Pastoral Scene

St. Michael the Archangel

How did this beautiful and powerful prayer St. Michael the Archangel come to be? On October 13, 1884, Pope Leo XIII received a terrifying vision of what the next hundred years would bring if Satan had free rein over the world. After Pope Leo XIII saw this horrifying vision, he said to those near him, "Oh, what terrible images I have been permitted to see!" Rushing to his office, he then composed the St. Michael the Archangel Prayer. It would soon be a requirement to recite at the end of all Masses.

Unfortunately, the Second Vatican Council removed this obligation. Still, some Churches recite this powerful prayer at the end of each Mass. We are so blessed to be one of these Churches!

It is important to keep calling upon St. Michael to defend us from all evil attacks from Satan. How do we see its effectiveness? When the prayer was suppressed in 1964, moral distortions more fully entered family and society: pornography, birth control, and the legalization of abortion in many countries, same sex marriage, people mutilating their bodies thinking God created them wrong, etc. These same corruptions (and many more) are still prevalent in our times.

St. Padre Pio, who was in constant attack by Satan (even physically... his fellow monks could hear the noises coming from his room) reminds us, "You will need the help of St. Michael living in this world." In our world where family and our traditional Catholic values are constantly under attack by Satan, we need this special protection. Through the intercession of St. Michael, we can trust in God's very special Archangel to defend us in our daily battles with Satan.

St. Michael the Archangel, pray for us.
Molly

First Reading Exodus 20:1-17

In those days, God delivered all these commandments:

“I, the LORD, am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other gods besides me. You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything in the sky above or on the earth below or in the waters beneath the earth; you shall not bow down before them or worship them. For I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God, inflicting punishment for their fathers’ wickedness on the children of those who hate me, down to the third and fourth generation; but bestowing mercy down to the thousandth generation on the children of those who love me and keep my commandments.

“You shall not take the name of the LORD, your God, in vain. For the LORD will not leave unpunished the one who takes his name in vain.

“Remember to keep holy the sabbath day. Six days you may labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD, your God. No work may be done then either by you, or your son or daughter, or your male or female slave, or your beast, or by the alien who lives with you. In six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them; but on the seventh day he rested. That is why the LORD has blessed the sabbath day and made it holy.

“Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you.

You shall not kill.

You shall not commit adultery.

You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

You shall not covet your neighbor’s house.

You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass, nor anything else that belongs to him.”

The Responsorial Psalm Psalm 19:8-11

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The law of the LORD is perfect,
refreshing the soul;

The decree of the LORD is trustworthy,
giving wisdom to the simple.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The precepts of the LORD are right,
rejoicing the heart;
the command of the LORD is clear,
enlightening the eye.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The fear of the LORD is pure,
enduring forever;
the ordinances of the LORD are true,
all of them just.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

They are more precious than gold,
than a heap of purest gold;
sweeter also than syrup
or honey from the comb.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

READINGS & SONGS

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 1:22-25

Brothers and sisters: Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

Gospel John 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken.

While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing. But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.
