Celebrating our Faith

BAPTISM OF INFANTS
Baptisms of children under 7 years old are offered every fourth Sunday of each month in Spanish and every second Sunday of the month in English. Please visit our website or contact our office for details and requirements.

CONFIRMATION
At confirmation we receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit and confirm and renew our baptismal promises committing to a life of maturity in the Christian faith. Unconfirmed Catholics wishing to receive the Sacrament should contact the Parish Office to make arrangements for suitable instruction. Unbaptized or non-Catholics can be confirmed at the Easter Vigil when they are baptized or received into the Church as a part of Rite of Christian Initiation of Adult. To enroll in RCIA, please call Griselda Cisneros at 992-0901.

EUCHARIST
Parishioners who wish to bring communion to their spouses should contact the parish office to pick up a pyx with the St. Leo's inscription on it. Please use this pyx when approaching to receive a host for your spouse or a family member in the Communion procession during Mass. If you need to receive a gluten free host due to a medical condition please arrive 15 minutes before Mass begins and inform the Sacristan.

RECONCILIATION
Individual confession with a priest is the principal means of absolution and reconciliation of grave sins within the Church. The Sacrament of Reconciliation frees us from sinful patterns of behavior and calls us to complete conversion to Christ. Confessions are heard at 9-10:30am on Saturday in English and 6:15pm on Sunday in Spanish in the St. Leo Auditorium/North Door . You may also approach any of our parish priests to hear your confession at another suitable time.

THE RITE OF ANOINTING
A person does not need to wait until the point of death to receive this sacrament. A careful judgment about the serious nature of the illness is sufficient. The Sacrament may be repeated if the sick person recovers after the anointing but becomes ill once again, or if, during the same illness, the person's condition becomes more serious. For those who are about to depart from this life, the Church offers the person Penance, Anointing of the Sick, and the Eucharist as Viaticum (food for the journey) given at the end of life. Contact the Parish Office at 992-0901 to be connected with the priest on duty.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE
If you are a registered parishioner of St. Leo and plan to marry in our parish please contact our office at least six months prior to the tentative wedding date. Weddings cannot be scheduled until the marriage preparation process is complete and it is determined that the parties are free to marry.

ANNULMENT - Reestablishing the freedom to marry.
An annulment is more accurately described as a declaration of matrimonial invalidity. It is an official determination made by an ecclesiastical court that at the time of the marital consent exchanged by the parties a specific component of the marriage was lacking or defective. Hence, the marriage failed to be a marriage as defined by the Catholic Church. If you wish to reestablish your freedom to marry in the Church, please contact a parish priest to be your advocate in presenting your case to the Tribunal.

VOCATION
If you think that you have a vocation to the priesthood or religious life please speak with one of our priests, or contact the Diocesan Director of Vocations at 941-484-9548, visit www.dioceseofvenice.org/vocations

2021 CFA

Making Your Pledge to the Catholic Faith Appeal

Your contribution to the 2021 CFA is the best and most efficient way to help our parish, and the collected funds support numerous ministries throughout the Church. In 2020 your donations to CFA exceeded our goal by over 22% which resulted in more than $100,000 being returned to the parish without assessment.

Our Goal	$462,000
Contributions to date	$405,002
Our Pledges	$429,798
Pledge Goal Attained	93.03%

= 10% of Goal

If you are looking for a Mass with fewer people in attendance, based on last weekend's numbers we suggest 5:30 pm on Saturday or 5 pm on Sunday.

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
Good things come from unlikely places
It may bring a smile to our lips to hear the argument for why we're obliged to love others: because God loves us first. And if God can love us (be honest here!) then clearly love need not be earned. This World Communications Day, Pope Francis invites us to consider how future-apostle Nathaniel once dismissed Jesus because of his origins: "Can anything good come from Nazareth?" To really love people, we have to begin by not categorizing them: by gender or race, nationality or religion, native language or political party. Even Nazareth holds surprises!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 1:15-17, 20a, 20c-26; 1 John 4:11-16; John 17:11b-19 (60). "Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another."

EASTER WEEKDAY
Solitude and solidarity
Many have experienced more solitude than they care for during the pandemic, but it'd be a shame to lose the lessons of the experience once it's over. Catholics have a strong tradition of finding the sacred in solitude. The monastic life, for example, is all about withdrawing from society to draw closer to God and ultimately to each other. Turning inward is an opportunity for growth. Ritualizing the routines of life—in the midst of grief and stress and fear—helps to maintain inner stability and clarity. At the same time, far too many haven't had the luxury of solitude to remove themselves from danger—let this fact light a fire in all of us to fight for justice for those who have risked all to serve society this past year.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 19:1-8; John 16:29-33 (297). "I am not alone, because the Father is with me."

