Safeguard the Children

Teach kids when to say something

It is important to help children understand the difference between telling on others and sharing information that could help keep themselves or someone else safe. Teach children about secrets that are okay (a surprise birthday party), and secrets that are never okay (don't tell mom or dad that…); and, perhaps most importantly, what to do if someone asks them to keep a bad secret. Speaking up can save a child from harm or abuse.

To request a copy of the VIRTUS® article, "To Tattle or Protect," email: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call: (213) 637-7227.
