VATICAN II: THE DECLARATIONS

by Sr. Barbara Rund, OP

As we conclude this series on Sixteen Documents of Vatican II, we will discuss the three Declarations, which focus on Christian Education, Relationship of the Church to Non-Christian Religions, and on Religious Freedom. We will discover that a Vatican II Declaration "usually addresses an area that may be, by its nature, controversial and in need of further doctrinal development" (Huebsch, The Council, Book 1, p102).

The Declaration on Christian Education was ""approved on October 28, 1965, by a vote of 2,290 to 35" (Huebsch, The Decrees and Declarations, Book 3, pp224-225). The Declaration's focus is on formal education in schools, especially the universal right to an education. Since Vatican II, several documents have followed, which continues today. Two principles stand out: "First, every person regardless of age, race, or social conditions has an inalienable right to an education … It is a special concern of ours that young people be assisted in the full development of their persons: physical, moral, sexual, social, and intellectual … Second, all the faithful likewise have a right to a Christian education, advancing in understanding the faith and growing mature as faithful persons. We especially affirm liturgical worship as a means toward this end … Third, parent who give life to children have a firm duty to educate them as well. Parents are, in fact, the first and foremost educators of their children within a family atmosphere animated with love, providing a well-rounded formation" (Huebsch, The Decrees and Declarations, Book 3, pp197-198).

The Declaration on the Relationship of the Church to Non-Christian Religions was "approved on October 28, 1965, by a vote of 2,221 to 88" (Huebsch, The Decrees and Declarations, Book 3, pp225-226). The focus of this Declaration is on the Churches relationship with Judaism, Hinduism, Buddhism, and Islam. The document encourages dialogue, and states that "condemns every form of persecution or discrimination" (Huebsch, The Decrees and Declarations, Book 3, p226).

The Declaration on Religious Freedom was "approved on December 7, 1965, by a vote of 2,308 to 70" (Huebsch, The Decrees and Declarations, Book 3, p226). Of all sixteen documents, this Declaration was the most controversial. The focus is on "freedom of persons requires that no one ever be forced to join the Church" (Huebsch, The Decrees and Declarations, Book 3, p226). Fr. John Courtney Murray said: "this was the most extensive discussion on religious freedom every held in the history of the Church" (Huebsch, The Decrees and Declarations, Book 3, p69). The Declaration states: "The Second Vatican Council hereby declares that human beings have a right to religious liberty. This means that no one is to be forced by other individuals, by social groups, or by any other human power regarding religious matters" (Huebsch, The Decrees and Declarations, Book 3, p73).

CHRIST THE KING | By Sr. Barbara Rund, OP

Christ the King by Joan Cole| Giclée Print, Trinity Stores.

Today's Gospel for the 34th Sunday in Ordinary Time affirms Christ's royal dignity to Pilate, clarifies any misconceptions regarding the mission of Jesus, and reminds us to listen to the words of Jesus. In the Preface for today, the priest prayed that Christ "making all created things subject to his rule, he might present to the immensity of your (God's) majesty an eternal and universal kingdom, a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love and peace." As we end this Liturgical Year, we are reminded that God is calling us

- to be people of truth who give life to one another,
- to be people of holiness who are reminders of God's grace,
- and to be people of justice and love who bring peace to all we meet.

Next Sunday, the Church Year begins with the First Sunday of Advent and Christ's life will be presented through the Gospel of Luke, which is the longest book in the New Testament and the longest of the four gospels. It is important to note that the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles is a two-volume work from the same person.

The Gospel of Luke begins with appearances of the Angel Gabriel announcing to both Zechariah and to Mary that they will experience miraculous births. There are stories that only appear in the Gospel of Luke: the prodigal son, the good Samaritan, Mary and Martha, and the road to Emmaus. Each day in the Liturgy of the Hours or the Divine Office, there are three songs that are sung from the Gospel of Luke:

1. in the morning the Benedictus or Canticle of Zechariah (Blessed be the Lord the God of Israel …),
2. in the evening the Magnificat or Canticle of Mary (My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord …),
3. and at night the Nunc Dimittis or Canticle of Simeon (Lord, now you let your servant go in peace …).

Also, in the Gospel of Luke, we find the first half of the Hail Mary (Hail Mary, full of grace …).

In the Mass texts for St. Luke's feast day on October 18 we prayed:
"Lord God, who chose Saint Luke to reveal by his preaching and writings the mystery of your love for the poor, grant that those who already glory in your name may persevere as one heart and one soul and that all nations may merit to see your salvation. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever" (The Roman Missal 2008, p831).

