THE REV SAY'S

My Brothers and Sisters,

Praise and glory, worship and honor to our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe!

Each year the Church celebrates Christ the King to both mark the beginning of a new liturgical year and also to call to mind the rule of Jesus Christ over all He has redeemed. In His First Coming (Incarnation), He did not appear majestic or royal, but rather a poor child, carpenter, and rabbi. He was mocked, scorned, rejected, and abused by the people He came to save. He did not mount a throne of gold but rather a rough wooden Cross. Our King, meek and mild, was crucified for us.

The Gospel of Matthew Ch. 25 is one of the most fascinating reads in the Bible, and we hear verses 31-46 at Sunday Mass. The overall chapter speaks of our Lord's prediction on End Times and the Final Judgment- He emphasizes the need to stay awake (prepared), serve the Lord in this life, and be ready to give an account before the Judgment Seat after death.

The division of the two is equally fascinating- the just (symbolically depicted as sheep on the right hand of the King) hear a glorious passage of salvation, whereas the evil (symbolically depicted as goats on the left hand of the King) hear a terrible pronouncement of condemnation. But, though the words of the King are the focal point, the responses of each are just as intriguing.

The just respond to the King quite humbly, articulately and reflectively: "When did we see You ____?" They were both faithful and kind in life and appear the same before the King. They saw the poor and helped them; they cared for the sick and imprisoned; they fed and gave drink to the needy. But, as the King says, these acts of charity were directed toward His own service and they receive a proper reward. They stay humble before the King and rejoice in their reward!

Conversely, the evil respond panicked, confused and jumble their words. They lump everything together because they are trying to excuse themselves. In other words, "What do you mean? You never told us you were hungry, thirsty, naked, etc. That's not fair!" But, because they had eyes only for themselves (sin, pleasure, luxury, self-service) and not the poor (or the King), they receive a proper, just sentence of condemnation.

Lastly...the reward or condemnation is FOREVER. The evil are consigned to eternal punishment (Hell), and the just are rewarded with eternal life (Heaven). There is no mercy after death, and there is no hope of change. You appear before God in death just as you have been in life.

Therefore, seek the King while He may be found now. He will always hear pleas for mercy and pardon in this life; He will always bestow grace upon those who request it (through conversion, repentance and penance); He will open our eyes to help alleviate the sufferings of the needy; He will guide us by His Holy Spirit. Give the King His due now, and He will give you your due later!

God love you,
Fr. Jim

OFFERTORY ENVELOPE UPDATE

We have some important news to share with you.

The AOD is updating parish systems and improving the way we manage parish records.
One part of these changes is a change to envelope numbers. These up dates are being made to help us keep giving information accurate, support better stewardship of parish resources, and serve parishioners more effectively.

We understand that envelope numbers may be familiar, and for some parishioners and families, you may had had the same number for many years. Please know that this change does not affect your membership in the parish, your giving history, or our gratitude for your faithful support.

Please continue using the envelopes you receive from the parish. When you receive your next patch of envelopes, your envelope number will likely be different. This is the only change you should see and no action is needed from you at this time. Implementation of Sacred Heart's Envelope Number System begins with their December/January mailing. St. Mary's and SS Peter & Paul's will begin with their January/February 2027 mailing.

Thank you for your patience and understanding as we make these updates. We are grateful for your generosity and for the many ways you support the mission and ministries of our parish.

Virtues, Explained! Confidence

Confidence, in its virtuous aspect, describes the hope that man has in himself when he is under God's care and inviting the direction of the Holy Spirit. Its very name is derived from the Latin noun fides, which means faith.
