and holiness of the Church. Solid catechesis is indispensable to the growth of the Mystical Body in the truth and love of Christ Jesus, the Head.

The Church reminds us in the General Directory for Catechesis that the definitive aim of catechesis is to put people not only in touch, but also in communion and intimacy, with Jesus Christ. (GDC #80).

Good catechesis is instrumental in helping children, young people and adults to live "the truth in love" which springs from and leads to communion and friendship with the Lord Jesus.

My parents were the primary teachers regarding matters of faith. Their love for me was constant even when I chose to do the wrong thing. I felt safe in their arms because they modeled God's compassion and love. Even when I was difficult to love, they were patient and understanding. I knew that they would protect me.

They taught me how to pray and how to make the "right" choices. They taught me the value of praying together, adoration and visits to the Blessed Sacrament, making the Sign of the Cross when passing in front of a Catholic Church, and participating at Sunday Eucharist and Holy Days as a family. They modeled that God comes first in all things, not my will but rather God's will for me. They taught us Christian Service by always helping neighbors who are in need. Christian formation opportunities took priority over everything else. I had a great childhood. I participated in sports and other extracurricular activities, but faith and family came first.

Parents are entrusted with a special role and responsibility in forming their children in matters of faith. Parents are the primary teachers of communicating to their children faith in Jesus the Christ and modeling discipleship. Jesus calls us each day and we are to come to Him, listen to Him and then to act out His Word in our lives.

I am grateful to our catechists, parents and to all who are involved in the catechetical ministry in our parish. May their labors redound to the glory of God and the salvation of souls. Peace

— Fr. Mark Brauer.

The Documents of Vatican II, Vol. 1:
With Notes and Comments by Catholic, Protestant, and Orthodox Authorities, 1966

VATICAN II: DOCUMENT AUTHORITY

by Sr. Barbara Rund, OP

The sixteen documents of Vatican II and those that followed have changed religious practice and the expressions of doctrine in order to meet the pastoral needs of the contemporary world situation and the Church. These documents or teachings of Vatican II set a direction for the Church, especially the four Constitutions. As the Church continues to meet the needs of our world and Church, we are living these documents into our reality. The teaching of Vatican II cannot be minimized or reinterpreted or ignored because it provides a vision of what it means to be Church for today and into the future.

There are three different types of Vatican II documents: Constitutions, Decrees, and Declarations. A Constitution declares "a teaching that is of a substantial nature, one that is central to the entire Church" (Huebsch, Vatican II in Plain English – The Council, p101). A Decree "gives a significant teaching but one that requires further discussion" (Huebsch, The Council, p102). A Declaration "usually addresses an area that may be, by its nature, controversial and in need of further doctrinal development" (Huebsch, The Council, p102).

Each type of document has a different authority and ranking in the Church. Council documents are considered very authoritative due to extensive consultation throughout the Church. The document with the highest authority and rank are Constitutions, then Decrees, followed by Declarations. So, this means of the sixteen documents of Vatican II, the four Constitutions are higher in rank and authority than the twelve Decrees and Declarations. In the "spirit" of the Council, the variety of types and authority of the documents leaves room for discussion and fosters openness and adaptation to the "signs of the times" and the needs of our Church and world.

Over the next few weeks, my articles will focus on the four Constitutions from Vatican II in the order in which they were promulgated:

1. Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy (December 4, 1963)
2. Dogmatic Constitution on the Church (November 21, 1964)
3. Dogmatic Constitution on Divine Revelation (November 18, 1965)
4. Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World (December 7, 1965).

As Bill Huebsch states: "The four constitutions from the council are very well received, very strong, very influential … just as the Scriptures are proclaimed as "The Word of the Lord," so these texts would be proclaimed as "The Word of the Church" (Huebsch, The Council, p103, 106).

After 55 years of living Vatican II, let us pause and reflect on our "experience" and discover again the meaning of these four Constitutions, as we renew in our hearts the "spirit" of Vatican II for the twenty-first century.

Next Week: Vatican II, Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy

FAMILIES OF PARISHES

SCHOOL MISSION DIRECT FUNDAMENTALS AND DISCIPLE FORMATION | by Archdiocese of Detroit

School Mission Direct – Fundamentals:

"Catholic schools must be centers of evangelization and discipleship supported by the Christian faithful throughout the diocese" (Unleash the Gospel (UTG 3.3.C.3).

