3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

Un poco más adelante, vio a Santiago y a Juan, hijos de Zebedeo, que estaban en una barca, remendando sus redes. Los llamó, y ellos, dejando en la barca a su padre con los trabajadores, se fueron con Jesús. - Mc 1, 19-20

Brothers and sisters;
Health officials have notified us that the Covid vaccine is available in Rome for: adults 65 or older or a caregiver, law enforcement officers, firefighters or first responders. As we have been advised by the CDC, by our Archbishop Gregory John Hartmayer, and by local hospital officials at Redmond and Floyd Medical Centers, it is very important that we get vaccinated in order to start building up "herd immunity" against Covid-19. Our sister parishioner, Dr Beauchamp, has offered to advise any parishioners with questions about the vaccine. You may contact her at mbeauchamp@harbinclinic.com
Thanks! Fr. Rafa

Scheduled time for Confessions:
Thursdays at 4:30pm at the Gazebo Memorial Garden at St Mary's Church
Saturdays at 3:00pm at St Mary's School
Also you can schedule an appointment for confession.

Pope Francis words

Jesus invites his disciples to experience in the present a taste of eternity: the love of God and neighbour. He does this the only way he can, God's way, by awakening tenderness and love of mercy, by awakening compassion and opening their eyes to see reality as God does. He invites them to generate new bonds, new covenants rich in eternal life.

Jesus walks through the city with his disciples and begins to see, to hear, to notice those who have given up in the face of indifference, laid low by the grave sin of corruption. He begins to bring to light many situations that had killed the hope of his people and to awaken a new hope. He calls his disciples and invites them to set out with him. He calls them to walk through to the city, but at a different pace; he teaches them to notice what they had previously overlooked, and he points out new and pressing needs. Repent, he tells them. The Kingdom of Heaven means finding in Jesus a God who gets involved with the lives of his people. He gets involved and involves others not to be afraid to make of our history a history of salvation (cf. Mk 1:15, 21).

Jesus continues to walk on our streets. He knocks today, as he did yesterday, on our doors and hearts, in order to rekindle the flame of hope and the aspiration that breakdown can be overcome by fraternity, injustice defeated by solidarity, violence silenced by the weapons of peace. Jesus continues to call us; he wants to anoint us with his Spirit so that we too can go out to anoint others with the oil capable of healing wounded hopes and renewing our way of seeing things.

Jesus continues to walk and to awaken hope, a hope that frees us from empty associations and impersonal analyses. He encourages us to enter like leaven into where we are, where we live, into every corner of our daily life. The kingdom of heaven is among you, he tells us. It is there wherever we strive to show a little tenderness and compassion, wherever we are unafraid to create spaces for the blind to see, the paralyzed to walk, lepers to be cleansed and the deaf to hear (cf. Lk 7:22), so that all those we had given up for lost can enjoy the resurrection. God will never tire of setting out to meet his children. How will we enkindle hope if prophets are lacking? How will we face the future if unity is lacking? How will Jesus reach all those corners if daring and courageous witnesses are lacking?

Today the Lord calls each of you to walk with him in the city, in your city. He invites you to become his missionary disciple, so that you can become part of that great whisper that wants to keep echoing in the different corners of our lives: Rejoice, the Lord is with you!

Hermanos y hermanas;
Los funcionarios de salud nos han notificado que la vacuna Covid está disponible en Rome para: adultos de 65 años ó más, ó quien los cuida, agentes del orden público, bomberos ó socorristas. Como nos han aconsejado el CDC (Centro de Control de Enfermedades de EEUU), nuestro arzobispo Gregory John Hartmayer y los funcionarios de los hospitales locales de Redmond y Floyd, es muy importante que nos vacunemos para comenzar a desarrollar la "inmunidad colectiva" contra el Covid-19. Nuestra feligresa hermana, la Dra. Beauchamp, se ha ofrecido a asesorar a los feligreses que tengan preguntas sobre la vacuna. Puede contactarla en mbeauchamp@harbinclinic.com
¡Gracias! P. Rafa

El Papa Francisco nos habla

Jesús invitó a sus discípulos a vivir hoy lo que tiene sabor a eternidad: el amor a Dios y al prójimo; y lo hace de la única manera que lo puede hacer, a la manera divina: suscitando la ternura y el amor de misericordia, suscitando la compasión y abriendo sus ojos para que aprendan a mirar la realidad a la manera divina. Los invita a generar nuevos lazos, nuevas alianzas portadoras de eternidad.

Jesús camina la ciudad con sus discípulos y comienza a ver, a escuchar, a prestar atención a aquellos que habían sucumbido bajo el manto de la indiferencia, lapidados por el grave pecado de la corrupción. Comienza a develar muchas situaciones que asfixiaban la esperanza de su pueblo suscitando una nueva esperanza. Llama a sus discípulos y los invita a ir con Él, los invita a caminar la ciudad, pero les cambia el ritmo, les enseña a mirar lo que hasta ahora pasaban por alto, les señala nuevas urgencias. Conviértanse, les dice, el Reino de los Cielos es encontrar en Jesús a Dios que se mezcla vitalmente con su pueblo, se implica e implica a otros a no tener miedo de hacer de esta historia, una historia de salvación (cf. Mc 1,15.21 y ss.).

Jesús sigue caminando por nuestras calles, sigue al igual que ayer golpeando puertas, golpeando corazones para volver a encender la esperanza y los anhelos: que la degradación sea superada por la fraternidad, la injusticia vencida por la solidaridad y la violencia callada con las armas de la paz. Jesús sigue invitando y quiere ungirnos con su Espíritu para que también nosotros salgamos a ungir con esa unción, capaz de sanar la esperanza herida y renovar nuestra mirada.

Jesús sigue caminando y despierta la esperanza que nos libra de conexiones vacías y de análisis impersonales e invita a involucrarnos como fermento allí donde estemos, donde nos toque vivir, en ese rinconcito de todos los días. El Reino de los cielos está entre ustedes —nos dice— está allí donde nos animemos a tener un poco de ternura y compasión, donde no tengamos miedo a generar espacios para que los ciegos vean, los paralíticos caminen, los leprosos sean purificados y los sordos oigan (cf. Lc 7,22) y así todos aquellos que dábamos por perdidos gocen de la Resurrección. Dios no se cansa ni se cansará de caminar para llegar a sus hijos. A cada uno. ¿Cómo encenderemos la esperanza si faltan profetas? ¿Cómo encararemos el futuro si nos falta unidad? ¿Cómo llegará Jesús a tantos rincones, si faltan audaces y valientes testigos?

Hoy el Señor te invita a caminar con Él la ciudad, te invita a caminar con Él tu ciudad. Te invita a que seas discípulo misionero, y así te vuelvas parte de ese gran susurro que quiere seguir resonando en los distintos rincones de nuestra vida: ¡Alégrate, el Señor está contigo!
