Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time —Year B—February 14, 2021

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven

1. Praise, my soul, the King of heaven; To his feet they tribute bring; Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, Evermore his praises sing: Alleluia! Alleluia! Praise the everlasting King.

2. Praise him for his grace and favor To his children in distress; Praise him still the same as ever, Slow to chide and swift to bless: Alleluia! Alleluia! Glorious in his faithfulness.

Text: 87 87 87; based on Psalm 103; Henry F. Lyte, 1793–1847, alt. Music: John Goss, 1800–1880.

GLORY TO GOD

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and Invisible.

I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

COMMUNION HYMN

One Bread, One Body

Refrain: One bread, one body, one Lord of all, one cup of blessing which we bless. And we, though many, throughout the earth, we are one body in this one Lord.

Text: Based on 1 Corinthians 10:16–17; 12:4, 12–13, 20; Galatians 3:28; Ephesians 4:4–6; The Didache 9. Text and music © 1978, John B. Foley, S.J., and OCP. All rights reserved.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

O God Beyond All Praising

1. O God beyond all praising, we worship you today and sing the love amazing that songs cannot repay; For we can only wonder at ev'ry gift you send, At blessings without number and mercies without end. We lift our hearts before you and wait upon your word; We honor and adore you, our great and mighty Lord.

2. Then hear, O gracious Savior, accept the love we bring, That we who know your favor may serve you as our King; And whether our tomorrows be filled with good or ill, We'll triumph through our sorrows and rise to bless you still, To marvel at your beauty and glory in you ways, And make a joyful duty our sacrifice of praise.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:
He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp. (Lv 13:46)

PSALM:
I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble,
and you fill me with the joy of salvation. (Ps 32)

SECOND READING:
Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do,
do everything for the glory of God. (1 Cor 10:31)

GOSPEL:
The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. (Mk 1:42)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

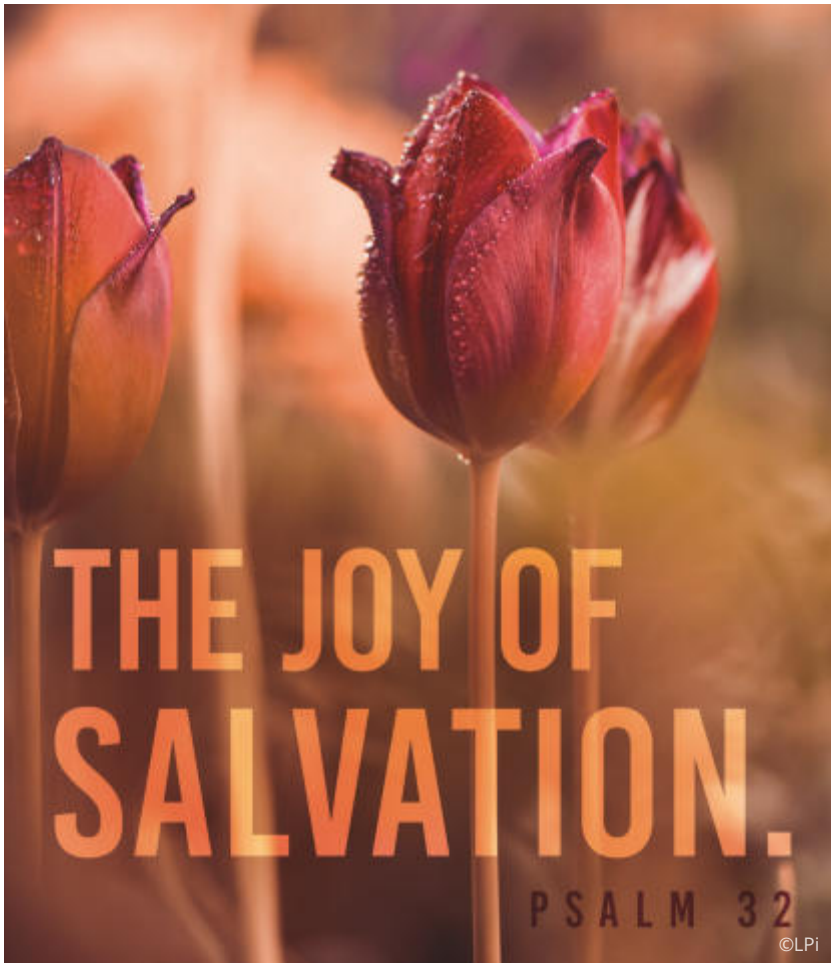
OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF FEBRUARY 14, 2021

Sunday:	6th Sunday in Ordinary Time; World Marriage Day; Valentine's Day
Monday:	Presidents' Day
Wednesday:	Ash Wednesday
Next Sunday:	1st Sunday of Lent



REFLECT

FIRST READING
Ancient Israel isolated those with leprosy fearing the disease would spread to others. In what way can this be seen as a form of compassion?

