29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." (Mark 10:45)

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God's love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from "I want more" to "thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share". This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.

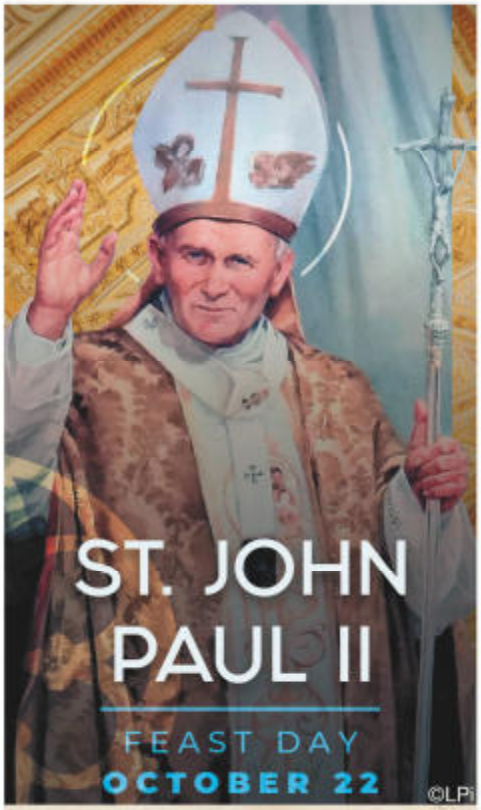
LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

It's the positions of power and great authority that people often admire. We equate success with six figure incomes, high positions, management, and influence. We even go above and beyond to find favor with our bosses so that we can get a little extra recognition and maybe the next promotion when it comes up. This is the way of the world. Those who have their values set on earthly things are going to work by earthly rules. We forget that it doesn't work that way in the Kingdom of God. Success is measured not from the place of status, influence, or prestige but from the place of humility, service, and sacrifice. The authority that one hopes to achieve is not an authority over others but an authority that comes from wisdom and developing one's relationship with God. Jesus flips the tables on our priorities. Even the first disciples had a tough time understanding this. They really thought that they would somehow receive a privilege or bonus from being faithful. We often operate under that same illusion.



SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. John Paul II was born Karol Wojtyla in the small Polish town of Wadowice. During World War II, when the Nazis invaded Poland, Karol secretly studied for the priesthood in an underground seminary. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1946, appointed Archbishop of Krakow in 1964, and three years later he was made a cardinal. In 1978, he was elected the 264th pope, where he took the name John Paul II.

St. John Paul II made evangelization a key part of his papacy and made pastoral visits to all parts of the world. In 1981, he was shot twice in an assassination attempt. Following Jesus' example of compassion, he later met with his would-be assassin in his prison cell, where he forgave him for what he had done.

St. John Paul II was well-known to be an active sportsman throughout his life, hiking and skiing well into his 60s. In 1992, his health began to decline, and it was later discovered that he suffered from Parkinson's disease, a degenerative disorder of the central nervous system.

Near the end of his papacy, it became difficult for him to speak, and his poor health and physical suffering made public appearances difficult. Still, he continued his pastoral work. He died April 2, 2005, and he was declared blessed on May 1, 2011. He became a saint on April 27, 2014.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"What do you wish me to do for you?" Whether we realize it, this is a question God is always asking. It's an important question because the answer we provide will reveal a great deal about where our hearts lie. Our requests of God can often appear very noble and altruistic. They consist of requests for healing for someone in need of prayers, successful resolution of a personal conflict, assistance in overcoming a disease and myriad other desires for both ourselves and others. We are especially concerned about those we love and can easily find ourselves bringing their struggles to God for a hearing in our prayer.

Is that really all that prayer is about? The woman in today's Gospel, having been put in her place by Jesus, was only looking out for the wellbeing of her sons. She was doing what mothers do, protecting and securing the livelihood of her children. But she was sadly mistaken, her request was not granted. We all make this same misguided mistake from time to time. The goal of prayer is not to convince God of the worthiness of our agenda or to gain a hearing. Sometimes we believe that the more we multiply our prayers or discover the right combination of supplications that we will receive more of God's attention. That's not how it works. Even though God desires to hear, know, and be an intimate part of what is on our minds, it goes much deeper.

What we need from God is a relationship. It's a relationship that guides and immerses us in the very stuff of life and in the direction of the Gospel. This relationship sees God's kingdom and agenda, not our own, as what is most important. It builds the strength of character necessary to bring God's Gospel into a world that may not receive it with open arms. It may cause us discomfort and suffering. We are asked to heroically journey with God through suffering, hardship, ridicule, and even death! Ultimately, our desire from God must become our desire for God. It is only when this happens that the powerful words "thy will be done" will be found with sincerity and humility on our lips. Whatever God wishes becomes what we wish as we see this glorious union of wills. Our humble lives will then become powerful witnesses, and what happens to us in God's eternal kingdom the result of his mercy. We become true servants and find ourselves discovering God's definition of success. That definition has nothing at all to do with status, income, or privilege.

IGLESIA CATÓLICA DE LA SAGRADA FAMILIA

DEL OCTUBRE 17 DE 2021 | 29DO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

ENFOQUE: Cristo vino a dar su vida como rescate por muchos.

Así como Jesús revela que él es el Siervo Sufriente que debe sufrir y morir, así nosotros, sus discípulos, podemos esperar seguirlo a lo largo del camino hacia el Calvario. Sin embargo, incluso a la luz de esta dolorosa verdad, tenemos una esperanza maravillosa: la esperanza de que el ahora glorificado Siervo Sufriente interceda por nosotros ante el trono de Dios.

LITURGIA DE LA PALABRA

Isaías profetiza al siervo para que, a través de su sufrimiento, justificará a muchos. En la Carta a los Hebreos, Jesús es descrito como el gran Sumo sacerdote que ha pasado por los cielos. En el Evangelio, Santiago y Juan le piden a Jesús que les permita sentarse a su derecha e izquierda en su gloria.

Domingo 29º del Tiempo Ordinario

"El Hijo del Hombre no vino para que le sirvieran sino para servir y dar su vida para rescatarnos" (Marcos 10:45)

Si sostuviera un espejo frente a su vida, ¿reflejaría el amor y la misericordia de Dios? Si está teniendo dificultades con eso, trate de cambiar su actitud de "quiero más" a "gracias a Dios por todo lo que me has dado, tengo suficiente para compartir". Este cambio en perspectivas le traerá alegría a través del servicio a los demás. Ore diariamente para ser menos egoísta y más centrado en Dios.

ORACION DE PROTECCION CONTRA HURACANES

Dios Padre, Creador del Universo, te pedimos humildemente que calmes las tormentas que nos amenazan para que seguros por tu protección amorosa te sirvamos siempre con corazones agradecidos. Por Jesucristo, Nuestro Señor. Amén.