Tuesday, May 18, 2021
MEMORIAL OF JOHN I, POPE, MARTYR
Define your terms
In 2011, the Nicene Creed in English changed from the poetic-but-imprecise "one in being"—recited at Mass for more than 40 years—back to a seemingly unusual, clunky Latin word: consubstantial. We learned that consubstantial was a critical distinction hammered out at various church councils to clarify that Jesus was divinely co-eternal with God. It was a pronouncement specifically designed to refute the Arian heresy that denied Christ's divinity. The struggle against Arianism cost Pope John I his life in 526. Words matter. Take time to choose the right ones.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 20:17-27; John 17:1-11a (298). "Now glorify me, Father, with you, with the glory that I had with you before the world began."

EASTER WEEKDAY
Going home
Final farewells are difficult. While there can be grace in the chance to express love and gratitude, there also can be great pain at the thought of never again seeing a face, touching a hand, hearing a voice. There is true heartache in accepting that there will be no more shared meals, meaningful discussions, shared futures planned together as we surrender the companionship of a loved one. It is a bittersweet time because the grief of anticipated loss is proof of an equally deep love. Yet it is not the end—faith promises us more. On this Easter Wednesday, with trust in the promise of new life, give thanks to God for someone whose love and faithfulness has enriched your life.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 20:28-38; John 17:11b-19 (299). "They were all weeping loudly . . . for they were deeply distressed that (Paul) had said that they would never see his face again."

MEMORIAL OF BERNARDINE OF SIENA, PRIEST, RELIGIOUS, MISSIONARY
History will be our judge
Church history is filled with admirable figures who stand out for their tender love and compassion. Bernardine of Siena was not that kind of saint. A fire-and-brimstone preacher with a moralizing temperament, he encouraged "bonfires of the vanities" where townsfolk pitched household items suggestive of luxury or leisure—mirrors, perfumes, games—into the fire. Seen from our vantage point, many of his sermons had antisemitic, misogynistic, and homophobic overtones. Though a commanding preacher who lived a life of devotion, Bernardine—like all of us—was a product of his times, limited by the pastoral and theological perspectives handed down to him. His innovations in vernacular preaching continue to inspire, yet his limitations in compassion and inclusion serve as a cautionary tale. None of us has a monopoly on moral purity. Kindness and compassion, however, never go out of style.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 22:30; 23:6-11; John 17:20-26 (300). "And I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one."

MEMORIAL OF CHRISTOPHER MAGALLANES, PRIEST, MARTYR, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS
Live fully
Each of us is called to give our lives fully on behalf of our love for and commitment to God. Most of us will not die a martyr's death, but some of us will. Christopher Magallanes was one such person. Christopher's call to be a martyr was lived every day through his prayer and ministry as a priest: founding schools, providing work opportunities, and even constructing a dam to help the people. He was killed because of his love for the people, a love emanating from his deep faith. How does our faith inspire us to give of ourselves fully?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 25:13b-21; John 21:15-19 (301). " 'Simon, son of John, do you love me?' Simon Peter answered him, 'Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.' He said to him, 'Tend my sheep.' "

MEMORIAL OF RITA OF CASCIA, RELIGIOUS
Hope is a perennial
We all could use a friend like Saint Rita of Cascia. Wed against her will at the tender age of 12, she somehow survived abuse and family feuds to become a reconciling force in a violent region of 15th-century Italy. She has acquired a following, along with Saint Jude, as the patron of hopeless causes. On her deathbed, it is said she asked for a rose from her garden. Though it was winter, we are told a single blooming rose was found and brought to her. Never lose hope—no cause is hopeless!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 28:16-20, 30-31; John 21:20-25 (302). "There are also many other things that Jesus did."

This silent retreat will introduce you to the great themes of the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises in a group setting and includes six conferences, daily Mass, and an opportunity to meet at with the retreat director for confession and spiritual direction.
For information or to register call Denise Riley at 941-486-0233, ext. 3004, or visit www.olph-retreat.org.

Father's Day Spiritual Bouquets to remember your loved ones are available in the front entrance of the church and at the parish office.

Volunteers Needed

With the opening of Masses we are in need of volunteers who would like to assist at our liturgies as Eucharistic Ministers and Ushers. In addition we are in need of additional people to count money received at Masses. Some of these positions require you to be finger printed and be subjected to a background check.

