GO DEEPER into Today's Gospel

St. Teresa of Calcutta shares a story that talks about seeing Jesus in the Eucharist and seeing Jesus in the poor people in the streets of Calcutta:

"Our sisters had to go to the home of the dying. And before they went, I said to them: "See, you are going there, during Mass – we always have Mass and Holy Communion before we go – and I said, "You saw during Holy Mass with what tenderness, with what love, father was touching the Body of Christ. Make sure it is the same body in the poor that you will be touching. Give that same love, that same tenderness." They went off. After three hours, they returned, and one of them came up to my room and said, "Mother, I've been touching the body of Christ for three hours!" Her face was shining with joy. "What did you do?" I asked. "Well, just as we arrived, they brought a man covered with maggots. He has been picked up from a drain. For three hours, I have been touching the body of Christ. I knew it was He." There was this young sister who had understood that Jesus cannot be deceived. He has said so, "I was sick, and you took care of me."

What tremendous faith does Mother Teresa encourage her sisters to find! As an American, I cannot fathom the extreme poverty that is the daily experience of the Missionaries of Charity in India. I cannot understand the depth of love for Jesus that Mother Teresa carried in her heart until the day she died. But what I can see is how her love for Jesus was not separated from her love of the poor and for each of her Sisters, and everyone she met. For her, it was one and the same love shown to Jesus and to the poor. Behind the stench of rotting flesh, behind the character flaws, and even behind the lack of gratitude of those whom she serves, Mother Teresa did everything with love as an expression of her love for Jesus. Her example can be off-putting to us because it is so simple and so profound; it lacks a sophisticated explanation and an academic rigor. Her witness is convicting to us because there is no duplicity between her beliefs and her actions. Her impact resonated across the globe because she despised the celebrity status that came to her.

If you have a medical need to avoid gluten, please see the sacristan at least 10 minutes before Mass begins to request a low-gluten host.

Next Sunday's Readings

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ezekiel	17:22-24
2 Corinthians	5:6-10
Mark	4:26-34

Our theological reflections would say that there's a vertical dimension to the Eucharist, one that expresses the awe and reverence for the mystery confected in the sacrament. There is also the horizontal dimension wherein our lives are fueled by the Eucharist that consumes us each time we receive communion. Some of us might tend to focus on one or the other aspect, but not Mother. For her, they are the same, for how can we say we love Jesus if we don't love the poor whom he loved? Mother Teresa continues, "We must be completely free [of sin and worldly attachments] to belong wholly to Jesus Christ. Can I, in sincerity, say, 'Jesus is really living in me now?' Have I come to know Jesus in reality, not only in imagination? Externally, I might be very recollected and prayerful, but this counts for nothing, Sisters, unless deep down you can see that Jesus is really there."

… there is also the horizontal dimension wherein our lives are fueled by the Eucharist that consumes us …

Rightly so, the Church offers us this Solemnity of the source and summit of our faith. It is a treasure far beyond human understanding. And yet it is a reality of Christian faith both intimately personal, and communally binding, one that is not confined to the laws of space and time yet operates there to give us a mystical foretaste of our eternal destiny. What we experience in Holy Communion, let's share with the world without hesitation or reserve … not just on Sunday, but every day. Not just when it's easy or when I "feel good," but most especially when it's costly and difficult.

Priest. Soldier. POW. Medal of Honor Recipient.

Servant of God Fr. Emil Kapaun

April 20, 1916 - May 23, 1951

Chaplain Emil Joseph Kapaun is one of many soldiers who laid down their lives for us Americans. He did so while ministering to thousands of American GIs when he served as a Catholic priest for the Army during World War II and the Korean War.

Born April 20, 1916, on a farm in Kansas, Emil was ordained for the Diocese of Wichita in Kansas in 1940. In 1943, he was appointed auxiliary chaplain at the Herington Army Airfield in Kansas.

The following year, Fr. Kapaun became a military chaplain at Camp Wheeler in Georgia, where he and another priest ministered to 19,000 soldiers. He was then sent to India and would sometimes travel nearly 2,000 miles to reach soldiers and local missions across the Burma Theater. He was promoted to the rank of Captain in January 1946.

He quickly earned a reputation for being a fearless soldier who risked his life to minister to the men fighting on the front lines.

Fr. Kapaun also served in the Korean War in the 1950s. As a chaplain in the 8th Cavalry Regiment, 1st Cavalry Division, he poured heart, soul, and strength into caring for the spiritual, mental, and physical welfare of his fellow soldiers.

While in Korea, he was honored for rescuing the wounded and administering Last Rites to the dying. He offered the Holy Mass, performed baptisms, heard confessions, and gave Holy Communion. In his letters to family and friends, Fr. Kapaun expressed conviction that everyone's prayers helped him survive.

