Have Your Children Left the Catholic Church? - A troubling statistic shows that 50% of young people raised Catholic are no longer practicing Catholics today. The Catholic Church is losing young people at an alarming rate. Behind this are millions of mothers, fathers and grandparents praying for their children and grandchildren to come home to the Church. To understand why young people drift away Brandon Vogt and Word of Fire Ministries released the book "Return: How to Draw Your Child Back to the Church". The passive wait-and-see approach is no longer an option. We need a game plan to bring them home! For further information or to order the book please visit "Return: How to Draw Your Child Back to the Church" by Brandon Vogt (wordonfire.org).

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: Why haven't Catholic Churches gone the way of disposable cups for wine distribution?

Answer:

If a Catholic has ever attended a Protestant worship service and saw the communion service that was offered for that community, one of the things that might have stood out was the use of small, disposable cups for distributing the wine or grape juice. This is in stark contrast to the precious metal chalices used in Catholic churches during the Mass.

Although practices for Protestant Christians can vary (ranging from large shared chalices, to personal-use cups, to dipping the bread in the wine/grape juice), the norms governing Catholic practices are fairly direct: "Sacred vessels are to be made from precious metal. If they are made from metal that rusts or from a metal less precious than gold, then ordinarily they should be gilded on the inside. In the Dioceses of the United States of America, sacred vessels may also be made from other solid materials that, according to the common estimation in each region, are precious … they are to have bowls of nonabsorbent material" (nos. 328-330). Rather than being a commentary on the beliefs or practices of those other communities, these rules are intended to highlight the reverence that Catholics have for the bread and wine consecrated at Mass, which become the Body and Blood the Lord. ©LPi

The annual Good Friday Collection for the Holy Land allows us all the opportunity to join with Catholics around the world to help maintain the Holy Sites of Christ's birth, life, death, and resurrection.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On Good Friday, the Catholic Church gathers to remember the crucifixion of Jesus Christ as we await His resurrection on Easter Sunday. At the same time our thoughts turn to the Holy Lands where Christ lived, died, and rose from the dead. It has never been easy to be a Christian in the Holy Land. To assist, every year on Good Friday a collection is taken up in Catholic Churches to support the work of the Franciscans working in the Holy Land.

This Collection supports the work of the Franciscans at the sacred shrines and allows them to receive pilgrims, minister the parishes, provide formation and education in the communities and schools, and care for the basic needs of the people in the Holy Land. However, your support and generosity are essential to make this happen. In these challenging times in the Middle East, Christians are experiencing unique hardships. We have an opportunity to help them through the Pontifical Good Friday Collection.

The Holy Land Collection in the Diocese of Venice will be taken up on Good Friday, April 2, 2021. Your support for this Collection is a symbolic way of walking the Way of the Cross as do many of our elder brothers and sisters in the Holy Land. May God bless you for your generosity!

This opportunity is taken to extend to you my continued consideration as well as my prayers. Have a Blessed Holy Week!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
What an ironic twist of events! Jesus is hailed with palm branches as he comes down a street one minute and faces agonizing suffering and death on a cross the next. Does any of this make any sense? They shouted, "hosanna to our King," out of one side of their mouths and, "crucify him," out of the other. At first glance it seems like such hypocrisy. Yet, when we step back there may be more truth to the story than we care to admit. We struggle with Jesus. We hail him in our churches but struggle to figure out what to do with him on our streets. We are fine when we hear pious renderings of his messages and preaching but wince when it gets to the part about changing the way we conduct business and becoming more sensitive to the disadvantaged, poor and marginalized. We invoke God's name when we want victory and keep silence when it comes to global solidarity. We talk out of both sides of our mouths too, looking only to what works or suits us at the time and leaving the rest. There exists in each one of us a person who hails our King with hosannas and a person who is all too willing to choose Jesus over Barabbas for the cross. Something to think about this Holy Week! ©LPi

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA - RECONOCER A DIOS EN LOS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS
Camine cada paso con Cristo

La Semana Santa es una semana para estar atento. Debemos soltar el equipaje de la Cuaresma y no dejarnos desalentar por el deslumbrante amanecer de la mañana de Pascua llamándonos en la distancia.

Está bien que estemos emocionados por la Pascua. Después de todo, hemos esperado tanto. En mi opinión es uno de los mejores sentimientos que hay: el anhelo que tenemos en el corazón por la Resurrección al embarcarnos en el Domingo de Ramos. Y en un sentido puramente lógico, muchos de nosotros tenemos celebraciones de Pascua para las que nos estamos preparando y consideraciones prácticas con las que lidiar. Será una semana ocupada, probablemente llena de distracciones felices.