Please call the parish office at 992-0901 with questions, or to volunteer.

GOODBYE PEGGY

Our Lector Ministry at St. Leo is truly a symbol of our love for God and for his Church. Peggy Bischoff, a long time parishioner, has been leading this ministry for over 20 years, and before that has served the parish in many other roles. She has now decided to move to the northern part of the state with her family. We gratefully wish her all the best in her relocation and look forward to her promised visits with us in the future. As she says, "I will not say goodbye, but rather see you again in church!" Thank you for all that you have done for St. Leo Peggy and God Bless You!

Farewell to our seasonal parishioners as you leave for the summer. May you travel safely. You can keep in touch with what is happening at the parish by downloading our app to your smartphone or by going to www.stleocatholicchurch.org.

THEY WENT FORTH AND PREACHED EVERYWHERE.

THE POOR LEAD US STRAIGHT TO GOD

Pope Francis noted that amid so many penultimate and passing realities, what is ultimate and will remain forever is love, "for God is love," and he reiterated that "the poor person who begs for my love leads me straight to God".

"The poor facilitate our access to heaven," he said, "they are our treasure, the treasure of the Church. For the poor reveal to us the riches that never grow old, that unite heaven and earth, the riches for which life is truly worth living: the riches of love".

The Perpetual Baby Shower Donation Bassinet

The Bassinet is located in the narthex of the church. Please remember all the infants who are in need of diapers (especially sizes 4-5-6) and new clothes for the season. Their toddler brothers and sisters grow so fast and need clothes also.

The Ladies of St. Leo Guild thank all of you for your past support. Donations may also be taken to the parish office.

UPDATED INFORMATION FOR MASS ATTENDANCE

The Bishop's dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass has ended. As we follow the guidelines of the diocese, face masks will be essential and parishioner are now responsible for keeping their own social distance of three feet. All pews are available and staggered seating is suggested. There should be no physical contact during the Sign of Peace or the Our Father. For Communion there will be two lines in the main aisle coming forward to the altar. There will be one line in each of the transepts and if needed, one in the rear of the church. Those wishing to receive Communion on the tongue should wait until those receiving in the hand have finished and then approach the priest.

*Exceptions are for those who are ill, confined to their home, hospital or nursing facility and those who care for them, those who have reason to believe they were recently exposed to the virus, those with underlying health conditions or in a high-risk category, and those who have a reasonable fear or anxiety of becoming ill if they attend Mass.

Eucharistic Adoration

Experiencing the marvelous presence of Christ through Eucharistic Adoration is available in our Chapel from 9am to 3pm Monday through Saturday.

Washable handmade masks which are available in dozens of different prints are for sale in the parish office.

Hearing Loops are installed around the pews adjacent to the north and south entrances of the church and in the new auditorium. Hearing Loops transmit sound directly into a hearing aid or cochlear implant. To receive the Loop signal, manually activate the T-coil or telephone setting on your device. Consult your audiologist or hearing aid professional with problems.

NEW MISSALETTES!

If you would like a personal copy of the Missalette to use during the pandemic we have a new supply available in the parish office for a requested donation of two dollars. This issue covers the readings from April 11 to July 31.

NOTAS EN ESPAÑOL

Virgen Santísima de Guadalupe, Reina de los Ángeles y Madre de las Américas. Acudimos a ti hoy como tus amados hijos.
Te pedimos que intercedas por nosotros con tu Hijo, como lo hiciste en las bodas de Caná.
Ruega por nosotros, Madre amorosa, y obtén para nuestra nación, nuestro mundo, y para todas nuestras familias y seres queridos, la protección de tus santos ángeles, para que podamos salvarnos de lo peor de esta enfermedad.
Para aquellos que ya están afectados, te pedimos que les concedas la gracia de la sanación y la liberación.
Escucha los gritos de aquellos que son vulnerables y temerosos, seca sus lágrimas y ayúdalos a confiar.
En este tiempo de dificultad y prueba, enséñanos a todos en la Iglesia a amarnos los unos a los otros y a ser pacientes y amables.
Ayúdanos a llevar la paz de Jesús a nuestra tierra y a nuestros corazones.
Acudimos a ti con confianza, sabiendo que realmente eres nuestra madre compasiva, la salud de los enfermos y la causa de nuestra alegría.
Refúgianos bajo el manto de tu protección, mantennos en el abrazo de tus brazos, ayúdanos a conocer siempre el amor de tu Hijo, Jesús. Amen.

LAS SEÑORAS DE ST. LEO ORTORGAN BECAS 2021