At one time, Kapaun and his assistant learned of a wounded soldier stranded in the middle of enemy fire. They immediately went out to rescue him and saved the soldier's life. This courageous act earned Fr. Kapaun the Bronze Star Medal: "With total disregard for personal safety, Chaplain Kapaun and his companion went after the wounded man…The entire route to the wounded soldier was under intense enemy machine gun and small arms fire. However, Chaplain Kapaun successfully evacuated the soldier" (Bronze Star Award description).

When the Chinese People's Volunteer Army invaded at the Battle of Unsan, Fr. Kapaun braved enemy gunfire again and rescued nearly forty soldiers—for which he received the Medal of Honor in 2012, over sixty years after his death. The Chinese then captured him (he had a chance to escape and did not take it, preferring to stay with his men) and several other American soldiers, sending them to a prisoner of war camp. Although many died each day from disease, malnutrition, and horrific conditions, Fr. Kapaun refused to despair. He continued to minister to the POWs, shared his food with them, and gave them the will to live and persevere.

While in the POW camp, Fr. Kapaun contracted pneumonia and developed a blood clot in one of his legs. He grew weaker daily, but still held a forbidden service on Easter Sunday in 1951 in defiance of the Communist captors.

Chaplain Emil Joseph Kapaun died on May 23, 1951, one of twelve American chaplains to die in Korea. Pope St. John Paul II named him a Servant of God in 1993, the first step in the process of canonization.

Fr. Emil Kapaun, pray for us!

Dear Volunteers,

Did you know we have over 300+ volunteers doing wonderful things in our parish community? Our parish would NOT be the same without you! You are our SUPER STARS!

Have you noticed the computer station in main church in the front vestibule? The Diocese of Venice is in the process of implementing a new volunteer management system called Volgistics. It is required for insurance purposes. This program will be in effect by August with a "soft" start in July. ALL churches in the Diocese of Venice are required to use this program.

GET YOUR PIN WEEKENDS!
For ALL Daily and Weekend Volunteers.

During the last part of June (the weekends of June 19/20 and 26/27) and all weekends in the month of July, you will be able to get a card with your "PIN" - a four-digit number. A volunteer will be stationed at the computer kiosk on Sundays BEFORE each mass to give you your PIN card. ALL VOLUNTEERS will be required to sign in and out on the day they serve. Once you get your "pin" you may begin signing in and out as you volunteer.

In the fall, choir members will have their own kiosk in the chapel with Monica. Volunteers who come to the office (ie. Homebound, Hospital, Nursing Home, Purificator washers, etc.), will have a kiosk in the main office. Catechists and other groups will have a kiosk in the Monsignor Moretti Center.

If you have any questions or concerns, please call me at 941-795-2540. Thank you for your assistance as we implement this required program.

We Can Prepare the Upper Room

We all know that person, don't we? Hey, maybe we've even been that person.

"I have a great relationship with God, but I don't go to church regularly. God and I are on good terms. I can talk to Him just fine on my own."

There isn't anything false in these statements. It's important to have an intimate, even conversational prayer relationship with God. But the problem with this attitude is that it implies that churches don't matter. Community worship doesn't matter. Today, we are reminded exactly why that is so untrue. Why we need our parishes, our priests, and each other.

The Body and Blood of Christ – that's what it's all about. If it's not about that, it's not about anything. If we don't have the Eucharist, we're just like the ancient priests, making sacrifices that don't have the power to redeem anybody.

Where do we receive the Body and Blood of Christ? For most of us, it's in our parishes. The altar of sacrifice is also the table we gather in front of, as a family, to become one with Christ in the truest and realest way possible, recreating the scene in the Upper Room over and over again every time Mass is celebrated.

The disciples were commissioned by Christ to prepare the Upper Room for the Last Supper. How can we take up that work ourselves? How can we strengthen the bonds in our spiritual family? How can we serve our parish, always remembering that the table is not meant to be set only for two?

Tidewell offers free community celebration of life ceremonies

Manatee County
6-7 p.m. Thursday, June 17
Bradenton Riverwalk Amphitheater
606 Third Ave. W., Bradenton

As the community's free grief services provider, Tidewell Hospice and its colleagues are keenly aware of how many people are struggling with unprocessed grief due to COVID-19 restrictions. Families who have experienced such loss have missed out on funerals, celebrations of life and weddings.

Knowing how many people in our community have not had the opportunity to publicly gather and process their grief, Tidewell Hospice and the Tidewell Foundation are hosting free community celebration of life ceremonies.

The events provide a brief ceremony and an opportunity to gather to honor the loss of a loved one, friend, caregiver, coworker or even a beloved pet or change in life status.

The ceremonies begin with music played as guests arrive, followed by the program. An optional walk will be offered after the ceremony to provide an opportunity for those who would like to reflect in guided meditation.

Social distancing and wearing of masks will be enforced to ensure the safety of participants. The events will be outdoors and, in the event of rain, canceled and rescheduled for a later date. No RSVP is required. For more information, call 941-552-7546.