SECOND READING
Paul places a high value on avoiding unnecessary conflict. Why do you think this is an important virtue for a Christian?

GOSPEL READING
The man healed of leprosy disobeyed Jesus' command not to share with others what had happened. Why do you think the man did so?

FROM THE PASTOR

February 14 is popularly known as Valentine's Day where many people celebrate their love for their partner by sending cards, giving gifts or flowers and arranging meals in restaurants. But do you know the story behind the celebration of Valentine's Day? It will actually lead us to the life of St. Valentine. One story says that Valentine was a priest who served during the 3rd century in Rome. When Emperor Claudius II decided that single men made better soldiers than those with wives and families, he outlawed marriage for young men. Valentine, realizing the injustice of the decree, defied Claudius and continued to perform marriages for young lovers in secret. When Valentine's actions were discovered, Claudius ordered that he be put to death. Another story suggests that Valentine may have been imprisoned for attempting to help Christians escape harsh Roman prison and during his imprisonment he sent the first "valentine" greeting to a young girl—possibly his jailor's daughter—who visited him during his confinement. Before his death, he wrote her a letter signed "From your Valentine." In the course of time, February 14 was associated with romantic love especially in the Middle Ages in England and France. Then in 1981 couples from Louisiana, USA encouraged the mayor, the governor and the bishop to proclaim St. Valentine's Day as "We Believe in Marriage Day. The idea is to honor husband and wife as the foundation of the family – the basic unit of society and to acknowledge their faithfulness, sacrifice, and joy in their daily married life. Well, they gained more support until in 1983, the name was changed to "World Marriage Day," designated to be celebrated each year on the second Sunday in February. In 1993, Pope St. John Paul II, imparted his Apostolic Blessings on World Marriage Day. Its celebration continues to grow and spread to more countries and faith expressions every year. Happy Valentine's Day and Happy World Marriage Day to all married couples!

On the liturgical note, our Lenten Season begins this Wednesday as we celebrate Ash Wednesday. As customary on this day, we receive ashes. But this year because of COVID-19, imposition of ashes on our forehead will not be done. Instead the priest or lay minister will sprinkle a pinch of ashes in our head after the word of admonition had been said. This tradition reminds us of who we are and where we come from. That we come from God and we will return to God after our earthly journey ends. Second, we intend to undertake penitential practices during these Lenten days. We join the whole Church throughout the world in acknowledging our need for continuing conversion. We express our hope and firm conviction that through Christ's victory over sin and death our tears shall one day be turned to rejoicing and guided by acts of piety of prayer, fasting and almsgiving we hope that these can help us in order to have a meaningful observance of Lent.

Finally, please support our Lenten Fish Dinners every Friday of Lent except Good Friday. Our Lenten Fish Dinners will only be takeout, due to COVID-19 restrictions and guidelines.

Father Ron

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said,
"If you wish, you can make me clean."
Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched, and said to him,
"I do will it. Be made clean."
— Mark 1:40-41

Staying the course Quarantine is hard on relationships: both with the people you can't yet risk seeing in person, as well as those with whom you happen to be locked down. Families that have survived a long year of "acute togetherness" might congratulate each other on their success. Spouses, too, might reward each other for going the distance, without much distance, since last spring. Take some time to reflect together on ways your vital relationships have been tested in a long period of crisis. Ask for forgiveness where necessary. Offer yours freely.

Please remember in your prayers the soul of Kittanning parishioner Leno Gallo, the soul of Thomas Shaner - brother of Kittanning parishioner John Shaner, as well as Sister Marie Bernard - Sister of St. Joseph who taught at St. Mary School, who passed away recently. May God grant them eternal rest and peace.

