RETROUVAILL

Sometimes things can go very wrong in a marriage. Retrouvaille is a program to help heal and support married couples experiencing difficulties, couples broken, lonely and hurting. It's also for couples who have separated or divorced and want to try again. Our next program is at San Pedro Center, Winter Park, April 16-18, 2021. For more information and registration, call 352-274-4614. All calls and names held in strictest confidence.* We invite you to visit our website at Retrouvaille.org.

Ministry of Treasure

Ministerio del Tesoro

Total offertory for 03/08/2021 - 03/14/2021 was $20,000.01. THANK YOU!! And, thank you for your continued donations to our Food Pantry, School Endowment, Faith Formation program and more! Your generosity continues to bless our parish community each and every day!

Resurrection Community Food Pantry

The pantry serves about 400 different families each month while volunteers log about 400 hours each month to pick up, weigh, sort, shelve, pack, and distribute the food. New volunteers are always welcome.

Society St. Vincent de Paul

"No Form of Charity is Foreign to the Society". Sometimes this requires thinking out of the box. Recently, we partnered with Talbot House and Catholic Charities to help an individual apply for US citizenship and SS benefits. Working with two other local agencies we are providing shelter for a homeless families and much needed beds, car seats, and furniture for another. Soon, we will be introducing to the local community, a free workshop to help people living in poverty move to a better life for themselves and their families. All while continuing to provide financial assistance for rent, utility bills, etc. to the poor in the local community. Is God calling you to help the less fortunate among us? Visit us at https://svdpwesterndistrict.org or contact us at 863-370-9820 to find out how you can also see the "Face of Christ" in the poor.

RESURRECTION
CATHOLIC CHURCH & SCHOOL

Guided by the Gospel of Jesus and the teachings of the Catholic faith, Resurrection Catholic School fosters compassion, character, knowledge and service.

Principal's Principles: A Message from Mrs. Schwope

Our God is a God of compassion, love, and forgiveness. He challenges each of us to be His heart and body on Earth. How many times a day do you take the time to listen to those you meet and hear, really hear their needs? In this time of Lent we are called to do exactly that. A simple word or gesture can turn someone's day around. We are so overstimulated by worry and concern that it is challenging to be that person who serves others. Make a vow to yourself to work hard at being Christ's hands this Lenten season. I promise you, you own heart will thank you for it.

Circle K, Bob Evans, Hair Cuttery, Claires, Nordstrom. Qdoba, Disney, Krispy Kreme, Macy's, Buffalo Wild Wings

Second Grade Getting Ready for First Communion

Second graders visited the church with Fr. LaBo to ask questions and discus areas of the church. They talked about the tabernacle and what would happen when they received the sacrament of the Eucharist for the first time. They had so many questions for the pastor and enjoyed their "field trip".

Consider a Catholic education for your child.
Please give us a call at 863-644-3931, or visit www.rcslakeland.org you to Resurrection Catholic School!

What is Spiritual Communion?

The practice of making a "spiritual communion" dates back several centuries and St. Thomas Aquinas described it as "an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Holy Sacrament and a loving embrace as though we had already received Him." Traditionally, a prayer of spiritual communion has been used by those who are unable to receive sacramental communion because of health, inability to attend Mass, or who cannot receive communion because of grave sin. This practice has been encouraged by many saints and spiritual writers and most recently Pope Francis encouraged the practice when the realities of the COVID-19 pandemic prevented so many Catholics from taking part in the Mass or receiving sacramental communion.

Although the graces offered in spiritual communion are not the same as those offered in the sacramental communion of the Mass, this practice is still a powerful opportunity to express our desire for union with the Lord and to be united with Christ and the Church, even in an imperfect way.

When Our Own Hour Comes

We parents know that it's tricky, tackling the topic of fear with our kids. We want them to know that it's okay to be scared, that it's something we all feel from time to time. We want them to understand that bravery isn't the absence of fear, but the choices we make in persevering despite that feeling.

Most of all, we want to model the right kind of behavior for our kids. Whatever our scary situation is — illness, a job loss, life changes — we want them to see us make a choice to face that fear head-on.

Jesus seems to be the parent who is gently broaching the topic of fear with his children. A great sense of foreboding hangs over these readings. Jesus knew what was coming. He knew it was going to be hard, both for him and for his followers, who did not have his courage. Even he admits to being "troubled" and he speaks of "the time of judgment." There is the dramatic raising of Lazarus, the talk of how a grain of wheat must die in order to bear fruit, the depiction of Christ as an obedient student of his own suffering.