THE ST. HUGO GIVING TREE

The St. Hugo community reaches out to those in need in a special way during the Advent season. Please visit the Virtual St. Hugo Giving Tree to see how you can participate. The link to access the virtual Giving Tree can be found on the St. Hugo Church website www.sthugo.org

Need help selecting a gift tag? Feel free to contact co-chair Andrea Brzustewicz at (248) 953-8069.

- By clicking the Giving Tree link, you will be directed to a Sign-up genius webpage, which functions like a gift registry. Each of the charities listed below has a tab at the top of the Sign-up genius webpage. The gifts requested by each charity can be found under their designated tab.
- Choose a gift(s) from the Giving Tree and click on the green "Sign Up" button. You will be directed to enter the quantity of that particular gift you'll be donating, your name, and e-mail address. Once you've input this information, select the "Sign Up Now" button, and you're all set!
  Please follow the wrapping and labeling instructions listed for each charity. Return labeled gift(s) to the specified table in the church Gathering Space on/or before Sunday, December 12th,

IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT ALL GIFTS ARE LABELED AND RETURNED ON TIME!

RED HEART – BALDWIN CENTER - Return gift cards in an envelope labeled "Baldwin Center" & place in a collection basket during weekend masses from 11/27-12/12, or in the locked collection box located outside the parish office

We would like to acknowledge our charity coordinators: Lori Ervin, Jennifer Griglak, Lynn Martin, Diane Neville, Jan Petcoff, Kerry Saracino, and Stephanie Spinale, who so willingly share their time and talent through the Giving Tree.
We'd also like to wish the St. Hugo community a blessed Christmas filled with peace and love.
Giving Tree Co-Chairs – Jacquie Bluethmann and Andrea Brzustewicz

COLUMBARIUM CLEANUP

If you have chosen the St. Hugo Columbarium as the appropriate final resting place for your loved one, we thank you. St. Hugo's staff takes great effort in caring for the Columbarium, and as you may already know, each year we do semi-annual cleanups in the area.

The next scheduled cleanup will be during the weekend of December 3, 2021. At that time, all items will be removed from each niche, in preparation of Christmas decorations. If there is something that you would like to keep permanently, please remove it before the cleanup. For questions please the Parish Office at 248-644-5460

BOOK FAIR SUCCESS!

Thanks to all who supported this year's Scholastic Book Fair which raised over $6,000.00. Money raised will be used to purchase books and support the school library. A very special thank you to Mrs. Gina Thomas and Mrs. Cindy Hermann who chaired the event and put in countless hours making sure the book fair ran smoothly and successfully.

THANK YOU also to Mrs. Pam Vivio, Mrs. Anna Rea and the faculty appreciation committee for keeping our faculty and staff well fed during conferences. Everyone enjoyed delicious smoothies and sandwiches from Beyond Juice compliments of Mrs. Vivio and Mrs. Rea on Wednesday afternoon. Bagels were provided by Mrs. Priebe and Mrs. Denipoti on Thursday morning.

LADIES OF CHARITY— THANK YOU!

It is our pleasure to announce that Ladies of Charity has once again been awarded a $5,000 grant from the Catholic Foundation of Michigan. We are blessed by the Catholic Foundation continually supporting our Clothes Closet and Food Pantry. Our project this year will be focused on retired religious communities that lack financial resources to meet the nutritional and health care needs of their aging members. While supplementing their food budget with fresh fruit and vegetables our hope is to assist those who have served us in past years and improve their lives with better nutrition. Our objective is to involve the Ladies of Charity members and recruit student volunteers on a continuous basis from surrounding area Catholic high schools to introduce the students to religious communities on a personal basis and fulfill their service hours over the year-long period. This exposure will be an an introduction to these religious communities in their young lives and hopefully encourage vocations in their future life.

If you'd like to help us in accomplishing this effort, you can contact Joanne Cross at 248 540 8328 and we'll be glad to have you join us.

All requests for names to be included on the sick list and in the weekend Prayers of the Faithful must be provided by a family member. Names will be included in weekend Prayers of the Faithful for three weeks and published in the Herald for six weeks. At the end of this time, you may call the parish office to renew the name in the Herald for three more weeks. You may remove a name at any time by calling the parish office at 248-644-5460.

PRAY FOR THE DECEASED

Eternal father,
you give us life despite our guilt
and even add days and years to our lives
in order to bring us wisdom.
Make us love and obey you,
so that the works of our hands
may always display
what your hands have done,
until the day
we gaze upon the beauty of your face.
