28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves,
"Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said,
"For human beings it is impossible, but not for God.
All things are possible for God." - Mk 10:26-27

St. Joseph, Defender of Life, Pray for us!

We are called to care for those God has entrusted to us– especially vulnerable mothers and children. We may feel uncertain of our ability to answer the Lords call, but he invites us to faithfully respond, despite our own fears or weaknesses:

"My Grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness" (2 Cor 12:9).

May we imitate St. Joseph's faithful trust and courage as we work to uphold the dignity of every human life.

Faith Formation Good News

I HEARD THE CALL

Have you ever wondered how to hear the Lord's voice? Have you ever wondered why you feel the Lord hasn't called you? There's a scripture verse that says…

(Psalms 46: 10) Be still and know that I AM God! The Lord comes in the silence. In this hustle and bustle life we live in, it seems harder and harder to just be still and listen.

Most likely you've been called several times in your lifetime, like Samuel who woke from his sleep hearing his name (1 Samuel 3:1-10) but didn't realize the Lord was calling him. There are several examples of the Lord's call in the Sacred Scriptures. The Lord may be calling you to himself.

Maybe you can set some time aside in silence for the Lord and hear His voice. Open your heart to discernment, a time to separate, sort through or sift through. This will allow you to open your eyes to your heart and truly see the will of God for your life, as an opportunity to live in relationship with Him who loves you so much and to hear His voice.

Musical Notes…

One of the things that I enjoy (besides making music) is learning the story behind the music. So today, I'd like to share with you the story of our communion meditation song "Breathe" by Marie Barnett.

This song came to fruition by happenstance, or as I like to think of it, it was Holy Spirit drivin!

During a Sunday evening service in Southern California, John and Marie Barnett, two local church musicians, were leading worship and the words to what would become the worship song "Breathe" just came out.

"We had been singing Isn't He by John Wimber," Barnett recalls, "and my husband continued to play. I was so enthralled with Jesus at that moment, thinking I could never live, I could never even take a breath if I didn't have a word from Him every day, and I heard those words this is the air I breathe. This is my daily bread and I started singing them."

This is the air I breathe.
This is the air I breathe.
Your holy presence living in me.

This is my daily bread.
This is my daily bread.
Your very Word spoken to me.

And I, I'm desperate for You.
And I, I'm lost without You.

Moved by the music, the congregation started to sing along to her improvisation. And that is how this powerful song came to be! My warmest wishes to all of you for a good week!

CHRISTIAN SERVICE

We have received many gifts of food, rest assured they are welcomed by the people we serve.

As we prepare for our Thanksgiving and Christmas Food Baskets, we ask that you donate only the items that are requested. The bags located in the vestibule are provided to create Holiday meals with additional items for families in need. Perishable items (milk, bread, butter, fresh fruits and vegetables) are purchased the day of distribution. If you would like to make a cash donation towards those items, envelopes have been placed in the vestibule as well. Thank you for your support!
God Bless your generosity.

THE STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN

The rich young man in today's Gospel wants to know what we all want to know—how to live in this life so that we might live forever in the world to come. He seeks what today's Psalm calls "wisdom of heart."

He learns that the wisdom he seeks is not a program of works to be performed or behaviors to be avoided. As Jesus tells him, observing the commandments is essential to walking the path of salvation—but it can only get us so far.

The Wisdom of God is not precepts, but a person-Jesus Christ. Jesus is the Wisdom whose Spirit was granted to Solomon in today's First Reading. Jesus is the Word of God spoken of in today's Epistle. And Jesus, as He reveals Himself to the rich man today, is God.

In Jesus we encounter Wisdom, the living and effective Word of God. As He does with the rich man today, He looks upon each of us with love. That look of love, that loving gaze, is a personal invitation—to give up everything to follow Him.

Nothing is concealed from His gaze, as we hear in the Epistle. In His fiery eyes, the thoughts of our hearts are exposed, and each of us must render an account of our lives (see Revelation 1:14).

We must have the attitude of Solomon, preferring Wisdom to all else, loving Him more than even life itself. This preference, this love, requires a leap of faith. We will be persecuted for this faith, Jesus tells His disciples today. But we must trust in His promise—that all good things will come to us in His company.

What, then, are the "many possessions" that keep us from giving ourselves totally to God? What are we clinging to—material things, comfort zones, relationships? What will it take for us to live fully for Christ's sake and the sake of the Gospel?

Let us pray for the wisdom to enter into the kingdom of God. With the Psalmist, let us ask Him, "Teach us."

peoplaid.com

IF HEAVEN WERE LIKE HARVARD

There's no getting around it: life on earth can seem easier if you're rich. Most of the bodily and material needs a person could have are fulfilled if you've got a little bit of money behind you. So why doesn't this same theory apply to entering the kingdom of Heaven? Why isn't Heaven like an Ivy League school, where a connection and a hasty tuition check might open a lot of doors?

When you think about it, the virtues required to enter Heaven — things like charity and justice and courage — should be even closer within the grasp of those who never had to worry about where their food is coming from. In theory, your capacity for good works should only increase with the resources at your disposal.

The same is true for stewardship potential. Let's say I've got a lot of talent. Maybe I've got a lot of free time. On paper, it should be easier for me to give freely of these gifts, because I have the luxury that eluded the widow and her two coins: I can see my ample gift being put into action, when so many can only offer what they have and remind themselves that God sees it and appreciates it.

But here we get into the mess of humanity: if we have a lot of something, it means we have a lot of something we could use any way we want. And then we hear the whisper of the serpent: Think of what this (money, time, talent) could do for you.

May we pray for God to give us the heart of the widow, no matter our resources.

PRAYER TO Padre Pio FOR HEALING

Padre Pio of Pietrelcina, obedient father, you loved the sick and infirm more than yourself because in them you saw Jesus. In the name of God you performed miracles of healing in body, soul and mind.

Your intercession with God healed the ills of past and present and strengthened people to respond with confidence to future challenges. Those who came to you regained a sense of spiritual integrity as you rekindled hope in their lives, and encouraged them to renew the spirit in their hearts.

Through the intercession of Our Heavenly Mother, may we experience your powerful assistance and be healed in our bodily and spiritual needs. Gratefully give praise and thanks to God for all His blessings.

Amen

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

Pray to St. Michael for protection against the power of evil, and to bring us closer to God.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray; and do Thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan,
And the other evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
for the ruin of souls.

Amen
