PASTOR'S LETTER

Good People of Holy Cross,

"What are you really looking for in your life?" The unexamined life cares nothing for this question. It is the question some of us only begin to consider after facing colossal failure or empty success; or in mid-life, when we begin to face our own mortality. This question of Jesus: "What are you seeking?" stirred souls to life. Notice that once a person finds the answer to the great question of life, he or she cannot resist sharing that joyous answer with others. John the Baptist recognized Jesus, and selflessly urged his own disciples to follow Jesus. Andrew, shared news of Jesus with his brother, Peter. When Peter came to Christ, he turned to his friend, Philip. When Philip found his answer in Jesus, he sought out Nathanael. And so the story goes, from one heart burning with new-found joy to another, all the way down through the centuries to each one of us. Christian faith is not just a private matter; it is also a shared story. How can anyone who wrestles with the great question of life's purpose and meaning, and having found a compelling answer, fail to run to their loved ones with that good news? If you discovered a cure for cancer, would you keep quiet about it? I hope not. How much more if you have found the secret to a meaningful life? You are surrounded by others who are seeking some markers along their way, some hope in their despair, some witness to the presence and power of a living faith, a living God. Share lovingly who and what you know to be true!

Fr. Jude Michael

Gente Buena de Holy Cross,

"¿Qué estás buscando realmente en tu vida? A la vida no examinada no le importa nada esta pregunta. Es la pregunta que algunos de nosotros solo comenzamos a considerar después de enfrentar un fracaso colosal o un éxito vacío; o en la mediana edad, cuando comenzamos a enfrentar nuestra propia mortalidad. Esta pregunta de Jesús: "¿Qué buscas?" Volvió almas a la vida. Observa que una vez que una persona encuentra la respuesta a la gran pregunta de la vida, no puede resistirse a compartir esa alegre respuesta con los demás. Juan el Bautista reconoció a Jesús e instó desinteresadamente a sus propios discípulos a seguir a Jesús. Andrés, compartió noticias de Jesús con su hermano Pedro. Cuando Pedro vino a Cristo, se volvió hacia su amigo Felipe. Cuando Felipe encontró su respuesta en Jesús, buscó a Natanael. Y así continúa la historia, desde un corazón ardiendo con alegría recién descubierta hasta otro, a lo largo de los siglos hasta cada uno de nosotros. La fe cristiana no es solo un asunto privado; también es una historia compartida. ¿Cómo puede alguien que lucha con la gran pregunta del propósito y el significado de la vida, y que ha encontrado una respuesta convincente, dejar de correr hacia sus seres queridos con esa buena noticia? Si descubrieses una cura para el cáncer, ¿te quedarías callado? Espero que no. ¿Cuánto más si has encontrado el secreto de una vida significativa? Estás rodeado de otros que buscan algunas señales en su camino, algunos esperan en su desesperación, algunos testimonian la presencia y el poder de una fe viva, un Dios vivo. ¡Comparte con cariño quién y qué sabes que es verdad!

Padre Jude Michael

Loving God, Holy One,
Your desire is for our wholeness and well-being.
We hold in tenderness and prayer the collective suffering of our world at this time.
We grieve precious lives lost and vulnerable lives threatened.
We ache for ourselves and our neighbors, standing before an uncertain future.
We pray: may love, not fear, go viral.
Inspire our leaders to discern and choose wisely, aligned with the common good.
Help us to practice social distancing and reveal to us new and creative ways to come together in spirit and in solidarity.
Call us to profound trust in your faithful presence,
You, the God who does not abandon,
You, the Hold One, breathing within us, breathing among us, breathing around us in our beautiful yet wounded world.