Pero amigos míos, simplemente debemos mantener los pies en el suelo. No nos "saltemos" la Semana Santa. Resiste la tentación de pasar a la última página del libro para avanzar rápidamente a la escena final de la película. No te robes el viaje. Esta semana es una oportunidad bendecida. Es esta semana la que nos enseña quiénes somos. En el lapso del Triduo, tenemos el nacimiento del sacerdocio, la institución de la Eucaristía, el sacrificio en el Calvario y tantas otras escenas vivas y significativas.

Puede sonar extraño, aconsejar a alguien que saboree los momentos de la Semana Santa. Después de todo, hay tantos momentos violentos y desgarradores. Pero este es el valle lágrimas, recuerdas, todavía no estamos en el cielo. Y aquí, en nuestro mundo caído y lleno de pecado, son los momentos desgarradores los que parecen importar más.

Estos son los momentos que nos definen como católicos. Vívelos. Aprécialos. Estate presente para cada uno de ellos.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA
¡Qué giro tan irónico de los acontecimientos! Jesús es saludado con ramas de palma cuando baja por una calle un minuto y se enfrenta al sufrimiento agonizante y la muerte en una cruz al siguiente. ¿Algo de esto tiene algún sentido? Gritaron "hosanna a nuestro Rey" por un lado de la boca y "crucifícalo" por el otro. A primera vista, parece tanta hipocresía. Sin embargo, cuando damos un paso atrás, puede haber más verdad en la historia de la que queremos admitir. Luchamos con Jesús. Lo alabamos en nuestras iglesias, pero luchamos por averiguar qué hacer con él en nuestras calles. Estamos bien cuando escuchamos interpretaciones piadosas de sus mensajes y predicación, pero nos estremecemos cuando se trata de cambiar la forma en que hacemos negocios y ser más sensibles a los desfavorecidos, los pobres y los marginados. Invocamos el nombre de Dios cuando queremos la victoria y guardamos silencio cuando se trata de solidaridad mundial. Nosotros también hablamos con ambos lados de la boca, mirando solo lo que funciona o nos conviene en ese momento y dejando el resto. Existe en cada uno de nosotros una persona que saluda a nuestro Rey con hosannas y una persona que está muy dispuesta a elegir a Jesús sobre Barrabás para la cruz. ¡Algo en qué pensar esta Semana Santa! ©LPi

DIMANCHE 28 MARS 2021 / DIMANCHE DES RAMEAUX / ANNÉE B.

ANTIENNE D'OUVERTURE :

Gloire et louange à toi, Seigneur Jésus !
Pour nous, le Christ est devenu obéissant, jusqu'à la mort, et la mort de la croix.
C'est pourquoi Dieu l'a exalté :
il l'a doté du Nom qui est au-dessus de tout nom.

PREMIÈRE LECTURE DE LA MESSE:

« Je n'ai pas caché ma face devant les outrages, je sais que je ne serai pas confondu» (Is 50, 4-7)

PSAUME

(21 (22), 8-9, 17-18a, 19-20, 22c-24a)

R/ Mon Dieu, mon Dieu,
pourquoi m'as-tu abandonné?

Tous ceux qui me voient me bafouent,
ils ricanent et hochent la tête :
« Il comptait sur le Seigneur : qu'il le délivre !
Qu'il le sauve, puisqu'il est son ami ! »

Oui, des chiens me cernent,
une bande de vauriens m'entoure.
Ils me percent les mains et les pieds ;
je peux compter tous mes os.

Ils partagent entre eux mes habits et tirent au sort mon vêtement.
Mais toi, Seigneur, ne sois pas loin :
ô ma force, viens vite à mon aide !

Tu m'as répondu !
Et je proclame ton nom devant mes frères,
je te loue en pleine assemblée.
Vous qui le craignez, louez le Seigneur.

DEUXIÈME LECTURE DE LA MESSE:

« Il s'est abaissé : c'est pourquoi Dieu l'a exalté » (Ph 2, 6-11)

EVANGILE DE LA MESSE:

Passion de notre Seigneur Jésus Christ (Mc 14, 1 – 15, 47)

REFLEXION SUR LA LITURGIE DU CAREME:

Tout au long de ce Carême, nous continuons notre montée vers la grande fête de Pâques. Les textes bibliques de ce dimanche nous invitent à contempler et à accueillir les signes que Dieu nous donne. Nous y découvrons un Dieu libérateur qui se fait proche de nous et qui est riche en miséricorde. Il nous rejoint dans nos situations de péché pour nous en libérer.