"Yet what should I say?" he asks them. "'Father, save me from this hour?' But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour."

This week, Christ gives us a very parental gift: He shows us his fear, and he shows us how to conquer it. He challenges us to embrace the purpose for which we came to this hour — whatever that hour may hold.

A Gospel Meditation

MARCH 14TH, 2021 | 4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

5th Sunday of Lent

Any good teacher or parent will tell you that once a lesson is really learned it doesn't need to be taught again. When we internalize things we have learned, they become a part of who we are and influence how we perceive and interact with our world. The same is true for the law God has written upon our hearts. Once humanity learns this lesson, we will simply know it to be true and act accordingly. Sometimes, it is hard to get people to learn the lessons they need to learn. They are often distracted, disinterested, conflicted, misdirected, or just too stubborn and unable or unwilling to see what is right before their eyes. Understanding that God is in a loving and committed relationship with those fashioned and formed in God's own image, seems like such a simple lesson to learn. But history and experience has proven that it is not.

We struggle with faith, especially when that faith asks us to learn something very particular about ourselves. We must, like a grain of wheat, fall to the ground and die. Because God's DNA is at the very core of who we are, there are specific pearls of wisdom that must be acquired before we can live a full life. One very powerful lesson is that it is not the task of the world to tell us who we are and what has meaning, but God. For many, death is not an opportunity for greater life but a permanent ending to the life they have known. Jesus knew every dimension to what it means to be fully human because he was! He knows the joys, limitations, sorrows, frustrations, wonders, suffering, opportunities, and joys of the human experience. Jesus can teach us a wealth of knowledge and life's lessons from his example, especially obedience.

When we accept the law God has placed in our hearts and gain wisdom from it, then when we suffer we learn to listen more attentively to the Voice behind that law. We naturally flee to our Creator for inspiration, consolation, hope, direction, and comfort as we navigate through this time of darkness. We will not need to run from it, subdue it, fight it, or be overcome by it because we will know, having internalized this profound lesson before, that God will bring new life. God's law is love and love never fails. Even in the moments of Jesus' deepest despair, he glorified the name of his Father. What he learned allowed him to put everything in perspective and be obedient to the tender, loving Voice that echoed within. As Lent quickly winds down, may we learn the same! Then, may we gain the fortitude and wisdom to help others see what is right before their eyes.

4er Domingo de Cuaresma

"Jesús dijo: "Desátenlo y déjenlo caminar" (Juan 11:44). Ya estamos al umbral de la Pasión del Señor. A lo largo de la Cuaresma, hemos escuchado el amor de Dios por nosotros en cada mensaje del Evangelio. Desde las tentaciones de Jesús en el desierto, la transfiguración, la samaritana, el ciego de nacimiento, y hoy, la liturgia que nos sitúa en la resurrección de Lázaro, el Evangelio es de amor y vida. De estar atado de pies y manos, ha desatado, caminando libremente. Hoy el Señor nos desata de nuestros pecados, si lo deseamos. La promesa del Padre sigue viva en su Hijo Amado. Jesús lo afirma con sus palabras: Yo soy la resurrección y la vida. El que cree en mí, aunque muera, vivirá. El que vive, el que cree en mí, no morirá para siempre" (Juan 11:25-26).

Con Lázaro resucitado, Jesús anuncia su resurrección. Quien entendió bien el mensaje fue Marta, con su respuesta dada a la pregunta de Jesús: "Sí, Señor; yo creo que tú eres el Cristo, el Hijo de Dios, el que tenía que venir al mundo" (Juan 11:27). El Santo Padre, dijo que el Señor "Nos invita, casi nos ordena, que salgamos de la tumba en la cual nuestros pecados nos han hundido. Nos llama insistentemente a salir de la oscuridad de la prisión en la que estamos encerrados, conformándonos con una vida falsa, egoísta, mediocre. 'Salí afuera!', nos dice. '¡Salí afuera!'". (Radio Vaticana 6 de abril 2014). El reto es salir sin miedo, confiando en la providencia de Dios, y en todo lo que se pueda hacer por desatar los nudos de la vida de los unos y los otros.