- The ministry of the school is the responsibility of the Family. It is especially important to ensure that parishes that have not had schools are actually engaged and supportive of the Family's school and students.
- Similarly, Families without schools within their borders are called to support both the broader mission of Catholic schools and the parents and students in their midst who desire to attend Catholic schools.
- The principles of Encounter, Grow, Witness should frame all Mission Direct activities in the schools.
- Schools should be visibly integrated into the life of the Family, not just the life of the host parish. The Moderator should ensure communication between the Family and school Principal(s) such that they are involved in a transformational way in the life of the Family. (Participation in the Family Leadership team is a possibility to be considered.)
- Where warranted, it may be fruitful to consider a specific designee in each area of Mission Direct to support schools in the Family.
- The Family's leadership and school leadership should always be in sync, ensuring that efforts are aligned in mission and in execution, especially before offering programming to children and families.

School Mission Direct – Disciple Formation:

Under the guidance of the Moderator, the Discipleship Formation Director and School Principal will work together to:

- Coordinate catechetical programs for children and youth in the Family and schools. Identify opportunities to utilize common programming and resources, ensuring the quality is consistent and of the highest standard whether originating from the schools or catechetical sources. In planning, AOD and Family leadership should focus on integration of children in Catholic schools and catechesis (for non-Catholic school students) across the AOD.
- Ensure administrators are fully formed disciples who embrace the call of Unleash the Gospel.
- Include school staff in formation programs developed for the Family (Evangelizing the Evangelizers, UTG Markers 4.1,4.2); Teachers and Principals will receive formation through the Department of Catholic Schools (which shall develop a fulsome plan in this area) complemented by formation through the Moderator.
- Attract and retain graduating students into the Family's youth and young adult ministry programming. Help them to take up their rightful roles in the mission of the Church and to understand their unique ability to reach the people of their own generation (UTG Marker 5.4)
- Engage school parents in adult faith formation opportunities.
- Identify creative ways to strengthen school families in their roles as domestic Church (UTG Guidepost 7).

Next Week: School Mission Direct Engagement, Evangelical Charity, and Worship

RCIA
A JOURNEY IN FAITH

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO IS INTERESTED IN EXPLORING THE CATHOLIC CHURCH?

by Sr. Barbara Rund, OP

Each year, hundreds of people in the Archdiocese of Detroit are welcomed into the Catholic Church through the RCIA Process. RCIA is an acronym for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. The RCIA process at St. Hugo of the Hills Parish may begin at any time a person is ready.

The RCIA process is for any adult or child over seven years of age who is:

- Unbaptized and recognizes a need for spirituality in his/her life
- Baptized and raised in another Christian tradition but interested in learning about the Catholic faith
- Baptized in the Catholic faith or another Christian faith tradition but never received any formal religious training
- Baptized in the Catholic faith but did not receive the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation

People respond to a personal invitation from someone they know. As active Catholics, we are called to invite others to share faith in Christ. Take the opportunity today and invite a family member, co-worker, neighbor, or friend to discover the Catholic Church through the RCIA process.

The RCIA process at St. Hugo of the Hills Parish may begin at any time a person is ready.

UPDATE TO OSV ONLINE DONATIONS

The St. Hugo online giving website has been updated. These changes will give parishioners a more user friendly experience, especially those utilizing mobile devices.

- Login IDs are being converted to each person's email address; passwords will remain the same.
- The URL (website address) will change and the old URL will have a redirect for a period of time, but will eventually expire. If anyone has saved the old URL as a favorite it will be best if that old URL favorite is deleted and a new one created. We will be changing the links to online giving on the St. Hugo website.
- The look and feel of the site will change (easier to navigate)
- Users of the system will be receiving an advance email notification about the upcoming changes.

If you have thought about converting to online giving, now is the time to do so! Online giving is the most efficient means of donating to St. Hugo's.

If you have questions, please contact the parish business office 248-644-5460.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK WITHIN MASS

1:00 p.m. Mass in the Chapel

With Fr. Joseph Szewczyk
Thursday, October 22, 2021
(Third Thursday of the Month)

The Sacrament of Anointing is the proper sacrament, for those Christians, whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age.

"Lord, through these sacraments of Eucharist and Anointing, you offer us the gift of healing.
May this grace bear fruit among us and make us strong in your service.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen."
(Pastoral Care of the Sick p123)
