The resurrection of the Lord according to the gospels

None of the Evangelists describes the actual resurrection itself, for it was witnessed by no one. The gospels and 1 Corinthians witness to the fact of the resurrection, however, by the testimony to the empty tomb and the appearances of the Risen Christ to His disciples. Today's gospel passage (from John) brings an account of what happened on that first Easter morning as Mary Magdalene went to the tomb.

«On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb…»

All the Gospel accounts are in substantial agreement concerning the time when the tomb was first found to be empty, before dawn on Sunday morning. Mary Magdalene is named also by Matthew and Mark along with companions; Luke gives no names but speaks of "women" in the plural. In this verse John seems to make it appear that Mary Magdalene was alone but when she meets the apostles say, "we don't know where they put the Lord's body", from which it may be deducted that she wasn't alone. The gospel of Mark tells that "the women" came to the tomb. This is not, however the most important part, but what follows…

«...So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb… When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there,and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place… Then the other disciple also went in, and he saw and believed…»

The "other disciple" is John, the one who is writing this text.

The wrappings were flattened, deflated, as if they were emptied when the body of Jesus rose and disappeared – as if it had come out of the wrappings without their being undone, passing right through them (just as He later entered the Upper Room when the doors were shut). One can readily understand how this would amaze a witness, how unforgettable the scene would be.

The text talks also about the head cloth. This piece would have been tied, rolled like a triangular bandage, under the chin and over the top of the head to secure the mouth in a closed position.

«...and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place…»

The first point to note is that it was not with the other wrappings, but placed to one side. The second, even more surprising thing is that, unlike the clothes, it still has a certain volume; the word "rolled up" leads to this conclusion.

From these details concerning the empty tomb one deduces that Jesus' body must have risen in a heavenly manner, that is, in a way which transcended the laws of nature. It was not only a matter of the body being reanimated as happened, for example, in the case of Lazarus, who had to be un-bound before he could walk.

No one watched the actual event of the resurrection of Christ, but all the details described here support enough evidence of the greatest act ever occurred in history,
the Resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ.
Christ is Risen, Hallelujah!

Tax Free Contribution Information

If you are over 70 ½ and have an IRA or similar retirement account you may be required to take annual distributions prescribed by the IRS. These distributions are usually taxed at your ordinary income tax rate.

A new law was passed on 12/15/2015 which may allow you to contribute any part of your IRA including these required distributions to St. Mark TAX FREE!

Example: If you contribute $5000 from your IRA to St. Mark and are in a 20% tax bracket, the church receives the $5000 and you may save $1000 in taxes.

A WIN-WIN for both the church and the parishioner!

If your tax advisor agrees and you want to contribute from your 2021 required annual distribution or even from your current IRA, instruct your IRA custodian to make the check out to: St. Mark the Evangelist Catholic Church. They can either send it to you or directly to the church.

This is a great way to fulfill your pledge and/or contribute your annual offering in a lump sum.