-Chris Koellhoffer, IHM

DEACON DICK SUEVER

Deacon Dick Suever entered his heavenly home on December 26, 2020. He was preceded in death by his wife of more than 58 years, Ann M. Suever. He is survived by eight children: Rick Suever (Sharon) of Huntsville, Alabama; Karen Kimmey (Bob) of Urbana, Illinois; Sue Borchgrevink (Jack) of Houston, Texas; Patty Stephens of Atlanta, Georgia; Kathy Grey (David) of Maple Grove, Minnesota; David Suever (Beverly) of Atlanta, Georgia; Peggy Flynn (Larry) of Atlanta, Georgia; and Jay Suever (Debbie) of Atlanta, Georgia. Deacon Dick was fully committed to two things in his life: his family and his faith. He worked hard to provide for his growing family, often having two jobs to make ends meet. His faith provided a firm foundation on which he built his life. He was active in the founding of Holy Cross. He was ordained as a Permanent Deacon and served us for 25 years. In his own words he listed his ministry:

My 52 years of service to the Holy Cross Community by Dick Suever

Established several home discussions groups to bring parishioners together during the early days of Holy Cross parish.
Directed annual parish picnics at Mathis Dairy four (4) years with attendance averaging 1,500.
Taught on Elementary, High School and Adult levels for 10 years.
Facilitated God, You and Your Finances course based on scripture three (3) years with two eight-week sessions each year.
Facilitated evenings for couples' and parents' courses for three (3) years.
Introduced Stephen Ministry program to Holy Cross which my deceased wife Ann and I directed 10 years until trained leadership was in place.
Served as an active Deacon for 25 years.
After the Columbarium Project became impractical for Holy Cross, promoted Honey Creek Woodlands Natural Burial Ground at the monastery of The Holy Spirit where over 80 Holy Cross members have purchased burial plots.
Introduced Amigos for Christ Ministry to church membership in 2012. Recruited 150 for three (3) mission trips to Nicaragua.
Parishioners have donated over $400,000 in cash and goods for Amigos for Christ Work in Nicaragua.

Well done good and faithful servant of God!

El diácono Dick Suever entró en su hogar celestial el 26 de diciembre de 2020. Su esposa por más de 58 años, Ann M. Suever, le precedió en la muerte. Le sobreviven ocho hijos: Rick Suever (Sharon) de Huntsville, Alabama; Karen Kimmey (Bob) de Urbana, Illinois; Sue Borchgrevink (Jack) de Houston, Texas; Patty Stephens de Atlanta, Georgia; Kathy Gray (David) de Maple Grove, Minnesota; David Suever (Beverly) de Atlanta, Georgia; Peggy Flynn (Larry) de Atlanta, Georgia; y Jay Suever (Debbie) de Atlanta, Georgia. El diácono Dick estaba completamente comprometido con dos cosas en su vida: su familia y su fe. Trabajó duro para mantener a su familia en crecimiento, a menudo tenía dos trabajos para llegar a fin de mes. Su fe proporcionó una base firme sobre la que construyó su vida. Estuvo activo en la fundación de Holy Cross. Fue ordenado diácono permanente y nos sirvió durante 25 años. En sus propias palabras, enumeró su ministerio:

Mis 52 años de servicio a la comunidad de Holy Cross por Dick Suever

Establecí varios grupos de discusión en el hogar para unir a los feligreses durante los primeros días de la parroquia de Holy Cross.
Dirigí picnics parroquiales anuales en Mathis Dairy 4 años con una asistencia promedio de 1,500.
Enseñé en los niveles de primaria, preparatoria y adultos durante 10 años.
Facilité a Dios, ustedes y sus finanzas basado en las Escrituras durante 3 años con dos sesiones de ocho semanas cada año.
Facilité tardes de cursos de parejas y padres durante 3 años.
Presenté el programa Stephen Ministry a Holy Cross, que mi difunta esposa Ann y yo dirigimos durante 10 años hasta que se estableció el liderazgo capacitado.
Serví como diácono activo durante 25 años.
Después de que el Proyecto Columbario se volvió impráctico para Holy Cross, promoví el Cementerio Natural Honey Creek Woodlands en el monasterio del Espíritu Santo, donde más de 80 miembros de Holy Cross han comprado parcelas para el entierro.
Presenté el Ministerio Amigos por Cristo a la membresía de la iglesia en 2012. Recluté 150 personas para 3 viajes misioneros a Nicaragua. Los feligreses han donado más de $400,000 en efectivo y bienes para la obra de Amigos por Cristo en Nicaragua.

¡Bien hecho siervo bueno y fiel de Dios!
