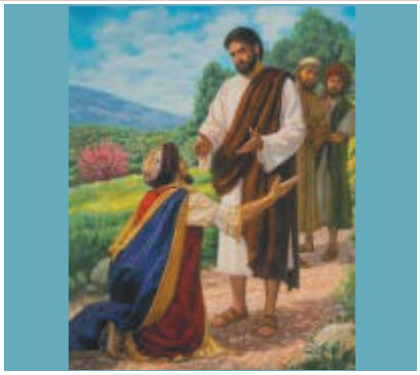
Twenty eighth Sunday
in Ordinary Time
October 10, 2021

Fill us with your love, O Lord,
and we will sing for joy!
(Ps 90)



The rich young man in today's Gospel reading would probably be surprised to discover that his philosophy of life continues to be highly popular today, two thousand years later. He strived to live an upright life. He followed the commandments. He inflicted no harm on others. And yet Jesus rebuked him because he was so attached to his wealth. Despite all his impressive qualities, this man trusted in his possessions more than he trusted in God.

Why did Jesus tell this young man to give away all that he had? Such radical poverty wasn't part of his regular preaching. He never told Jairus, a well-off synagogue official, to give up his wealth. And he even rebuked his disciples when they suggested that one woman's gift of expensive perfume should have been sold to help the poor. Jesus' problem with the young man wasn't his wealth in itself. It was the way his wealth controlled him.

We all participate in some form of idolatry. It's part of our fallen nature. We make idols out of money, celebrities, sex, recreation, and work. Jesus' message to the rich young man is really a message to all of us. If we want to follow Jesus, we must call him Lord and do the things he commands (Luke 6:46). We must deny ourselves and take up the cross (Mark 8:34).

In the end, we are left to wonder whether Jesus really wanted the man to give it all away or if he was just testing him, as God tested Abraham. But we are not left to wonder about Jesus' goal. He wanted to sanctify this fellow, and for that to happen, the idol of wealth had to go.

Jesus wants to sanctify us as well. This is why we have the Sacrament of Reconciliation. When we confess our idols, we find ourselves closer to Jesus. We hear him assure us that the kingdom of God is ours. And best of all, we see him looking on us with a love that purifies, inspires, and empowers us.

"Jesus, open my eyes to the idols I have set up before you.
Lord, I want to inherit eternal life with you!"

God Bless,

Dear Fellow Parishioners,
Thank you for your support over the years for our monthly Pancake Breakfasts. Whether at home or abroad, charity is our Order's first principle and the basis for all we do as your brother Knights. As you enjoy a great breakfast, you are helping those in need, who give thanks to God and you.
Jesus told a parable (about being a good neighbor) that contrasted religious people, without compassion, with a Samaritan, whom Jews regarded as half-breed spiritual outcasts:
"A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise, a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight.
"He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.'"
"Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."
Doing 'likewise' is the Knights of Columbus mission. Let's all be good neighbors. Peace be with you.

Palabra De Vida

"Un proverbio irlandés dice: 'En el refugio del otro vive cada uno'. En verdad, hemos sido creados para depender unos de otros y caminar juntos en el sufrimiento. Pero cuando familiares o amigos se acercan al final de la vida, puede que no sepamos la mejor manera de darles 'refugio'. He aquí algunas maneras concretas en que podemos cuidar compasivamente de ellos.

Divine Will

Book of Heaven, Volume 8, pgs. 26-27, December 1907, Jesus to Luisa: " My daughter, My Mother left the house the day of My Passion only to be able to meet and comfort Her Son. In the same way, the intention of the truly loving soul in all of its work is only to meet its Beloved and relieve Him from the weight of His Cross. And since human life is composed of continuous actions, whether they be interior or exterior, the soul does nothing other than continuously meet with its Beloved.Will the soul only meet Him? No, no! The soul will greet Him, console Him, and love Him. Perhaps, it be a little word said on the run; He will remain happy and paid. And since the action always contains a sacrifice, if the action is useful to find the sacrifice that is inside of that action, it will be useful to relieve Me from the weight of My Cross. What will be the happiness of this soul, who, in his work, is in continuous contact with Me? How My love will always grow more in each meeting that he will have with Me through his work! But, how few use these actions to find the short road of the sacrifice in that act in order to come to Me and draw close to Me and relieve Me from the so many afflictions that creatures give Me !" A Priest Forever
Nine signs of Renewal and Hope
by Alfred McBride

In this very personal and moving reflection on the meaning of the priesthood, Father Alfred McBride explores a priest's commitment to feed the people and witness the church's social teachings, to spend time in daily prayer, to find solutions to the crisis of priestly identity plaguing today's priests, and to become a man of personal mercy in all one's dealings as a priest.
A Priest Forever is McBride's search for fresh growths in vocations as well as new hope in the hearts of priests everywhere who again say, Yes, Lord; to the challenge of love of God and our beloved people. Simply put, Alfred McBride sees in faith the renewal of Catholic priests. Dewey Number 253

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Lay men and women can serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion here at St. Bonaventure Catholic Church. They assist the priests and deacons with the distribution of the Eucharist to our parish community. Being part of "the body of Christ, giving the body of Christ, to the body of Christ" is such a blessing. With your participation in the holiest of sacraments; the Eucharist, you answer Christ's call to service which is a manifestation of His love and mercy in this world.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion serve during mass.

They also bring Communion to the sick and homebound of our parish community.

We invite you to consider the possibility of serving as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion either in a traditional parish mass setting, the parish community sick & homebound or both.

We ask you to pray for this ministry, for the Lord's blessings and guidance as we continue to serve Him and His people. May He clear the way so that many more may answer His call to service.

For further information, please feel free to reach out to us. We will be happy to discuss this with you.