WHY ARE WE HERE?
WHAT'S LIFE ALL ABOUT?

The Search Begins

https://vimeo.com/446879132
(Link to Trailer)

BROUGHT TO YOU BY FORMED

The Search* is an award winning, video-based program designed to enkindle wonder as it takes people on a journey examine or to revisit life's enduring questions.

Sometimes we get so caught up in our jobs, advancing our careers, our desire for material things, and our quest for power and money that we forget what it was/is like to wrestle with the big questions – Who am I? What am I searching for? What's our shared story? Who is Jesus? Why do we need a Church? Is there a God? We all need to get back to the basics to make sure our foundation is strong. How do we get reconnected to the things that really matter?

Lent is a season of reflection and preparation before Easter. What better way to prepare for the most sacred season of the Liturgical year than to sit down with a small group of family members and/or close friends to watch these outstanding videos and then to engage in thoughtful reflection and discussion.

There are several options to consider:

In-person Study:

We will be running an in-person study group at St. Mary Parish Hall, Kittanning. This program will be run as Bible studies and book studies have been run in the past. We will view the videos, break into smaller discussion groups (3-5 people) and then reconvene in the larger group to share our thoughts. Covid-19 guidelines and social distancing protocols will be maintained.

In-person Study will meet from 7:00 p.m. to 8:15 p.m. on Mondays, starting on February 15th and conclude on April 5th, at St. Mary Parish Hall, Kittanning.

Begins This Monday!

Small Groups:

Search small group can gather at the parish or in a home. The facilitator invites up to eight people to participate. The group can meet in person (face to face) or via a virtual format.

Virtual Option 1: Set a day and time each week for a small group (5–10 people) to meet online (Zoom, Google, Skype) to watch The Search together. Then have an online discussion. This will be about 1 to 1 ½ hours. Be advised that basic Zoom only allows 45 minutes.

Virtual Option 2: Have everyone watch The Search on their own each week and then have a set time to meet online for 30–45 minutes as a group to discuss.

The possibilities are endless and the presentation of the materials as well as the day of the week and the time of day can be tailored to meet the needs of the group.

Resources:

Whether in a large group, a small group or one-on-one discussion, The Search is best experienced with others. The combination of beautiful music, cinematography, and compelling testimony inspires thought-provoking and lively discussion. The Search Participant Guide will help a group grow, discuss, and internalize the main points / concepts and how they affect you.

We do have a limited supply of these guides available free of charge. If we need to purchase any additional Guides, we can accommodate.

For information on how to join a group, how to start a group or how to access resources, contact Jim Gaggini at 724-954-6853 or jgaggini@dioceseofgreensburg.org

What do You Seek?

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, February 17.

Modifications made for Ash Wednesday

The distribution of ashes will take place in a different fashion this year. To reduce the risk of transmitting the coronavirus, it is not permitted this year to sign the faithful with ashes in the customary fashion. Rather, on Ash Wednesday (Feb. 17), the tradition of being marked with ashes will take place in a different fashion, through a sprinkling with ashes.

The minister, using a thumb and index finger, secures a pinch of ashes from the vessel containing the ashes. Without using words, the minister then sprinkles the ashes on the heads of the recipients. Please remember that the reception of ashes on Ash Wednesday is not required. Whether participating in this ritual or not, all of the faithful are urged to undertake penitential practices during these Lenten days.

PRAY † FAST † GIVE

Forgiving God, draw us ever closer to you.
Encourage us to be still, to listen,
to remember, to act.
Fill us, protect us, renew us, be with us as we journey through Lent. Amen.

- Catholics in good health ages 18 to 59 are required to fast and to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
- Fasting consists of eating only one full meatless meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.
- Catholics age 14 and older are to abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

LITTLE BLACK BOOKS

Lenten booklets to foster increased prayer during Lent are available in the church at no cost to our parishioners. Please take one for yourself or your family.

Catholic Home Missions Collection to be taken Next Weekend

Every year, on the First Sunday of Lent, falling this year on the weekend of February 20 & 21, we take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the United States are considered home mission territory because they are unable to fund the essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support of this appeal helps ease the struggle of these dioceses. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Please help strengthen the Church at home, and prayerfully consider supporting this appeal.
